McCaffrey, 2013-04-30 When Japanese forces attacked Pearl Harbor on December 7 1941 Americans reacted with revulsion and horror In the patriotic war fever that followed thousands of volunteers including Japanese Americans rushed to military recruitment centers Except for those in the Hawaii National Guard who made up the 100th Infantry Battalion the U S Army initially turned Japanese American prospects away Then as a result of anti Japanese fearmongering on the West Coast more than 100 000 Americans of Japanese descent were sent to confinement in inland relocation centers Most were natural born citizens their only crime their ethnicity After the army eventually decided it would admit the second generation Japanese American Nisei volunteers it complemented the 100th Infantry Battalion by creating the 442nd Regimental Combat Team This mostly Japanese American unit consisted of soldiers drafted before Pearl Harbor volunteers from Hawaii and even recruits from the relocation centers In Going for Broke historian James M McCaffrey traces these men s experiences in World War II from training to some of the deadliest combat in Europe Weaving together the voices of numerous soldiers McCaffrey tells of the men s frustrations and achievements on the U S mainland and abroad Training in Mississippi the recruits from Hawaii and the mainland have their first encounter with southern style black white segregation Once in action they helped push the Germans out of Italy and France The 442nd would go on to become one of the most highly decorated units in the U S Army McCaffrey s account makes clear that like other American soldiers in World War II the Nisei relied on their personal determination social values and training to go for broke to bet everything even their lives Ultimately their bravery and patriotism in the face of prejudice advanced racial harmony and opportunities for Japanese Americans after the war

Italian Battle Fleet 1940-43 Enrico Cernuschi, 2024-04-25 A comprehensive illustrated account of the wartime Italian battle fleet from its ships and technology to command structure logistics codebreaking and more In the 1920s the Italian Navy faced great challenges Mussolini s ambitious Italy turned away from its alliance with Britain and France and the Regia Marina faced the prospect of confronting both the French Navy and the Mediterranean Fleet of the Royal Navy In the years leading up to World War II the Regia Marina built and deployed a powerful battleship led fleet known in Italy as La Squadra intended to make the Mediterranean an Italian sea once more In this book Italian naval historian Enrico Cernuschi offers a fresh assessment of the wartime Italian battle fleet based on his lifetime of primary source research from both Italian and Allied sources It offers a comprehensive portrait of this proud armada how it was devised and built and how it operated and fought It covers a multitude of factors often overlooked such as Italy's naval codebreakers the fleet's logistics and the qualities and limitations of Italian industry that supported it The book also provides a concise account and analysis of the battle fleet's activities through the war from major clashes such as the Battle of Calabria to lesser known expeditions The author's research into Italian wartime primary sources overturns some myths still commonplace in Anglo American accounts Illustrated with superb new artwork maps and 3D diagrams and featuring rare photos this book is a fascinating account of Italy's great fleet of World War II The Long Shadow of Antiquity Gregory S. Aldrete, Alicia Aldrete, 2019-02-07 A vivid exploration of the many ways the classical world remains relevant today this is a passionate justification of why we continue to read about and study the lives and works of the ancient Greeks and Romans Challenging the way the phrase That's just ancient history is used to dismiss something as being irrelevant Greg and Alicia Aldrete demonstrate just how much ancient Greece and Rome have influenced and shaped our world today in ways both large and small From the more commonly known influences on politics law literature and timekeeping through to the everyday rituals and routines we take for granted when we exercise dine marry and dress we are rooted in the ancient world Even the political upheaval celebrity obsession and blurring of public and private boundaries that we see in current news betray ancient characteristics now brought to the fore here in a new final chapter If you have ever wondered how far exactly we still walk in the footsteps of the ancients or wanted to understand how study of the classical world can inform and explain our lives today this is the book for you Eight Stars to Victory Joseph Bernard Mittelman, 1948
