Gary Schulz,2012-11-29 n this world of sin we all struggle with security fear acceptance and joy We are all subject to potential physical situational or emotional harm from others Its a competitive world Peaceful and loving homes with godly parents who love each other are rare The home has become a place for the greatest harm Everyone has to survive somehow Some have good jobs and money some do not Some get all the breaks in life and some come up short Some succeed and some fail Some are accepted and some are rejected Do you view yourself as a victim Do you see yourself as deserving special treatment because of your victim status On the other hand do you see yourself as victorious What does it mean to be victorious And how does one obtain victory especially when he already sees himself as the victim of those who are stronger Are you your greatest enemy Are you a victim of your own view of yourself Is a victim status a choice Is victory a choice Jesus said the truth would set us free Learn to seek victorious freedom through Jesus Christ

From the Plantation to the Prison Tara T. Green,2008 According to George Jackson black men born in the US are conditioned to accept the inevitability of being imprisoned Being born a slave in a captive society and never experiencing any objective basis for expectation had the effect of preparing me for the progressively traumatic misfortune that led so many black men to the prison gate I was prepared for prison It required only minor psychic adjustments As Jackson writes from his prison cell his statement may seem to be only a product of his current status However history proves his point Indeed some of the most well known and respected black men have served time in jail or prison Among them are Martin Luther King Jr Malcolm X Marcus Garvey and Frederick Douglass This book is an examination of the various forms that imprisonment as a social historical and political experience of African Americans has taken Confinement describes the status of individuals who are placed within boundaries either seen or unseen but always felt A word that suggests extensive implications confinement describes the status of persons who are imprisoned and who are unjustly relegated to a social status that is hostile rendering them powerless and subject to the rules of the authorities Arguably confinement appropriately describes the status of African Americans who have endured spaces of confinement which include but are not limited to plantations Jim Crow societies and prisons At specific times these spaces of confinement have been used to oppress African Americans socially politically and spiritually Contributors examine the related experiences of Malcolm X Bigger Thomas of Native Son and Angela Davis
