

THE APERTURE HISTORY OF PHOTOGRAPHY SERIES

The first multivolume series devoted to the great photographers of the world and their most important images. Each book presents an evocative selection of the photographer's lifework accompanied by a memorable text—produced with the finest printing quality, Aperture's trademark for twenty-five years.

The complete series will provide an unmatched library of historical and living photographers.

Edward Steichen: His career in photography spanned three-quarters of a century. With artistic confidence and remarkable talent, he swept ahead of his contemporaries. With a lifelong sense of the romantic, coupled with spare methods and consummate technical skill, he produced some of the medium's most innovative and compelling images.

Real Fantasies Patricia Johnston, 2023-11-15 During the 1920s and 1930s Edward Steichen was the most successful photographer in the advertising industry Although much has been said about Steichen's fine art photography his commercial work which appeared regularly in Vanity Fair Vogue Ladies Home Journal and almost every other popular magazine published in the United States has not received the attention it deserves At a time when photography was just beginning to replace drawings as the favored medium for advertising Steichen helped transform the producers of such products as Welch's grape juice and Jergens lotion from small family businesses to national household names In this book Patricia Johnston uses Steichen's work as a case study of the history of advertising and the American economy between the wars She traces the development of Steichen's work from an early naturalistic style through increasingly calculated attempts to construct consumer fantasies By the 1930s alluring images of romance and class developed in collaboration with agency staff and packaged in overtly manipulative and persuasive photographs became Steichen's stock in trade He was most frequently chosen by agencies for products targeted toward women his images depicted vivacious singles earnest new mothers and other stereotypically female life stages that reveal a great deal about the industry's perceptions of and pitches to this particular audience Johnston presents an intriguing inside view of advertising agencies drawing on an array of internal documents to reconstruct the team process that involved clients art directors account executives copywriters and photographers Her book is a telling chronicle of the role of mass media imagery in reflecting shaping and challenging social values in American culture During the 1920s and 1930s Edward

Steichen was the most successful photographer in the advertising industry Although much has been said about Steichen s fine art photography his commercial work which appeared regularly in Vanity Fair Vogue Ladies Ho Subject Catalog, 1978 Library of Congress,1978 19th and 20th Century Photographs Lunn Gallery,1976 Paul Strand, Circa 1916 Maria Morris Hambourg,Paul Strand,1998 Published to accompany an exhibition at The Metropolitan Museum of Art New York from February 1998 this is a study of the achievements of the early career of the American photographer Paul Strand 1890 1976 After studying photography in New York with the social reformer Lewis Hine Strand began to absorb the ideas of the European avant garde and fellow photographer and art entrepreneur Alfred Stieglitz heralded Strand s pictures as the first images of an incisive modern vision
