An Edmund Dulac Treasury Edmund Dulac, 2011-06-16 Rooted in tales both ancient and modern these vibrant images date from the early twentieth century's Golden Age of Illustration Edmund Dulac a prominent artist of the period created them for books published between 1905 and 1928 Their moods range from the shadowy foreboding of Jane Eyre to the venturesome spirits of Treasure Island and the lighthearted fantasies of A Fairy Garland Other featured titles include Shakespeare's The Tempest The Arabian Nights The Rubiyat of Omar Khayyam and the fairy tales of Hans Christian Andersen French born Edmund Dulac arrived in London in 1904 when new advances in the printing process kindled a rage for picture books Dulac's imaginative powers and technical skills assured the popularity of his book illustrations many of which were sold separately as fine art paintings After World War I when the appetite for deluxe volumes waned the artist turned his talents in many new directions including portraiture theatrical costume and set design newspaper caricature and stamp design This retrospective of his early works is the only such anthology available offering a singular tribute to an artist from a halcyon era of art inspired by literature Dulac's Fairy Tale Illustrations in Full Color Edmund Dulac, 2013-07-02 These 55 masterworks by one of the most influential illustrators of children's books include exquisite images for The Sleeping Beauty Cinderella The Snow Queen The Real Princess and other beguiling tales Edmund Dulac, His Book Illustrations Ann Conolly Hughey, 1995 Edmund Dulac's Fairy-Book: Fairy Tales of the Allied Nations Edmund Dulac, 1916-01-01 The old wife sang merrily as she sat in the inglenook stirring the soup for she had never felt so sad Many many years had come and gone leaving the weight of their winters on her shoulders and the touch of snow on her hair without ever bringing her a little child This made her and her dear old husband very sad for there were many children outside playing in the snow It seemed hard that not even one among them was their very own But alas there was no hope for such a blessing now Never would they see a little fur cap hanging on the corner of the mantelpiece nor two little shoes drying by the fire The old husband brought in a bundle of wood and set it down Then as he heard the children laughing and clapping their hands outside he looked out at the window There they were dancing with glee round a snow man they had made He smiled as he saw that it was evidently meant to look like the Mayor of the village it was so fat and pompous Look Marusha he cried to the old wife Come and see the snow man they've made As they stood together at the window they laughed to see what fun the children got out of it Suddenly the old man turned to her with a bright idea Let's go out and see if we can't make a little snow man But Marusha laughed at him What would the neighbours say They would poke fun at us it'd be the joke of the village Besides we're too old to play like children But only a little one Marusha only a teeny weeny little snow man and I'll manage it that nobody sees us Well well she said laughing have your own way as you always did Youshko With this she took the pot from the fire put on her bonnet and they went out together As they passed the children they stopped to play with them a while for they now felt almost like children themselves Then they trudged on through the snow till they came to a clump of trees and behind this where the snow was nice and white and nobody could see them they set to work to make their little man The old husband insisted that it must be very small and the old wife agreed that it should be almost as small as a new born babe Kneeling down in the snow they fashioned the little body in next to no time Now there remained only the head to finish Two fat handfuls of snow for the cheeks and face and a big one on top for the head Then they put on a wee dab for the nose and poked two holes one on each side for the eyes

Edmund Dulac's Picture-Book for the French Red Cross Various,2013-04-16 Edmund Dulac s Picture Book for the French Red Cross is a stunning work produced in the midst of the First World War by a true genius of illustration It was originally published in 1915 and contains twenty colour images Dulac was a French born British naturalised magazine illustrator book illustrator and stamp designer who despite his increasing years wished to help the war effort in any way he could The drawings are delicately drawn notable for their classic fairy tale charms and Japanese stylistic influence The skilfully coloured images further refine the enchantingly simple story telling all presented together in this text It is a book to be enjoyed by both young and old a beautiful object produced at a time of great peril Stories include The Story of the Bird Feng A Chinese Tale Layla and Majnun A Persian Love Story The Nightingale Hans Christian Andersen Cinderella A French Fairy Tale Bluebeard A French Tale The Lady Badoura Arabian Nights and others Pook Press celebrates the great Golden Age of Illustration in children s literature a period of unparalleled excellence in book illustration from the 1880s to the 1930s Our collection showcases classic fairy tales children s stories and the work of some of the most celebrated artists illustrators and authors

