Early Netherlandish Painting at the Crossroads Maryan W. Ainsworth, 2001 The nine papers collected in this publication which comprises the third and latest edition to the symposium volumes by the Metropolitan Museum of Art were first presented in conjunction with the Museum's exhibition of Early Netherlandish painting culled from its own holdings in 1998 The essays by an international roster of leading specialists together uncover the circumstances underlying the creation of works of art and shed new light on their meaning in the context of the growing interdisciplinary activity and burgeoning scholarship in the field The importance of archival research into the socio economic factors that existed in the late fifteenth and early sixteenth centuries is emphasized especially the impact of art markets on the production of paintings as well as sculpture Much new material has surfaced as a result of advances in the technical investigation of works of art underscoring the premise that the clues to the meaning of a work are often found not only in its method of manufacture but also in the specific audience for which it was intended and in the function that it originally served for that audience Publisher description
