Education for Women's Empowerment Jaya Indiresan,2002 From an Indian perspective Women's Colleges and Universities in a Global Context Kristen A. Renn,2014-10-13 A pathbreaking study of the critical role women s institutions play in global higher education Educating girls and women is a powerful route to improving societies worldwide When women receive more education literacy rates in children rise maternal and infant death rates drop and women enjoy an increased earning capacity Yet in parts of the developing world women s education is considered a low priority at best and a dangerous countercultural activity at worst In Europe and North America the number of women s colleges is shrinking yet women only institutions are growing in size and number in many other regions of the world where they provide access to female students who are prevented for legal cultural religious or practical reasons from attending coeducational universities Women s Colleges and Universities in a Global Context is the first book to provide a comprehensive comparative analysis of the increasing significance of single sex higher education institutions for women around the world Based on Kristen A Renn s on site study of thirteen women s colleges and universities in ten different countries Australia Canada China India Italy Japan Kenya South Korea the United Arab Emirates and the United Kingdom this timely and provocative volume combines interviews of campus leaders faculty and students with extensive online and archival research Renn provides an overview of each country s political economic and educational situation then explores the theoretical and practical themes she uncovers in their educational institutions for women In the end this volume addresses not only the role of women s colleges in their own countries but also what these institutions can teach us that would benefit higher education worldwide Education for Women's Empowerment Jaya Indiresan,2002 From an Indian perspective Women Empowerment (Volume 1) Hridai R. Yadav,2015-01-01 This study addresses a wide range of the issues concerning the Empowerment of Women at Village Panchayat Level in Amethi An attempt has been made in this study to describe the Historical perspective of women from the Vedic Period to the Pre Independence and Post Independence period The existing status of the women has been described National Policy for the Empowerment of Women has been critically analysed Various constitutional provisions laws and legislations enacted and enforced to control and prevent the crimes against women has been explained Lastly the status of the women and the National Policy Laws and Legislations for the Empowerment of women have been described at the grassroots level Coming of Age Francesca Purcell,2005-07-14 In view of the increasing number of Third World countries considering the establishment of women s colleges to meet the demand for the higher education of women presenting a case study of two key women s colleges in the Philippines Within the context of global national and local changes since the fall of Ferdinand Marcos in 1986 academic and administrative leaders at two prestigious women s colleges candidly discuss how their respective institutions adapted to their environments and how the colleges will fare in the future Preferences for large coeducational institutions the emergence of less expensive tertiary institutions and the downward spiral of a weak national economy combined to destabilized the enrollment base of these colleges Factors unique to the Philippines including an increasing number of female overseas contract workers struggles with national language preferences and the growth of feminism also affected the colleges In response the colleges expanded their curricula chose high profile presidents focused on faculty development and acquired technology Decision makers at these colleges will have to continue in their efforts at solidifying their positions in the Philippine higher education system The book that women s colleges worldwide must articulate their unique purposes and collaborate with other institutions to strengthen their organizations Women

Empowerment (Volume 2) Hridai R.
