Economic Development The Family And Income Distribution Selected Essays:

Economic Development, the Family, and Income Distribution Simon Kuznets, 2002-09-12 This is a collection of essays by Simon Kuznets winner of the 1971 Nobel Memorial Prize in Economic Sciences published posthumously It represents the primary concerns of his research at a late phase of his career as well as themes from his earlier work The first four chapters deal with modern economic growth Chapters five to seven introduce the main theme of the remainder of the volume interrelations between demographic change and income inequality Chapters eight to ten draw on a wider set of data to make comparisons of income inequality among societies at widely different levels of development Chapter eleven returns to data for the United States to develop more fully the importance of differing childbearing patterns for income inequality In the introduction Professor Richard Easterlin discusses the relationship of the essays to the balance of Kuznets's writings In the afterword Professor Robert Fogel discusses the methodologies favoured by Kuznets The Cambridge Economic History of the United States Stanley L. Engerman, Robert E. Gallman, 1996 Volume III surveys the economic history of the United States and Canada during the twentieth century Understanding Long-Run Economic Growth Dora L. Costa, Naomi R. Lamoreaux, 2011-10 The conditions for sustainable growth and development are among the most debated topics in economics and the consensus is that institutions matter greatly in explaining why some economies are more successful than others over time This book explores the relationship between economic conditions growth and inequality Russian and Western Economic Thought Vladimir Avtonomov, Harald Hagemann, 2022-10-03 This book examines the interrelations between Russian and European economics from the early 19th century to the present It analyzes how Western economic thinking such as classical economics and the marginal revolution influenced Russian economic thinking and how Western economic ideas were modified and adapted to better reflect the specific Russian circumstances of the time Moreover the contributions in this book show how these modified ideas also influenced Western economists at the end of the 19th century when Russian economics had reached the stage of professionalism and joined the international discourse on the discipline Written by an international selection of respected experts this book provides an overview of the most influential Russian economists and covers a wide range of topics such as the marginal revolution the specific influence of Marxism the evolution of mathematics and statistics in Russia in the 1890s 1920s and the unique experience of building a planned economy in the Soviet Union It is intended for all scholars and students who are interested in the history of economic thought The New Citizenship of the Family Henry Cavanna, 2017-11-22 This title was first published in 2000 This volume offers international comparative perspectives and critical analyses of the interconnections between family behaviour and its political regulation the new economics of the family and the role of the family in building citizenship Regulation and the Revolution in United States Farm Productivity Sally H. Clarke, 2002-07-25 This book explains how US government activity in the 1930s led to gains in farm productivity IISS 2019 George Towar Ikbal Tawakkal , Wike , Nuddin Harahab , Alifiulahtin Utaminingsih, Amin Setyo

Manufacturing Knowledge Richard Gillespie,1993-05-28 What motivates workers to work harder What can management do to create a contented and productive workforce Discussion of these questions would be incomplete without reference to the Hawthorne experiments one of the most famous pieces of research ever conducted in the social and behavioral sciences Drawing on the original records of the experiments and the personal papers of the researchers Richard Gillespie has reconstructed the intellectual and political dynamics of the experiments as they evolved from the tentative experimentation to seemingly authoritative publications Manufacturing Knowledge raises fundamental questions about the nature of scientific knowledge and about the assumptions and evidence that underlay debates on worker productivity

Semiotics of Happiness Ashley Frawley,2015-02-26 The Semiotics of Happiness examines the rise of happiness and its various satellite terminologies as a social and political semiotic exploring its origins in the US and subsequent spread into the UK and across the globe The research takes as its starting point the development of discussions about happiness in UK newspapers in which dedicated advocates began to claim that a new science of happiness had been discovered and argued for social and political change on its behalf Through an in depth analysis of the written and visual rhetoric and subsequent activities of these influential claims makers Frawley argues that happiness became a serious political issue not because of a growing unhappiness in society nor a demand on the ground for new knowledge about it but rather because influential and dedicated insiders took the issue on at a cultural moment when problems cast in emotional terms were particularly likely to make an impact Emerging from the analysis is the observation that while apparently positive and light hearted the concern with happiness implicitly affirms a vulnerability model of human functioning encourages a morality of low expectations and in spite of the radical language used to describe it is ultimately conservative and ideally suited to an era of no alternative to capitalism

Growing Prosperity Barry Bluestone,Bennett Harrison,2001-05-25 Growing Prosperity could well be as important in shaping our future as Keynes General Theory A work as meticulous as it is powerful as promising as it is persuasive Robert Heilbroner author of The Worldly Philosophers Bluestone and Harrison have alerted us to the key issue confronting America how to achieve growth with equity This country needs a powerful dialogue on how to continue growth while deepening its benefits to all Americans This is the blueprint for the terms of that debate U S Representative Richard Gephardt

Cord, 2024-07-05 Harvard University has been and continues to be one of the most important global centres for economics With three chapters on themes in Harvard economics and 41 chapters on the lives and work of Harvard economists these two volumes show how economics became established at the University how it produced some of the world s best known economists including Joseph Schumpeter Wassily Leontief and John Kenneth Galbraith and how it remains a global force for the very best in teaching and research in economics With original contributions from a stellar cast the volumes provide economists especially those interested in macroeconomics and the history of economic thought with an in depth analysis of Harvard economics

History of Technology Volume 31 Ian Inkster, 2012-11-22 New work on early modern Europe has now opened up the hidden avenues that link changes of technologies with a complex of cognitive institutional spatial and cultural elements It is true that all divisions of history wish to incorporate all other divisions unto themselves but in the essays of our first collection there are specific cases and analyses clearly delineated to show how technologies and systems for the production reproduction and representation of technological changes emerged out of fundamental aspects of European society and mentality The question must be How far were such fundamental aspects unique in their entirety and configuration to Europe The second collection on patent agency takes the modern industrialization of Europe as its focus and illustrates the manner in which systems of intellectual property rights generated manifold agencies that acted to both spread and control the use of knowledge in advanced sites Patent agency has been generally neglected by historians one reason for this being the difficulty of defining effective agency beyond the obvious confines of those who were actually trained and remunerated as agents of invention Informal networks or sites may have been crucial in converting general patent systems into local environs of technical advance      A Select Bibliography On Economic Development John P.
