Education In Murder:

An Education in Murder Gerald Chattman, 1998-09-01 Diane David a student at Cleveland State University Law School is found murdered in late November in a small library study room At the scene of the crime remnants of a paper David had been working on apparently involving the Sioux Indian Reservation are found clutched in her hand Mark Connally is assigned to the homicide as his first case He is a young detective who comes from a long line of police officers His father was killed in the line of duty He begins his investigation at the law school and meets a student Laura Mitchell who is instrumental in helping him throughout the case Despite starting from very different perspectives on life in general and the law in particular they begin to feel that there may be common ground An Education in Murder Patty Joy, 2019-04-02 While homeschooling her five children in her small town Rainbow Bailey spends her days knee deep in lesson plans laundry and science projects Between helping run her husband's sandwich shop and preparing for the town fundraiser Rainbow's plate is full One night off she discovers body wrapped in plastic and tossed into a dumpster turning her whole world upside down Charlottesville's new chief of police fresh from the big city is struggling to adjust to small town life With no good clues to follow sets his eyes on Rainbow as the prime suspect Will Rainbow and her kids with their unending curiosity and thirst for answers be able to convince Chief Flint that she had nothing to do with poor Harmless Harvey's death Illinois. Department of Public Welfare, 1924 Includes the reports of various state institutions under the administration of the Holocaust education in a global context Fracapane, Karel, Haß, department The Institution Quarterly ,1924 Matthias, Topography of Terror Foundation (Germany), 2014-01-24 International interest in Holocaust education has reached new heights in recent years This historic event has long been central to cultures of remembrance in those countries where the genocide of the Jewish people occurred But other parts of the world have now begun to recognize the history of the Holocaust as an effective means to teach about mass violence and to promote human rights and civic duty testifying to the emergence of this pivotal historical event as a universal frame of reference In this new globalized context how is the Holocaust represented and taught How do teachers handle this excessively complex and emotionally loaded subject in fast changing multicultural European societies still haunted by the crimes perpetrated by the Nazis and their collaborators Why and how is it taught in other areas of the world that have only little if any connection with the history of the Jewish people Holocaust Education in a Global Context will explore these questions page 10 The National Humane Review ,1919

Race, Law, and Higher Education in the Colorblind Era Hoang Vu Tran,2019-07-04 This book provides detailed analysis of Supreme Court judgments which have impacted the rights of minorities in relation to higher education and so illustrates ongoing issues of racial discrimination throughout the American education sector Race Law and Higher Education in the Colorblind Era brings together the many racial disputes that have been adjudicated by the Supreme Court to investigate the politics of colorblindness in the post civil rights era Through a reading of these various cases as a form of continuing racial discourse this book focuses on the ways in which racial disputes operate within a clearly entwined colorblind narrative that invalidates racial justice for minorities By investigating how the Supreme Court has understood racism and the concept of race across its history this volume demonstrates how colleges and universities must navigate the often contradictory and perilous landscape of diversity in attempts to integrate historically disadvantaged minorities. This book will be of interest to researchers academics and postgraduate students in the fields of sociology of education multicultural education and legal Holocaust Education in Primary Schools in the Twenty-First Century Claus-Christian W. Szejnmann, Paula Cowan, James Griffiths, 2018-07-09 This collection is the first of its kind bringing together Holocaust educational researchers as well as school and museum educators from across the globe to discuss the potentials of Holocaust education in relation to primary school children Its contributors are from countries that have a unique relationship with the Holocaust such as Germany Israel neutral Switzerland and Allied countries outside the UK Their research provides new insight into the diverse ways in which primary aged students engage with Holocaust education Chapters explore the impact of teaching the Holocaust to this age group school and museum teaching pedagogies and primary students perspectives of the Holocaust This book will appeal to school and museum educators of primary aged students whose work requires them to teach the Holocaust Citizenship or Civics or Human Rights Education Since the turn of the twenty first century there has been a transformation in school and museum based Holocaust education This book clearly demonstrates that primary education has been included in this transformation Exploring the Mandatory Life Sentence for Murder Barry Mitchell, Julian V Roberts, 2012-10-19 Murder is often regarded as both the ultimate and a unique crime and whereas courts are normally given discretion in sentencing offenders for murder the sentence is mandatory indeterminate imprisonment Since the crime and the punishment come as a package deal this book looks at both the legal nature of the offence and at the current operation of the mandatory life sentence Not only does the book adopt a critical approach by assessing the strengths and weaknesses of the status quo it also draws upon comparative material from both common and civil law jurisdictions in an attempt to provide a comprehensive exploration of these issues The need for public confidence in the criminal justice system is particularly acute in the way it deals with the most serious homicides In this book the authors report findings from the first systematic exploration of public attitudes to sentencing murder in this or any other common law jurisdiction The picture of public opinion emerging from this recent large scale nationwide qualitative and quantitative survey funded by the Nuffield Foundation is likely to surprise many and will be of interest to all jurisdictions where the mandatory life sentence for murder The Japan Daily Mail ,1897 has been questioned The Idea of Education in Golden Age Detective Fiction Roger Dalrymple, Andrew Green, 2024-07-05 This book presents an exploration of how Golden Age detective fiction encounters educational ideas particularly those forged by the transformative educational policymaking of the interwar period Charting the educational policy and provision of the era and referring to works by Agatha Christie Dorothy L Sayers Edmund Crispin and others this book explores the educational capacity and agency of literary detectives the learning spaces of the genre and the kinds of knowledge that are made available to inquirers both inside and outside the text It is argued that the genre explores a range of contemporaneous propositions on the balance between academic curriculum and practicum length of school life and the value of lifelong learning This book s closing chapter considers the continuing pedagogic value for contemporary classrooms of engaging with the genre as a rich discursive and imaginative space for exploring educational ideas Framing Golden Age detective fiction as a genre profoundly concerned with learning this book will be highly relevant reading for academics postgraduate students and scholars involved in the fields of English language arts twentieth century literature and the theories of learning more broadly Those interested in detective fiction and interdisciplinary literary studies will also find the volume of interest Investigating Education in Germany David Phillips, 2015-06-26 This book brings together the work of established researcher Professor David Phillips in one authoritative volume Including key chapters on education in Germany from the last three decades topics range from historical studies of universities and schools to detailed research on the role of the British in reconstructing education in Germany after 1945 and education in post unification Germany Together the body of work draws from a multitude of primary sources and constitutes a comprehensive analysis of educational provision in Germany over a long historical period In addition to 16 chapters spanning Phillips research from 1981 to 2012 the book includes a new introduction bringing his ideas together and demonstrating their continuing relevance to the field Investigating Education in Germany will be invaluable reading for academics researchers and postgraduate students in the fields of international and comparative education German studies history of education and sociology

