From Vietnam To Cambodia A Background About The Struggle In Southeast:

From Vietnam to Cambodia Hal Dareff, 1971 Background of the struggles in Southeast Asia From Vietnam to Cambodia : a Background Book about the Struggle in Southeast Asia Howard M. Shapiro, 1971 An International History of the Vietnam War: The struggle for South-East Asia, 1961-65 Ralph Bernard Smith, 1983 During 1965 the Vietnam War was transformed into an American War Escalation brought the deployment of increasing numbers of United States ground troops and a slowly expanding air campaign against North Vietnam Yet the war was limited in more senses than one It was not allowed either by President Johnson or by the leaders of the Soviet Union and China to lead to a wider confrontation in other parts of the world not even as a big unit war on the ground to spread beyond the borders of Vietnam

International Relations in Southeast Asia N Ganesan, Ramses Amer, 2010 The central theme of this book is the utility of bilateralism and multilateralism in Southeast Asia international relations The intention was to examine a sufficient number of empirical cases in the Southeast Asian region since the mid 1970 s so as to establish a pattern of interactions informing a wider audience of interactions unique to the region Through these case studies we seek to identify how this pattern of interaction compares with similar experiences elsewhere vis a vis the theoretical underpinnings of multilateralism and bilateralism Consequently this book also examines the theoretical drift in international relations literature at the broadest level and the overall drift of Southeast Asian international relations between the nations themselves and the Association of Southeast Asian Nations ASEAN P xv Thailand and the Southeast Asian Networks of The Vietnamese Revolution, 1885-1954 Christopher E. Goscha, 2013-09-05 Christopher Goscha resituates the Vietnamese revolution and war against the French into its Asian context Breaking with nationalist and colonial historiographies which have largely locked Vietnam into Indochinese or Nation state straightjackets Goscha takes Thailand as his point of departure for exploring how the Vietnamese revolution was intimately linked to Asia between the birth of the Save the King Movement in 1885 and the Battle of Dien Bien Phu in 1954 But his study is more than just a political history Goscha brings geography to bear on his subject with a passion While he considers the little known political movements of such well known faces as Phan Boi Chau and Ho Chi Minh across Southeast Asia the author takes us into the complex Asian networks stretching from northeastern Thailand and the port of Bangkok to southern China and Hong Kong and beyond There we see how Ho and Chau drew upon an invisible army of Vietnamese and Chinese traders criminals prostitutes sailors and above all the thousands of emigres living in Vietnamese communities in Thailand Struggling To Be Heard Valerie Ooka Pang, Li-Rong Lilly Cheng, 1998-09-03 The social psychological and educational needs of Asian Pacific American youth often go unmet This book written by multicultural educators social workers psychologists and others challenges stereotypical beliefs and seeks to provide basic knowledge and direction for working with this population often labeled as the model minority Political Violence in Southeast Asia since 1945 Eve Monique Zucker, Ben Kiernan, 2021-04-19 This book examines postwar waves of political violence that affected six Southeast Asian countries Indonesia Burma Myanmar Cambodia Thailand the Philippines and Vietnam from the wars of independence in the mid twentieth century to the recent Rohingya genocide Featuring cases not previously explored and offering fresh insights into more familiar cases the chapters cover a range of topics including the technologies of violence the politics of fear inclusion and exclusion justice and ethics repetitions of mass violence events impunity law ethnic and racial killings crimes against humanity and genocide The book delves into the violence that has reverberated across the region spurred by local and global politics and ideologies through the examination of such themes as identity ascription and formation existential and ontological questions collective memories of violence and social and political transformation In our current era of global social and political transition the volume s case studies provide an opportunity to consider potential repercussions and outcomes of various political and ideological positionings and policies Enhancing our understanding of the technologies techniques motives causes consequences and connections between violent episodes in the Southeast Asian cases the book raises key questions for the study of mass violence worldwide

