Liberalism, Education and Schooling T.H. McLaughlin, 2017-03-27 A tribute collection of essays edited by author's colleagues and friends Epistemologies and Ethics in Adult Education and Lifelong Learning Richard G. Bagnall, Steven Hodge, 2022-02-17 This book presents and advocates for a framework of competing epistemologies and conceptions of ethics as a way of understanding modernist lifelong learning These epistemologies are grounded in a recognition of the normative nature of knowledge that informs lifelong learning each being framed by a different account of the sort of knowledge that is most valued and therefore foregrounded in lifelong learning policy provision and engagement informed by the epistemology Each epistemology is also characterised by its constituent conception of ethics Four such epistemologies and conceptions of ethics are here recognised as having been important in the lifelong learning movement to date disciplinary developmental emancipatory and design The authors argue that assumptions about knowledge and moral positions constitute a powerful but not well understood feature of such arguments awareness of these assumptions and positions could serve to powerfully advance the overall understanding of what is at stake in lifelong learning and adult education at all levels how group based social differentiation and student centred education foster the idea that ethnic and social attributes matter losing any sense of our common humanity Considering the consequences of this for students and university education as a whole and challenging all pre existing ideas of how to approach reported ethnic attainment gaps The Minoritisation of Higher Education is a thought provoking read The book will be of great interest to scholars postgraduate students and professionals in the areas of higher education learning and teaching equality and diversity ethnicity and attainment It is also an important work for policymakers concerned with higher education knowledge how such developments are propelled by a deluge of political initiatives in areas such as emotional literacy emotional well being and the soft outcomes of learning The Dangerous Rise of Therapeutic Education is eye opening reading for every teacher student teacher and parent who retains any belief in the power of knowledge to transform people s lives Its insistent call for a serious public debate about the emotional state of education should also be at the forefront of the minds of every agent of change in society from parent to policy maker Philosophical Issues In Education Cornel M.
