The Scrolls of Icha - Book of Lamentations [Hebrew with English Translation] Jeremiah The Prophet, 2024-07-24 The Scrolls Of Icha Book of Lamentations Whit Rashi Hebrew with English translation Every year on the night of Tisha B Av in the synagogue the Book of Lamentations is read The Book of Lamentations Icha is one of the five scrolls that appear in the Bible and it describes in great detail the destruction of the First Temple The Prophet mourn the destruction the terrible exile to which the children of Israel went and the disasters that occurred at that time The scroll is so named after the word in which it opens Lamentations how How did it happen that Jerusalem the most beautiful city in the world became a heap rubble How did it happen that the people of Israel the people chosen by God and received the Torah from Him were tortured expelled and killed by the nations of the World Icha sat alone in the city She lived the city of Jerusalem a metropolitan city Yet she was like a widow among the Nations She found no rest All her persecutors were attained among the borders As mentioned the Megillah is read every year on the night of Tisha B Av to remember the destruction mourn for what was and pray for the coming of the Mashiach soon in our day On Tisha B Av we read the Megillah lamenting the destruction of Jerusalem the Book of Lamentations The third verse in the scroll laments the exile of Judah which his enemies who persecuted him managed to subdue precisely in time between the straits However if we look with a more inner eye we will also discover here the intensity of the light of these days The tribe of Judah is compared to the Sefirat of the kingdom the Sefirat of the kingdom is compared to the Holy Shechinah All her persecutors it is precisely the supporter of light of the Shechinah those who are imbued with the faith to connect to the light of the Creator within the reality of the material world When will her requests be obtained Precisely in the period between the time of Limitations The 17th of Tammuz till the 9th of Av King David writes in the Psalms In distress I called on Hashem Hashem answered me and brought me relief The movement for the discovery of divinity passes through the narrow place and from there into space As the sages said Open for me an opening like the tip of a needle and I will open for you like the opening of a hall To reach the great light we are required to open a small opening In most cases we reach this small opening precisely when we find ourselves in distress or trouble In every person s life we have trouble and we cry to God So it was in the Exile of Egypt and by the cry of distress the light of redemption emerges From the stress I called out to God and He brought me relief The rabbi s said it is like the shofar the mouth is small and narrow and from there the shofar expands the sound comes out of the narrow place and spreads to the space and there is the sound of the shofar Moreover when we call from out from distress from the lowest of times we are actually drawn to the great lights represented by the name God which is compared to the first three sefirot As the teaching of Kabbalah teaches us that there is an inverse value between lights and vessels the coarsest vessel attracts the purest and greatest light

From publisher s description Studies in the Book of Lamentations Norman K. Gottwald, 2010-08-01 When published this work on the book of Lamentations opened a new wave of studies on that much neglected biblical book After a fresh translation followed by acute analyses of the acrostic form and literary genres the author develops the two fold theology of doom and hope that reverberates through the five laments composed during the exile to cope with the fall of Jerusalem Created for public performance the poems artfully alternate the voices of the poet and the community personified by turns as a forlorn widow Fair Zion and as an afflicted man Jacob Israel The book attributes the catastrophe in part to the moral and social failures of Judah s leadership but it also finds the enormity of the suffering beyond moral or theological explanation

Back cover Lamentations Delbert R. Hillers, 2007 The poetry found in the Book of Lamentations is an eloquent expression of one man s and one nation s despair The poet is deep in mourning as a result of the fall of Jerusalem to the Babylonians in the sixth century b c e He looks to Israel s own sins to explain the catastrophe and yet he recites poignant examples of Israel s suffering in wondering aloud if God has abandoned his people altogether Thus his lament is both a confession and a prayer for hope in spite of the horrible defeat Lamentations is traditionally thought to have been written by the prophet Jeremiah today the question is whether one man wrote it or many In his Introduction Delbert Hillers gives the evidence against Jeremiah's authorship and suggests that the poems should be treated as an intelligible unity most likely written by an eyewitness to the events described The Book of Lamentations has been taken up through history both as poetry and as an expression of boundless grief It has become part of the Jewish and Christian liturgies as well as a source of comfort far beyond the time in which it was written This commentary fills in the book's literary and historical background and we emerge with a fresh respect for the artistry with which it was composed The poetry itself demands this respect with a translation here that carries the emotion and heartbreak of the original Hebrew This new edition by Delbert R Hillers is a thorough revision of his earlier Anchor Bible commentary incorporating new literary theories and textual discoveries connected with the very latest Dead Sea Scrolls scholarship

Chorus in the Dark Kim Lan Nguyen, 2013-10 Chorus in the Dark invites attention to the treaty negotiated by the voices of Lamentations The issues of God's justice and human rights are at the centre of a forceful discussion embodied in the five poems of Lamentations Difficult questions are subtly raised How can God's justice be recognized and honoured in the midst of suffering How can the human right to protest against mistreatment be respected How can loss grief and shame be overcome What future is there for the victims How can these sensitive issues be negotiated without loss Zion is the first major speaker in Lamentations Zion projects the voice of a woman crying by the grave Her pain is intense her loss is vast her anger is uncontrollable Zion is unable to see any future God is indeed just in destroying her but her surviving children do not deserve her fate The other major speaker is the man of Lamentations 3 He too speaks of the pain grief anger and desire for vengeance of a victim bent under the yoke of affliction Yet like a Davidic king he dares to claim covenant promises and hope that darkness will eventually turn to light Through both harmony and discord and with a profound ambivalence toward the future the separate voices of Lamentations resonate in a timbre that transcends the sum of its parts The five poems while having unique value individually are meant to be read together as a living documentation of a moment of suspension a great turning point in the history of Israel

Lamentations (THOTC) Robin A. Parry, 2010-09-03 In this volume Robin Parry not only builds on traditional scholarship to interpret the book of Lamentations within its ancient context but also ventures further exploring how the book can function as Christian Scripture Parry provides the first systematic attempt to read Lamentations in light of the cross and resurrection from publisher description