Edmund Dulac's Fairy-book Edmund Dulac,2008-11-01 Edmund Dulac 1882 1953 was a French book illustrator prominent during the so called Golden Age of Illustration He spent a very brief period at the Acadmie Julien in Paris in 1904 before moving to London He then began an association with the Leicester Gallery and Hodder the gallery would commission paintings from Dulac and then sell the rights to Hodder Stoughton who would publish the books while the gallery would sell the paintings Books produced under this arrangement by Dulac include Stories from the Arabian Nights 1907 an edition of Shakespeare s The Tempest 1908 The Rubaiyat of Omar Khayyam 1909 Stories from Hans Christian Andersen 1911 and Princess Badoura 1913 During World War I he contributed to relief books including King Albert s Book Princess Mary s Gift Book and unusually his own Edmund Dulac s Picture Book for the French Red Cross 1915 After the war the deluxe edition illustrated book became a rarity and Dulac s career in this field was over His last such books were Edmund Dulac s Fairy Book 1916 the Tanglewood Tales 1918 and the exquisite The Kingdom of the Pearl 1920

Edmund Dulac's Picture-Book for the French Red Cross Edmund Dulac,2021-05-19 Edmund Dulac s Picture Book for the French Red Cross is a remarkable compilation of illustrations and stories that captures the essence of hope and resilience during tumultuous times Published in the early 20th century against the backdrop of World War I this book showcases Dulac s signature Art Nouveau style which blends intricacy with a fairy tale sensibility Each page is adorned with vibrant illustrations that not only embellish the narratives but also evoke deep emotional responses making it a poignant collection that speaks to both children and adults The book serves as both artistic expression and a charitable initiative with proceeds supporting the French Red Cross thereby intertwining literature and philanthropy in a unique literary context Edmund Dulac a prominent figure in the realm of illustrated literature was deeply influenced by his own experiences during the war and his commitment to humanitarian causes Born in 1882 in Toulouse France Dulac s artistic journey was shaped by his diverse cultural roots and the impact of the socio political landscape of his time His illustrations reflect a quintessential blend of Eastern and Western artistic traditions underscoring his personal and historical motivations for creating a work that could uplift spirits amid despair This exquisite volume is highly recommended for readers who appreciate the intersection of art literature and social responsibility It not only showcases Dulac s unparalleled artistic skills but also offers a timeless narrative of compassion and support amidst adversity This picture book stands as a testament to the power of art in the face of humanitarian challenges making it a must read for enthusiasts of illustrated works and those interested in the historical impact of art on society

The Brontës in the World of the Arts Sandra Hagan, Juliette Wells, 2016-12-05 Although previous scholarship has acknowledged the importance of the visual arts to the Brontës relatively little attention has been paid to the influence of music theatre and material culture on the siblings lives and literature This interdisciplinary collection presents new research on the Brontës relationship to the wider world of the arts including their relationship to the visual arts The contributors examine the siblings artistic ambitions productions and literary representations of creative work in both amateur and professional realms Also considered are re envisionings of the Brontës works with an emphasis on those created in the artistic media the siblings themselves knew or practiced With essays by scholars who represent the fields of literary studies music art theatre studies and material culture the volume brings together the strongest current research and suggests areas for future work on the Brontës and their cultural contexts

