Rethinking Education and Emancipation

Nataša Lacković, Igor Cvejic, Predrag Krstić, Olga Nikolić, 2024-03-24 This edited collection responds to the contemporary need for deeper analysis and rethinking of the relation between education and emancipation in a world beset by social digital educational and ecological crises Among the diverse interdisciplinary perspectives explored are rethinking the Anthropocene in the time of environmental emergency the concept of relational thinking as emancipatory practice and a more encompassing concept of relational pedagogy that includes questions about the environment and digitalisation the notion of indoctrination from the perspective of political education reconnecting with the body as a form of emancipatory education and how schools reproduce socio cultural ideologies in synergy with material and visual culture The book chapters also consider the role of social media postcolonialism and feminism in understanding emancipatory education and a historical reception of John Dewey's ideas in other than Western contexts This volume will be of interest to those seeking well known as well as further and novel acquaintance with the philosophical and critical issues surrounding different forms and ideas of emancipation and or through education including related practical propositions and examples Educators scholars in education social justice philosophy sociology and curriculum developers will find this collection valuable in contemplating practising and theorising the futures of emancipatory education across contexts and themes

Education and Emancipation in the Neoliberal Era Noah De Lissovoy, 2014-11-18 This book describes how neoliberalism as societal philosophy works to limit human potential in our school systems Analyzing contemporary school reform and control punishment and pathologization in schools this book outlines a theory of emancipation and a process by which pedagogy can build solidarity in classrooms and society more broadly

Education and Emancipation Scott Fletcher, 2000 This important work reconceptualizes the landscape of contemporary educational theory Based on a careful and philosophically informed assessment of liberalism critical theory postmodernism and care theory it provides an innovative framework for understanding and guiding school practice With wisdom and insight Fletcher focuses on the tensions and conflicts that have divided emancipatory theories and offers a compelling alternative to the factiousness that divides proponents of emancipatory views Intended to meet the needs of all students these proposals stand in opposition to the agenda set by neo conservatives

"My Emancipation Don't Fit Your Equation": Critical Enactments of Black Education in the US Brian Lozenski, 2022-02-28 This book takes the reader through a complex and precarious journey to understand the multitude of educational experiences and perspectives of African Americans Weaving through nearly four hundred years of history beginning in pre colonial West Africa all the way to our current time will challenge the reader to consider the debates aspirations and risks that are inherent in all education Using hip hop theory as a metaphor the book explores how fugitivity abolition and accommodation have framed the educational contexts of millions of black folks in the US Absent the understanding of the history of the racialization of education any broader exploration of education in the US is insufficient

Education for Emancipation National Council of Labour Colleges (Great Britain),1930 Open Education Patrick Blessinger,TJ Bliss,2016-12-19 This insightful collection of essays explores the ways in which open education can democratise access to education for all It is a rich resource that offers both research and case studies to relate the application of open technologies and approaches in education settings around the world A must read for practitioners policy makers scholars and students in the field of education Unshackled: Education for Freedom, Student Achievement, and Personal

Emancipation Greg Wiggan,Lakia Scott,Marcia Watson,Richard Reynolds,2014-04-03 Harnessing conceptual inspiration through the work of Harriet Tubman and Queen Nanny the Maroon of Jamaica this book explores the historical and contemporary role that education has and can continually play as an instrument of personal and group liberation The book discusses the early formations of the Transatlantic Slave Trade the enslavement of native populations and the subsequent development of the Underground Railroad and Maroon societies in the Caribbean and Americas as systems of liberation It investigates the development and maintenance of racial gendered and class stratification and provides a personal path to freedom as a context for a broader discussion on using education as a mechanism for dismantling the effects of colonization miseducation and social psychological domination in schools and society As a contemporary issue it presents an in depth analysis of the Tucson Unified School District in Arizona and the controversy surrounding its ethnic studies program as an example of one of the contested sites of curriculum development and student liberation Additionally it discusses high performing charter schools as an alternative model of education which may help to provide a systematic way of unshackling institutional barriers and oppression Ultimately this book acknowledges that today the road to freedom is still one we must all travel as miseducation school failure school dropout unemployment underemployment poverty neighborhood violence incarceration and a growing prison industrial complex are all reminders of the work that still must be accomplished Like those who historically sacrificed their lives to gain freedom and an education today with the lingering effects of institutionalized systems of domination education must continue to be an instrument of social mobility and liberation if indeed we are to make schools and society more humane and inclusive towards those who are still waiting to be unshackled The book presents implications regarding the treaties on education for freedom as a school reform and public policy topic