Education in Missouri Walter Barlow Stevens,1921 Holocaust Education in Lithuania Christine Beresniova,2017-03-08 Holocaust Education in Lithuania is based on a six year multi sited ethnographic research project that was conducted to analyze the effects of the controversial policies of Holocaust education which were introduced as conditions of membership for access into post Soviet western alliances In order to understand how individuals take up transnational policies and programs intended to support democratization Beresniova delves into rarely discussed issues She looks at the means through which inherent cultural and political assumptions have had an impact on the ways in which memory and history are used in educational programs She also scrutinizes the motivating factors for involvement in Holocaust education such as the importance of community building civic activism beyond the topic of the Holocaust and the perceived power of the international community in dictating domestic education policy guidelines Beresniova contends that educators must acknowledge the political and cultural elements in Holocaust education programs and policies or risk undermining their own efforts This book is recommended for scholars of anthropology education history political science and Education in Popular Culture Roy Fisher, Ann Harris, Christine Jarvis, 2008-05-06 Education in European studies Popular Culture explores what makes schools colleges teachers and students an enduring focus for a wide range of contemporary media What is it about the school experience that makes us wish to relive it again and again The book provides an overview of education as it is represented in popular culture together with a framework through which educators can interpret these representations in relation to their own professional values and development The analyses are contextualised within contemporary historical and ideological frameworks and make connections between popular representations and professional and political discourses about education Through its examination of film television popular lyrics and fiction this book tackles educational themes that recur in popular culture and demonstrates how they intersect with debates concerning teacher performance the curriculum and young people s behaviour and morality Chapters explore how experiences of education are both reflected and constructed in ways that sometimes reinforce official and professional educational perspectives and sometimes resist and oppose them Education in Popular Culture will stimulate critical reflection on the popular myths and professional discourses that surround teachers and teaching It will serve to deepen analyses of teaching and learning and their associated institutional and societal contexts in a creative and challenging way Public Education Christian education in China ,1922 Colonial Education in India 1781-1945 Pramod K. in California John Swett, 1911 Nayar, 2022-07-30 This 5 volume set tracks the various legal administrative and social documentation on the progress of Indian education from 1780 to 1947 The documents not only map a cultural history of English education in India but capture the debates in and around each of these domains through coverage of English language literature pedagogy the journey from school to university and technical and vocational education Produced by statesmen educationists administrators teachers Vice Chancellors and native national leaders the documents testify to the complex processes through which colleges were set up syllabi formed the language of instruction determined and infrastructure built The sources vary from official Minutes to orders petitions to pleas speeches to opinion pieces The collection contributes through the mostly unmediated documents to our understanding of the British Empire of the local responses to the Empire and imperial policy and of the complex negotiations within and without the administrative structures that set about establishing the college the training institute and the teaching profession itself
