Western Europe Hugh Clout,Mark (Reader In Geography, University Of Exeter) Blacksell,Russell (Professor Of Geography, University Of Sussex) King,David (Professor Of Economic Geography, University Of Plymouth) Pinder,2014-09-19 Western Europe provides a balanced appraisal of common characteristics and shared problems of the eighteen states lying to the west of the former Iron Curtain Maps and Politics Jeremy Black,2000-12 Do maps accurately and objectively present the information we expect them to portray or are they instead colored by the political purposes of their makers In this lively and well illustrated book Jeremy Black investigates this dangerous territory arguing persuasively that the supposed objectivity of the map making and map using process cannot be divorced from aspects of the politics of representation

The European Culture Area Terry G. Jordan-Bychkov,Bella Bychkova Jordan,2002 Now in its fourth edition this leading text has been extensively revised to reflect the sweeping changes the past decade have brought to Europe and to incorporate new research in the field Employing a richly topical rather than a mechanistic region by region approach the book simultaneously presents the overarching unity of Europe as a human entity and its underlying internal diversity Inclusive intellectual rich in ideas lively controversial humanistic and above all interesting The European Culture Area is the text of choice for courses on the geography of Europe Visit our website for sample chapters Psychosocial Disturbances in Young People Michael Rutter,1995 The book considers what is special about adolescence and what is known about the risk factors for psychosocial problems in this age period The Economist ,1849 The Politics of East-West Migration Solon Ardittis,2016-07-27 How many people have migrated from central and Eastern Europe since the 1989 revolutions Are fears of mass migration from eastern Europe well founded What are the causes and effects in both the sending and receiving countries of such population movements What are the policy reactions in the East and the West and how is this phenomenon likely to develop and to be regulated over the near future These are some of the key questions addressed in this book by sixteen east and west European experts on international migration Atlas of the new Europe Nicholas Bevan,1992 The Politics of European Citizenship Peo Hansen,Sandy Brian Hager,2012 As the European Union faces the ongoing challenges of legitimacy identity and social cohesion an understanding of the social purpose and direction of EU citizenship becomes increasingly vital This book is the first of its kind to map the development of EU citizenship and its relation to various localities of EU governance From a critical political economy perspective the authors argue for an integrated analysis of EU citizenship one that considers the interrelated processes of migration economic transformation and social change and the challenges they present Preparing for the Twenty-First Century Paul Kennedy,2011-07-06 Kennedy s groundbreaking book The Rise and Fall of the Great Powers helped to reorder the current priorities of the United States Now he synthesizes extensive research on fields ranging from demography to robotics to draw a detailed persuasive and often sobering map of the very near future a bold work that bridges the gap between history prophecy and policy The Literary Digest Atlas of the New Europe and the Far East Allan Updegraff,1922 Children's Writer Guide To 1998 Kristi Vaughan,Catherine Murphy,Mark Haverstock,Victoria Hambleton,1998 The Global Journalist Philip M. Seib,2002 This title argues that not only do US news media have a duty to cover international events that affect the interests of the public and the government they should also bring more attention to international conflict and suffering The Idea of Europe in British Travel Narratives, 1789-1914 Katarina Gephardt,2016-03-03 The nineteenth century was the heyday of travel with Britons continually reassessing their own culture in relation to not only the colonized but also other Europeans especially the ones that they encountered on the southern and eastern peripheries of the continent Offering illustrative case studies Katarina Gephardt shows how specific rhetorical strategies used in contemporary travel writing produced popular fictional representations of continental Europe in the works of Ann Radcliffe Lord Byron Charles Dickens and Bram Stoker She examines a wide range of autobiographical and fictional travel narratives to demonstrate that the imaginative geographies underpinning British ideas of Europe emerged from the spaces between fact and fiction Adding texture to her study are her analyses of the visual dimensions of cross cultural representation and of the role of evolving technologies in defining a shared set of rhetorical strategies Gephardt argues that British writers envisioned their country simultaneously as distinct from the Continent and as a part of Europe anticipating the contradictory British discourse around European integration that involves both fear that the European super state will violate British sovereignty and a desire to play a more central role in the European Union Atlas of World History Patrick Karl O'Brien,Patrick O'Brien,2002 Synthesizing exceptional cartography and impeccable scholarship this edition traces 12 000 years of history with 450 maps and over 200 000 words of text 200 illustrations Bibliographic Guide to Maps and Atlases ,2003
