religions across the world need to be and to grow in dialogical relationships of respect and understanding An essential aim of interreligious education is the promotion of understanding and engagement between people of different religions and therefore it has great potential to contribute to the common good of the global community Interreligious education has grown from the interfaith movement whose beginning is usually identified with the World Parliament of Religions held in Chicago in 1893 This was the first time in history that leaders of the eastern and western religions had come together for dialogue and to consider working together for global unity
