

❖ Maritain's (1951) distinction is based upon the conviction that human beings have a natural and supernatural calling; spiritual growth, therefore, is vital in the quest for freedom. This renders all education – in dealing with freedom – to be religious.

❖ Maritain (1962) frequently stresses that institutional education deals directly with the education of the intellect and that through the enlightenment of the intellect it deals directly with the will.

❖ The shaping of the will is throughout more important to man than the shaping of the intellect.
