Frontline Women Marguerite G. Kraft, 2003 Grit to Stay Grace to Go Sue Eenigenburg, Eva Burkholder, 2023-05-30 Don't Leave Too Soon Don't Stay Too Long Staying isn't always good and leaving isn't always bad Both require grit and grace Cross cultural ministry presents us with many difficulties like transitions loneliness messy relationships and the desire to escape The lies we believe tempt us to leave our work too soon But nothing tests our resolve to stay like seeing others go Grit to Stay Grace to Go normalizes the challenges of ministry through honest and humorous stories from the authors own lives as well as testimonies from many other workers The point is to help cross cultural workers not just to stay but to stay well by countering lies with truth This workbook provides thoughtful reflection questions practical action steps and suggested prayers It encourages stayers to process their grief guilt and relief when saying goodbye to goers In this way they can move forward with forgiveness and humility and truly bless the departing ones Those considering leaving will find poignant questions and spiritual practices to help them make an intentional not reactive decision Are you considering leaving the field Or do you know someone who is Work through this book by yourself or with others You will gain wisdom to help workers develop grit and grace to stay or go
