Walker,2017-07-05 An original and valuable intervention in the fast growing field of feminist and new art histories Nancy Spero Encounters offers a sophisticated interpretation of the work of a highly original and under represented woman artist The study proposes a new model of comparatism within the field of visual studies mirroring and complementing Spero s dialogic manner of working Basing her analyses on extensive research and multiple face to face interviews with the artist Joanna Walker examines how a selection of the artists and art forms Spero cited offer significant points of comparison with her work Walker presents Spero s encounters with the art of Ana Mendieta with the poetry of the American poet H D with the dance of Isadora Duncan and turning the lens back on Spero as subject with the portraits of the artist by Abe Frajndlich Also included are transcripts of Walker s interviews with the artist and a listing of the books contained in Spero s personal library which informed her practice Not only does this book cast well deserved light on an artist who spent most of her career on the margins of the mainstream it reverses genealogies and revises the traditional remit of the art historical monograph through both its structure and content The Holocaust's Ghost F. C. DeCoste, Bernard Schwartz, 2000-05 Numerous scholars explore the moral aesthetic and political outcomes of the Holocaust from the perspectives of various academic backgrounds including art literature political science education and history New York Magazine ,1993-08-30 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea Memory & Oblivion A.W. Reinink, Jeroen Stumpel, 2012-12-06 Memory is a subject that recently has attracted many scholars and readers not only in the general historical sciences but also in the special field of art history However in this book in which more than 130 papers given at the XXIXth International Congress of the History of Art Amsterdam 1996 have been compiled Memory is also juxtaposed to its counterpart Oblivion thus generating extra excitement in the exchange of ideas The papers are presented in eleven sections each of which is devoted to a different aspect of memory and oblivion ranging from purely material aspects of preservation to social phenomena with regard to art collecting from the memory of the art historian to workshop practices from art in antiquity to the newest media from Buddhist iconography to the Berlin Wall The book addresses readers in the field of history history of art and psychology High Art David Carrier, 2010-11-01 The great poet Charles Baudelaire 1821 1867 was also an extremely influential art critic High Art relates the philosophical issues posed by Baudelaire s art writing to the theory and practice of modernist and postmodernist painting Baudelaire wrote in an age of transition David Carrier argues an era divided by the Revolution of 1848 the historical break that played for him a role now taken within modernism by the political revolts of 1968 Moving from the grand tradition of Delacroix to the images of modern life made by Constantin Guys this movement from high to low from the unified world of correspondences to the fragmented images of contemporary city life motivates Baudelaire s equivalent to the post 1968 turn away from formalist art criticism Viewed from the perspective of the 1990s Carrier argues the issues raised by Baudelaire s criticism and creative writing provide a way of understanding the situation of art writing in our own time Museums Inside Out Mark W.
