Giroux, 2013 America's latest war according to renowned social critic Henry Giroux is a war on youth While this may seem counterintuitive in our youth obsessed culture Giroux lays bare the grim reality of how our educational social and economic institutions continually fail young people Their systemic failure is the result of what Giroux identifies as four fundamentalisms market deregulation patriotic and religious fervor the instrumentalization of education and the militarization of society We see the consequences most plainly in the decaying education system schools are increasingly desi

Bowker's Law Books and Serials in Print 1988 R. R. Bowker, 1988 An Emotional History of the United States Peter N. Stearns, Jan Lewis, 1998 Emotions lie at our very core as human beings How we process and grapple with our emotions how and what we emote and how we respond to the emotions of others constitute the essence of our social universe In a very real sense we exist only through the prism of our emotions And yet the profound effect of human emotion on history politics religion and culture remains underexamined While the influence of emotion in such realms as American foreign policy has been well documented other emotional aspects of American history have escaped notice What role for instance does emotion have in the practice of African American religion How do shame and self hatred influence American conceptions of identity How does our emotional life change as we age To what degree is American consumerism driven by basic human emotion With this landmark anthology historians Peter N Stearns and Jan Lewis provide a road map of the American emotional landscape From the emotional world of working class Massachusetts to the prayers of evangelical and pentecostal women and the gendered nature of black rage these essays provide a multicultural snapshot of the unique nature and evolution of American emotions Uniform Trade List Annual ,1989 The Spirit and the Mind Terry L. Cross,Emerson B. Powery,2000-05-10 The Spirit and the Mind a collection of essays in honor of Pentecostal scholar Donald N Bowdle unites a wide ranging group of authors in an attempt to articulate the Pentecostal tradition of the Christian faith The topics vary from biblical criticism to specifically Pentecostal issues The editors concerned with the popular perception of Pentecostal scholarship have gathered together a selection of pieces that demonstrate the diversity and intellect of the scholars from this tradition Issues explored include prayer and mysticism the need for integrity in ministry the doctrines of justification and sanctification and the need for an informed Pentecostalism Current Publications in Legal and Related Fields ,1978 Improvement and Reform of Law Enforcement and Criminal Justice in the United States United States.
