Beverly Moon, 2014-01-10 The human reception of divine messages known as revelation has often played a central role in world religions This study explores how spirituality and the personal experience of the divine has been expressed and preserved in various religious traditions The phenomenon of revelation is explored and interpreted through examples from across the religious spectrum and six different types of revelation are posited visions and voices divination spirit journey spirit mediation mystical union and divine incarnation The Catholic Periodical Index, a Cumulative Author and Subject Index to a Selected List of Catholic Periodicals, 1959 A Time for Embracing Julia Upton, 1999 Has sacramental reconciliation disappeared from the horizon of Catholic practice Has confession been extinguished from your practice of the faith Have you noticed a marked change in the way in which you have become reconciled to God and the Church community over the course of time These questions and others are addressed in Julia Upton's study of sacramental reconciliation Her concern is that the sacrament of reconciliation through which the darkness of sin is illumined by the healing light of Christ's forgiveness is an endangered species In sacramental reconciliation the sinner experiences the tender healing welcoming embrace of God which is what Upton regards as endangered Upton's is a holistic approach to sacramental reconciliation that involves studying data from anthropology psychology and sociology and integrating that with data from Scripture history and theology The United States Catalog, 1924 Journal of Education, 1884 The Journal of Education, 1893 Publishers' circular and booksellers' record, 1850 The Publishers' Circular Sampson Low, 1850