The Cambridge History of Southeast Asia: Volume 2, The Nineteenth and Twentieth Centuries Nicholas Tarling, 1992 Southeast Asia has long been seen as a unity although other terms have been used to describe it Further India Little China the Nanyang The region has had a protracted maritime history Confucianism Buddhism Islam Hinduism Christianity are all represented It has seen a quintet of colonial powers Britain France The Netherlands Spain the United States Most recently it has become one of the fastest growing parts of the world economy The very term Southeast Asia is clearly more than a geographical expression The Cambridge History of Southeast Asia is a multi authored treatment of the whole of mainland and island Southeast Asia from Burma to Indonesia Unlike other histories of the region it is not divided on a country by country basis and is not structured purely chronologically but rather takes a thematic and regional approach to Southeast Asia s history This volume the second and final in the series takes us into the nineteenth and twentieth centuries from the late eighteenth century of the Christian era when most of the region was incorporated into European empires to the complexity and dramatic change of the post World War II period It covers the economic and social life as well as the religious and popular culture of the region as they develop over two centuries The political structures of the region are also closely examined from the insurgencies and rebellions of early this century to the modern Nationalist movements which challenged the control of the colonial powers and led to the formation of independent states Under the editorship of Nicholas Tarling Professor of History at the University of Auckland New Zealand each chapter is well integrated into the whole Professor Tarling has assembled a highly respected team of international scholars who have presented the latest historical research on the region and succeeded in producing a provocative and exciting account of the region s history

The Cambridge History of Southeast Asia: Volume 2, Part 2, From World War II to the Present Nicholas Tarling, 2000-01-28 In these four volumes published in paperback in 2000 twenty two scholars of international reputation consider the whole of mainland and island Southeast Asia from Burma to Indonesia Each volume has a new preface which points to the relationships with the other volumes The prefaces also comment on some of the research into and thinking about the subject undertaken since the original contributions were completed for the first edition Volume 2 Part 2 covers the period from World War II to the present and examines the end of European colonial empires the emergence of political structures of the independent states economic and social change religious change in contemporary Southeast Asia Southeast Asia's role and identity in decolonisation and the ongoing weakening of links with the West Conflict Resolution and Peacebuilding in Laos Stephanie Phetsamay Stobbe, 2015-06-19 Using the case study of Laos a small landlocked country in Southeast Asia that has seen some of the world's most brutal forms of poverty and violence this book examines the power of traditional and indigenous conflict resolution systems as a tool for social justice It explores how the conflict resolution mechanisms build infrastructures that support social harmony and address larger scale conflicts within communities nations and international arenas The book discusses how over centuries foreign powers have polarised and used the ethnic groups of Laos to support their own agendas and how in spite of this the Lao people have consistently managed to recreate the peace and harmony that support their social relationships whether that is within groups or between many distinct groups Through the development and use of appropriate grassroots conflict resolution structures that do not require a formal court system and exists outside the political arena they have been successful in resolving conflicts within and across cultural groups The book shows that the conflict resolution systems of Laos are embedded in the fabric of ordinary everyday life and operate independently of the hierarchical structures that dominate governing institutions Highlighting how peace continues to work its way into existence through elaborate mediation systems and rituals that bring people together this book will be of use to students and scholars of Southeast Asian Politics Peace Studies and War and Conflict Studies Regionalism in China-Vietnam Relations Oliver Hensengerth, 2009-09-10 Analyses collaboration in the Greater Mekong Subregion which is a manifestation of the so called new regionalism in growth triangles GTs in Northeast and Southeast Asia Exploring inter state cooperation and the role of subnational units provincial and local governments and transnational actors NGOs firms in building and maintaining the subregion Teaching Global History Alan J. Singer, 2012-04-27 Teaching Global History challenges prospective and beginning social studies teachers to formulate their own views about what is important to know in global history and why It explains how to organize the curriculum around broad social studies concepts and themes and student questions about humanity history and the contemporary world All chapters include lesson ideas a sample lesson plan with activity sheets primary source documents and helpful charts graphs photographs and maps High school students responses are woven in throughout Additional material corresponding