DeVolld, 2006-12 In Defense of the Faithful The Scriptural Truth of Catholicism was written as an aggressive defense of the Catholic Faith It explores the foundations and historic origins of Catholic doctrine from an evangelical fundamentalist and reformed Protestant point of view It offers the teachings of the Church in common language then defends the position with scriptural quotations from throughout the Holy Bible It then quotes the Catechism formal teaching doctrine of the Catholic Church offering a factual presentation of what the Church actually teaches rather than what many people think it teaches In doing so it is critical not only of Protestantism but some aspects of Catholicism in practice as well It credits and praises both groups of Christians as being believers dedicated to Jesus and the Trinity while pointing out the mutual failures of both groups It is a thought provoking examination of Catholic doctrine practice theology and ethics from a biblical viewpoint and is not afraid to point fingers at all parties involved in greater Christianity Faith in the family Alana Harris, 2015-11-01 Drawing upon a multi disciplinary methodology employing diverse written sources material practices and vivid life histories Faith in the family seeks to assess the impact of the Second Vatican Council on the ordinary believer alongside

Allen Jr one of the world s leading authorities on the Vatican offers an authoritative and accessible guide to the past present and future of the Church What Everyone Needs to Know is a registered trademark of Oxford University Press The Why's? of Catholicism Vincent J.