The Napoleon Gallery or, Illustrations of the life and times of the emperor of France Etienne Achille Réveil, 2019-12-11 In The Napoleon Gallery or Illustrations of the life and times of the emperor of France Etienne Achille Réveil presents a vivid portrait of Napoleon Bonaparte meticulously blending historical analysis with evocative illustrations This work embodies a rich literary style that eschews mere chronology for a thematic exploration of Napoleon s multifaceted persona his influence on European politics and the cultural milieu of the early 19th century Réveil s integration of visual art parallels significant events creating a compelling narrative that captures both the grandeur and the controversy surrounding the storied emperor Réveil a French author and art historian was deeply influenced by the cultural upheaval wrought by the Napoleonic era His passion for the intersection of history and visual artistry is mirrored in his detailed approach offering insights drawn from extensive archival research and firsthand accounts Such dedication underscores R veil s desire to illuminate the lasting legacy of Napoleon both as a historical figure and as a subject of art I highly recommend this book to readers interested in the life of Napoleon history enthusiasts and those appreciating the intricate relationship between art and politics R veil s engaging narrative and captivating illustrations make this work a vital addition to any collection on the Napoleonic era

Edmund Dulac's Arabian Nights American Weekly Illustrations Albert Seligman, 2025-01-12 In 1923 Edmund Dulac the Distinguished English Artist as he was billed on the front covers was contracted by the Hearst organization to paint watercolors for The American Weekly He illustrated thirteen different series with 106 watercolors from 1924 s Bible Scenes and Heroes through 1951 s Tales from the Arabian Nights The two series presented here are the 1925 Characters from the Arabian Nights and the 1951 Tales from the Arabian Nights The 1951 series was narrated by Watson Crewes the staff writer for The American Weekly We have included the stories with the cover illustration There were no stories in the 1925 series but the illustrations were all covered in the earlier book versions of The Arabian Nights which brought Dulac his initial recognition and early success The frontispiece for the series was Scheherazade which was also the frontispiece for his first Arabian Nights in 1907 This was his first Gift Book for his publisher Hodder Stoughton with 50 color illustrations mounted on heavy art paper at the rear of the book Sheherazade was of course the storyteller of all the 1001 stories in the Arabian Nights which took her over three years to recount to her husband the Sultan She is the daughter of the Grand Vizier and volunteered to marry the Sultan to stop him from carrying out his habit of murdering his new wife after their wedding night She began each story and stopped before the ending so that the Sultan would postpone her execution till the following day to hear the ending At the end of the three years he renounced his vile habit and they lived happily ever after The next illustration is the familiar Aladdin and the Wonderful Lamp There are two more illustrations from this tale in this series Princess Badroulboudour and New Lamps for Old Aladdin was a young boy from China who lived with his mother His father had died recently when mysteriously his father s brother appeared to console the family who had never heard of him He tricked Aladdin into helping him find a magic lamp with a powerful Genie trapped inside But Aladdin managed to foil his plan and used the Genie to marry the Princess and build a beautiful palace where after a few mis adventures they lived happily ever after The Caliph Haroun Al Raschid was the Commander of the Faithful in Bagdad and was involved with several of the tales of the 1001 Nights He often would disguise himself and go wandering at night into the city to see and talk to his subjects The tale of Ali Baba and the Forty Thieves was included in the 1907 edition and repeats here with different versions of the earlier drawings of Ali Baba and his slave girl Morgiana pouring hot oil in the jars where the forty thieves are hiding Here Ali Baba drives his mules with a contented smile probably as he returns home with sacks of the thieves gold And Morgiana has a beatific smile as she pours boiling oil on to the thieves who threaten the life of her master and herself The next illustration was mistakenly captioned by the editors at Hearst Here we see the Prince staring at a bird who holds a talisman in his beak This is not the story of the Talking Bird also known as The Three Sisters but the bird who led Prince Kemerezzeman astray from Princess Badoura as you will read in the 1951 series Sindbad the Sailor and the Roc is again a repeat of the illustration from the 1914 edition Here Sindbad in his second voyage ties himself to the leg of the gigantic Roc bird to be carried to where the diamonds are to be found The final illustration is The Enchanted Horse made of ivory and ebony which will fly through the air to any destination the rider desires Here the Prince mounts the magic horse and without yet knowing the secret of how to manipulate the flight takes off into the unknown to find his Princess and his fortune