Education, Empowerment and Emancipation ,2019 Jacques Ranciere: Education, Truth, Emancipation Charles Bingham,Gert Biesta,2010-08-26 Winner AERA 2011 Outstanding Book Award Jacques Ranciere Education Truth Emancipation demonstrates the importance of Ranciere's work for educational theory and in turn it shows just how central Ranciere's educational thought is to his work in political theory and aesthetics Charles Bingham and Gert Biesta illustrate brilliantly how philosophy can benefit from Ranciere's particular way of thinking about education and go on to offer their own provocative account of the relationship between education truth and emancipation Including a new essay by Ranciere himself

this book is a must read for scholars of social theory and all who profess to educate Education as Emancipation ,1998 other hand contributes Chinese stories to this field China's education manifests a tendency with stronger indigenous features related to the changing domestic climate and international geopolitical position Chapters included about teaching and teacher education in China can provide local evidence intelligence and relevance to global audience and even voice indigenous epistemes within the non Western platform This book aims to build such dialogs between global perspectives and Chinese insights for heteroglossia in content and methodology in the field of teaching and teacher education Education and Social Emancipation B.J. Hake,1975-10-31 Marxism and Education Lotar Rasinski,Dave Hill,Kostas Skordoulis,2017-12-15 Marxism and Education offers contemporary Marxist analyses of recent and current education policy and develops Marxist based practices of resistance from a series of national and international perspectives Part I identifies and critiques pressure points impacts of and developments in capitalism and education as these pertain to education policy teacher education and assessment In Part II chapter authors develop Marxist praxis critical education practices and resistance against the intensification of neoliberalism and authoritarian conservatism With contributions from leading globally recognized Marxist theoreticians this book addresses the impacts and developments of neoliberal and authoritarian conservative education policies across the UK USA Greece Turkey Poland and Hungary Education and Empire Rebecca Swartz,2019-01-09 This book tracks the changes in government involvement in Indigenous children's education over the nineteenth century drawing on case studies from the Caribbean Australia and South Africa Schools were pivotal in the production and reproduction of racial difference in the colonies of settlement Between 1833 and 1880 there were remarkable changes in thinking about education in Britain and the Empire with it increasingly seen as a government responsibility At the same time children's needs came to be seen as different to those of their parents and childhood was approached as a time to make interventions into Indigenous people's lives This period also saw shifts in thinking about race Members of the public researchers missionaries and governments discussed the function of education considering whether it could be used to further humanitarian or settler colonial aims Underlying these questions were anxieties regarding the status of Indigenous people in newly colonised territories the successful education of their children could show their potential for equality The Aesthetics of Education Tyson E. Lewis,2012-06-14 A groundbreaking work applying Ranciere's theories of aesthetics and politics to the field of teaching analysing the works of Dewey Freire and other education thinkers The Education System in Mexico David Scott,C.M. Posner,Chris Martin,Elsa Guzman,2018-03-15 Over the last three decades a significant amount of research has sought to relate educational institutions policies practices and reforms to social structures and agencies A number of models have been developed that have become the basis for attempting to understand the complex relation between education and society At the same time national and international bodies tasked with improving educational performances seem to be writing in a void in that there is no rigorous theory guiding their work and their documents exhibit few references to groups institutions and forces that can impede or promote their programmes and projects As a result the recommendations these bodies provide to their clients display little to no comprehension of how and under what conditions the recommendations can be put into effect The Education System in Mexico directly addresses this problem By combining abstract insights with the practicalities of educational reforms policies practices and their social antecedents it offers a long overdue reflection of the history effects and significance of the Mexican educational system as well as presenting a more cogent understanding of the relationship between educational institutions and social forces in Mexico and around the world
