Self-Cultivation in Chinese and Greco-Roman Philosophy David Machek,2025-05-15 In early China and ancient Greece self cultivation was considered crucial for leading a flourishing fulfilled life In this cross cultural study David Machek presents and interprets six influential Greek and Chinese self cultivation theories advocated by Mengzi Zhuangzi and Xunzi as well as Plato Aristotle and the Stoics in order to put forward the overarching narrative that self cultivation amounts to strengthening the best part of the human self the heart in the Chinese context and the mind in the Greek context Advancing new readings of classic texts Machek shows that Greek approaches to self cultivation privilege intellectual pursuits while Chinese approaches give more weight to non intellectual activities such as learning manual crafts and performing rituals He also demonstrates how both ancient traditions understand the self as a heterogeneous community of organic entities each needing different provisions to flourish which aligns the ancient Greek view closer to the early Chinese view As such this book reinforces the underlying structural and conceptual similarities between the two traditions and makes an important contribution to diversifying philosophical conversations Backstaging Modern Chinese Theatre Man He,2025-07-01 Modern Chinese theatre once entailed a variety of forms but now it primarily refers to spoken drama or huaju Backstaging Modern Chinese Theatre looks beyond scripts to examine visuality acoustics and performance between the two World Wars the period when huaju gained canonical status The backstage in this study expands from being a physical place offstage to a culturally and historically constructed social network that encompasses theatre networks academies and government institutions as well as the collective work of dramatists amateurs and cultural entrepreneurs Early huaju was not a mere imitation of Western realist theatre as it is commonly understood but a creative synthesis of Chinese and Western aesthetics Charting huaju s evolution from American colleges to China s coastal cities and then to its rural hinterland Man He demonstrates how the formation of modern Chinese theatre challenges dominant understandings of modernism and brings China to the center of discussions on transnational modernities and world theatres Chinese Medical Qigong Tianjun Liu,Xiao Mei Qiang,2013 Correlating the traditional therapies of Qigong with the most recent outcomes of scientific research this is the authoritative introduction to the knowledge system and content of Qigong study Substantially revised and updated reflecting changes made to the new Chinese edition the text now has an accompanying DVD showing the forms in action new information about key concepts and practice and coverage of the applications of Qigong for a range of medical conditions The only official textbook used in colleges of traditional Chinese medicine in China this is an essential reference for medical and health practitioners working in complementary and alternative therapies East European Accessions Index ,1960