to each chapter is posted online at http://people.hofstra.edu/alan_j_singer The traditional curriculum tends to highlight the Western heritage and to race through epochs and regions leaving little time for an in depth exploration of concepts and historical themes for the evaluation of primary and secondary sources and for students to draw their own historical conclusions Offering an alternative to such pre packaged textbook outlines and materials this text is a powerful resource for promoting thoughtful reflection and debate about what the global history curriculum should be and how to teach it Dictionary of the Modern Politics of Southeast Asia Michael Leifer, Professor of International Relations Michael Leifer, 2002-09-11 The Dictionary of the Modern Politics of South East Asia provides comprehensive coverage of the political history of this important region since the end of the Second World War Over 400 alphabetically organized entries cover Brunei Burma Myanmar Cambodia Kampuchia Indonesia Laos Malaysia the Philippines Singapore Thailand and Vietnam Individual entries provide detailed information and authoritative commentary for the central figures political parties and organizations political systems and structures major events and key documents including constitutions and treat National Geographic Essential Visual History of the World ,2007 Illustrations photographs and text describe the prominent figures and important events in the history of the world from prehistory through 2006 Includes time lines The International Dimensions of Internal Conflict Michael Edward Brown, 1996 Internal conflicts threaten many countries and regions globally The first part of this book examines the sources of internal conflicts and the ways these may affect neighbouring states and the international community The second part covers specific problems policy instruments and key actors The Chinese of South-East Asia Ramses Amer, SUE RABBITT ROFF, MARY SOMERS HEIDHUES, MARTIN SMITH, JOHN TAYLOR, 1992-11-23 COEXISTENCE OR CONTROL Many Chinese have worked and lived in the countries of South East Asia for generations and are part of the much larger diaspora of ethnic Chinese worldwide They make their livings generally from business farming fishing while a few enjoy high profile wealth the vast majority do not THE CHINESE OF SOUTH EAST ASIA shows just how varied are the experiences of the ethnic Chinese in the ten states of the region Some coexist reasonably well with the majority population in their country elsewhere ethnic tensions have brought outbreaks of violence and discrimination against them Some communities have limits placed on their access to Chinese language education others have not Some governments have encouraged ethnic Chinese participation in the economic arena while others have controlled or restricted their business activities This report illustrates how much the future of South East Asia s ethnic Chinese is bound together politically economically and culturally with the majority population and other minority ethnic groups within each country Written by four experts on the region this is an essential survey of the history and present circumstances of the ethnic Chinese as they strive to foster and enjoy stability trust and growth Please note that the terminology in the fields of minority rights and indigenous peoples rights has changed over time MRG strives to reflect these changes as well as respect the right to self identification on the part of minorities and indigenous peoples At the same time after over 50 years work we know that our archive is of considerable interest to activists and researchers Therefore we make available as much of our back catalogue as possible while being aware that the language used may not reflect current thinking on these issues Congressional Record United States. Congress, 1981-06-02 The Congressional Record is the official record of the proceedings and debates of the United States Congress. It is published daily when Congress is in session. The Congressional Record began publication in 1873. Unresolved Border, Land and Maritime Disputes in Southeast Asia Alfred Gerstl, Mária Strašáková, 2016-11-14. Unresolved Border, Land and Maritime Disputes in Southeast Asia edited by Alfred Gerstl and Mária Strašáková sheds light on various unresolved and lingering territorial disputes in Southeast Asia and their reflection in current inter-state relations in the region. The authors, academics from Europe and East Asia, particularly address the territorial disputes in the South China Sea and those between Vietnam and Cambodia and Thailand and Cambodia. They apply International Relations theories in a wider regional and comparative perspective. The empirical analyses are embedded in a concise theoretical discussion of the principles of sovereignty, territorial integrity, and borders. Furthermore, the book discusses the role of the Association of Southeast Asian Nations (ASEAN) and other multi-track mechanisms in border conflict mediation. Contributors are Petra Andlová, Alica Kizeková, Filip Kraus, Josef Falko, Loher, Padraig Lysaght, Jörg Thiele, Richard Turcsányi, Truong Minh Vu, and Zdeněk K.
