Education and International Cultural Cooperation Prem Kirpal,1991-01-01 Education as an Implement of International Cooperation United States. Department of State. Proposed Educational and Cultural Organization of the United Nations : draft constitution and explanatory statement,1945 International Cultural Cooperation India National Commission for Cooperation with UNESCO,1970 Education as an Implement of International Cooperation Howard Eugene Wilson,1945 The Oxford Handbook of International Cultural Heritage Law Francesco Francioni,Ana Filipa Vrdoljak,2020-07-30 This Handbook provides a cutting edge study of the fast developing field of international law on the protection of cultural heritage by taking stock of the recent developments and of the core concepts and current challenges The legal protection of cultural heritage has come under renewed focus from the international community and states since the 1990s This is evidenced by the adoption of a range of international instruments Countries are also enacting cultural heritage legislation or overhauling existing laws within their own national territory Contributions address the protection of immovable and movable tangible and intangible cultural heritage in peacetime and in the event of armed conflict as well as the interaction between specific regimes of cultural heritage protection with other fields of international law including international criminal law human rights and humanitarian law environmental law international trade investments and intellectual property The last part of the Handbook covers diverse regional systems of heritage protection Cultural Diplomacy and International Cultural Relations: Volume I Oliver Bennett,2020-05-21 This book is the first in a dedicated series that explores questions of cultural diplomacy and international cultural relations Drawing on a broad range of disciplinary perspectives it throws new light on the function and operation of policies that seek to change attitudes values and behaviours across national boundaries and in diverse geocultural contexts The specific policies explored relate to ways in which sites of past violence and atrocity are deployed in strategies of soft power to the contribution of culture to EU enlargement to the use of the Russian language as a soft power resource to the singularities of the Indian cultural diplomacy to cultural diplomacy as elite legitimation to the role of diaspora relations in European cultural diplomacy to the use of film in post war cultural diplomacy and to the role assigned to culture in the Canada EU Comprehensive Economic Trade Agreement Scholars interested in how cultural and foreign policy intersect in widely differing national contexts will find this book an invaluable resource It was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Cultural Policy Hearings United States. Congress. House,1960 Departments of State, Justice, and Commerce, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriations for ... United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations,1960 Departments of State and Justice, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 1961 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on Departments of State and Justice, the Judiciary, and Related Agencies Appropriations,1960 Free Trade and Cultural Diversity in International Law Jingxia Shi,2013-04-30 This book attempts to reconcile the concept of free trade with a key non trade social value cultural diversity in an era of economic globalisation It first shows how we can look at culture in many different ways and explains why we should care about cultural diversity The book then examines the challenges that policymakers are faced with in formulating cultural measures in the new media environment and analyses UNESCO s theories and approaches to cultural diversity This is followed by a comprehensive examination of the treatment of culture in global and regional trade agreements including the framework of the GATT WTO system the WTO s judicial practice involving cultural products and the treatment of culture under the EC EU and NAFTA This identifies the challenges trade norms encounter in dealing with cultural products The author seeks to formulate a balanced view of the challenge of protecting and promoting cultural diversity while also recognising the important goal of trade liberalisation To this end Professor Shi proposes a dual method through which the norms found in WTO agreements and in UNESCO cultural instruments may be brought into alignment the first highlighting the compatibility of cultural policy measures with trade obligations on a domestic level the second suggesting potential linkages between the WTO rules and the UNESCO Convention from the perspectives of treaty interpretation
