APAIS 1992: Australian public affairs information service, Australian Education John P. Keeves, Kevin Marjoribanks, 1999. The articles in this volume provide a review of research and scholarly work in the field of education that has been undertaken in Australia during the past 30 years. Not only do the articles assess the work but they also consider the contributions of scholarly work to thinking in various educational areas.

Population Ageing and Australia's Future Hal Kendig, Peter McDonald, John Piggott, 2016-10-21. This volume provides evidence from many of Australia's leading scholars from a range of social science disciplines to support policies that address challenges presented by Australia's ageing population. It builds on presentations made to the 2014 Symposium of the Academy of the Social Sciences in Australia. The material is in four parts: Perspectives on Ageing; Population Ageing; Global regional and Australian perspectives; Improving Health and Wellbeing; Responses by Government and Families; Individuals. The Academy of the Social Sciences in Australia sees this volume as a major contribution to improving our understanding of Australia's population ageing. Social science research in this area truly underpins our ability as a nation to manage such demographic change and its consequences for the economy and society. Such knowledge helps ensure that our citizens can live even better lives. Glenn Withers, President ASSA. It is fantastic that Australians are living longer and healthier lives but we need to address these demographic changes. The Hon Joe Hockey MP 2015 Intergenerational Report.

Universities and Globalization Ravinder Kaur Sidhu, 2006-08-15. Universities and Globalization: To Market To Market examines the operations of power and knowledge in international education under conditions of globalization with a focus on the three biggest exporters of higher education: the United States, Australia, and the United Kingdom. An interdisciplinary approach based on the core social sciences is used to explore the power relations that shape global education networks. The role of nation states in creating the conditions for education markets and the desire for a Westernized template of international education in the postcolonial world is discussed. The volume offers a sophisticated attempt to recast international education as a series of geopolitical and geoeconomic engagements that transcend simple supply and demand dynamics. Engaging with the theoretical debates about education and globalization, this book examines global cultural flows and boundary crossings, the cultural economy of education networks, and the possibilities for supra-territorial subjectivities. International education markets are examined from the perspectives of both first world producers and postcolonial consumers. By investigating how first world universities imagine and enact the global in their marketing practices, the expressions of cultural diversity valued by education markets and the types of individual and institutional subjectivities merging from markets Universities and Globalization To Market To Market offers students faculty administrators marketing consultants and others who work in the area a highly nuanced account of the global relations fostered by education markets This original critical examination of the forms and cultural politics of international education is a significant contribution to the field Disciplining the Undisciplined? Martin Brueckner,Rochelle Spencer,Megan Paull,2018-01-29 This book explores how the interrelated concepts of responsible citizenship corporate social responsibility CSR and sustainability can be interpreted researched and taught It contributes to the much needed debate on the role of universities and business schools in particular in the context of rising social and environmental stakes and growing calls for doing business the right way The book offers diverse perspectives on the concepts of responsible citizenship CSR and sustainability with individual contributions focusing on the conceptual implications for specific disciplines exploring associated challenges and opportunities and raising methodological and theoretical concerns for the teaching and research of these concepts laden with complexity and ambiguity The book is divided into three major parts the first of which presents conceptual theoretical and ethical issues In turn part two explores specific disciplines perspectives Lastly part three presents hands on experiences from the field Thanks to this threefold approach the book not only offers a guide to direct future research but can also be used as a text for advanced courses on responsible citizenship CSR and sustainability APAIS 1994: Australian public affairs information service , A Subject Index to Current Literature Australian Public Affairs Information Service, Australian National Bibliography ,1978

Comparative Perspectives on Early Childhood Education Reforms in Australia and China Josephine Ng,Berenice Nyland,2020-10-05 This book has been designed to add to the study and experience of early childhood ideas and experience in an international context The focus is Australia and China with three research projects explored to provide insights into the history and development of early childhood education in each country The work offers a consideration of the complexity of early childhood education in local and global contexts at a time when global relationships can benefit from moving beyond better cultural understandings to greater connections and reciprocity Each study has accompanying empirical data to support the interpretations offered The first part of the book presents historical context and examines policy issues the growth of the early childhood education workforce and the development of curriculum approaches in each country The two projects that follow describe teachers perspectives of children s learning and an in depth study of a collaborative higher education program that details stakeholder experiences By studying participant attitudes and ideas in each country we have been able to share early childhood knowledge and discuss perspectives through early childhood languages like perspectives on the role importance and nature of play and learning
