definitive resource the catalogue provides title year medium and dimensions along with location origin exhibition history and a bibliography of the works This first volume collects Ruscha's earliest works from his apprenticeship years as an art student along with sketch ideas drafts of book covers studies for oil paintings and drawings of words often executed in such unusual materials as gunpowder vegetable juices petroleum jelly tobacco stain and sometimes even in graphite and pastels All of these works propose Ruscha as a profoundly premeditative artist for whom sketches are an essential first step on the way to a well executed final product They also expose Ruscha as an artist whose finished drawings always invoke their conceptual dimension particularly so when the materials are unusual paradoxically over their texture thus opening a breach between signifier and the word as icon As noted critic and art historian Dave Hickey observes The mystery of Ed Ruscha's drawings begins with drawing itself with its peculiar status in the history of Western art where it has always occupied an equivocal position between the realms of objects and ideas

American West Karin Breuer, D.J. Waldie, Ed Ruscha, 2016-07-12 The renowned artist Ed Ruscha was born in Nebraska grew up in Oklahoma and has lived and worked in Southern California since the late 1950s Beginning in 1956 road trips across the American Southwest furnished a conceptual trove of themes and motifs that he mined throughout his career The everyday landscapes of the West especially as experienced from the automobile gas stations billboards building facades parking lots and long stretches of roadway are the primary motifs of his often deadpan and instantly recognizable paintings and works on paper as well as his influential artist books such as Twentysix Gasoline Stations and All the Buildings on the Sunset Strip His iconic word images declaring Adios Rodeo Wheels over Indian Trails and Honey I Twisted through More Damn Traffic to Get Here further underscore a contemporary Western sensibility Ruscha's interest in what the real West has become and Hollywood's version of it plays out across his oeuvre The cinematic sources of his subject matter can be seen in his silhouette pictures which often appear to be grainy stills from old Hollywood movies They feature images of the contemporary West such as parking lots and swimming pools but also of its historical past covered wagons buffalo teepees and howling coyotes Featuring essays by Karin Breuer and D J Waldie plus a fascinating interview with the artist conducted by Kerry Brougher this stunning catalogue produced in close collaboration with the Ruscha studio offers the first full exploration of the painter's lifelong fascination with the romantic concept and modern reality of the evolving American West Published in association with the Fine Arts Museums of San Francisco Exhibition dates de Young San Francisco July 16 October 9 2016 Edward
