historical context The first part deals with the evolution and distribution of the oriental riding costume in the Middle and Near East through the ages and the historical background on the find spot The second part focuses on the original costumes in various museum collections including much so far unpublished material technical researches and reconstructions Surprising new insights on the social background of their owners has been obtained by carefully studying and piecing together the finding context Also the representations of riding costumes in and on different monuments are carefully examined The book is richly illustrated with colour and black and white plates Studies on Persianate Societies: Volume 3 (2005/1384), 2025-01-27 Studies on Persianate Societies is an interdisciplinary publication that offers original research on the culture and civilisation of the geographical area where Persian has historically been the dominant language or a major cultural force encompassing Iran Afghanistan and Tajikistan as well as the Caucasus Central Asia the Indian Subcontinent and parts of the former Ottoman Empire It also offers regular surveys of relevant books published in Iran India and Pakistan Russia and the Commonwealth of Independent States This publication is the predecessor of the Journal of Coptic Christology in Practice Stephen J. Davis, 2008-02-28 A pioneering study of ancient and Persianate Studies medieval Christology Employing a range of interdisciplinary methods Stephen J Davis shows how Christian identity in Egypt was shaped by a set of replicable christological practices He thus enables readers to trace the Coptic church s theological and cultural transition from late antiquity to Dar al Islam Byzantium and Islam Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.),2012 This magnificent volume explores the epochal transformations and unexpected continuities in the Byzantine Empire from the 7th to the 9th century At the beginning of the 7th century the Empire s southern provinces the vibrant diverse areas of North Africa and the eastern Mediterranean were at the crossroads of exchanges reaching from Spain to China These regions experienced historic upheavals when their Christian and Jewish communities encountered the emerging Islamic world and by the 9th century an unprecedented cross fertilization of cultures had taken place This extraordinary age is brought vividly to life in insightful contributions by leading international scholars accompanied by sumptuous illustrations of the period s most notable arts and artifacts Resplendent images of authority religion and trade embodied in precious metals brilliant textiles fine ivories elaborate mosaics manuscripts and icons many of them never before published highlight the dynamic dialogue between the rich array of Byzantine styles and the newly forming Islamic aesthetic With its masterful exploration of two centuries that would shape the emerging medieval world this illuminating publication provides a unique interpretation of a period that still resonates today The Oxford Handbook of Light in Archaeology Costas Papadopoulos, Holley Moyes, 2021-12-09 Light has a fundamental role to play in our perception of the world Natural or artificial lightscapes orchestrate uses and experiences of space and in turn influence how people construct and negotiate their identities form social relationships and attribute meaning to im material practices Archaeological practice seeks to analyse the material culture of past societies by examining the interaction between people things and spaces As light is a crucial factor that mediates these relationships understanding its principles and addressing illumination s impact on sensory experience and perception should be a fundamental pursuit in archaeology However in archaeological reasoning studies of lightscapes have remained largely neglected and understudied This volume provides a comprehensive and accessible consideration of light in archaeology and beyond by including dedicated and fully illustrated chapters covering diverse aspects of illumination in different spatial and temporal contexts from prehistory to the present Written by leading international scholars it interrogates the qualities and affordances of light in different contexts and im material environments explores its manipulation and problematises its elusive properties. The result is a synthesis of invaluable insights into sensory experience and perception demonstrating illumination s vital impact on social cultural and artistic contexts Handbook of the Egyptian Book of the Dead Rita Lucarelli, Martin Andreas Stadler, 2023 With a generous thorough selection editors Rita Lucarelli and Martin Andreas Stadler offer in The Oxford Handbook of the Egyptian Book of the Dead a wide ranging synthesis of essential scholarship on Egyptian religious and mystical practices centered on the central text of that The Donkey and the Boat Chris Wickham, 2023 A new account of the Mediterranean economy in the 10th to 12th tradition centuries forcing readers to entirely rethink the underlying logic to medieval economic systems Chris Wickham re examines documentary and archaeological sources to give a detailed account of both individual economies and their relationships with each other Chris Wickham offers a new account of the Mediterranean economy in the tenth to twelfth centuries based on a completely new look at the sources documentary and archaeological Our knowledge of the Mediterranean economy is based on syntheses which are between 50 and 150 years old they are based on outdated assumptions and restricted data sets and were written before there was any usable archaeology and Wickham contends that they have to be properly rethought This is the first book ever to give a fully detailed comparative account of the regions of the Mediterranean in this period in their internal economies and in their relationships with each other It focusses on Egypt Tunisia Sicily the Byzantine empire Islamic Spain and Portugal and north central Italy and gives the first comprehensive account of the changing economies of each only Byzantium has a good prior synthesis It aims to force our rethinking of how economies worked in the medieval Mediterranean It also offers a rethinking of how we should understand the underlying logic of the medieval economy in general Brill's Companion to Nonnus of Panopolis, 2016-03-11 The Egyptian Nonnus of Panopolis 5th century AD author of both the pagan Dionysiaca the longest known poem from Antiquity 21 286 lines in 48 books the same number of books as the Iliad and Odyssey combined and a Christian hexameter Paraphrase of St John s Gospel 3 660 lines in 21 books is no doubt the most representative poet of Greek Late Antiquity Brill's Companion to Nonnus of Panopolis provides a collection of 32 essays by a large international group of scholars experts in the field of archaic Hellenistic Imperial and Christian poetry as well as scholars of late antique Egypt Greek mythology and religion who explore the various aspects of Nonnus baroque poetry and its historical religious and cultural background
