Education in China: Policy and Development (1978 - 2018) Wu Zhihui, 2025-09-23 This book reveals the policy changes and profound transformations in rural education in China over the past 40 years of reform and opening up The book emphasizes the need to accurately address the relationship between urban and rural educational development adopt an integrated urban rural education mindset and establish a mechanism for promoting balanced development by linking urban and rural areas advancing overall progress and ensuring urban rural integration This will comprehensively revitalize rural education We must treat the development of rural education as the most foundational livelihood project and regard promoting fairness and justice in urban rural education as a long term task focusing on balance strengthening the foundation and addressing shortcomings We must adhere to the rule of law in education enhance and improve the leadership of the party and government over rural education and correctly guide public opinion and manage societal mindset We must strengthen research on rural education make top level designs for the future development of rural education and inspire innovative vitality among grassroots educators effectively conducting rural education modernization experiments to lay a solid foundation for achieving the fundamental modernization of socialism with Chinese characteristics Reform and

Development of Educational System Ling Li, Jiafu Zheng, Zeyuan Yu, 2017-12-29 In this book the authors pursue quantitative qualitative and mixed methods approaches conducting hundreds of large scale surveys and in depth interviews in 679 schools 67 counties and 13 provinces throughout China They also conducted longitudinal case studies in five municipalities and provinces to better reflect education reform and development in different education levels or sectors The authors used national statistical data from the 1970s to 2013 as well as a wealth of first hand documents and data from different levels of educational departments in schools counties municipals and provinces and grass roots input from 253 teachers principals education administrators and students The authors applied SEM HLM GCM and many other statistic techniques and qualitative methods to analyse the data and materials in order to explore correlations between development and reform internal and external factors in educational reforms as well as strategies for resolving core issues Their findings indicate that institutional reforms concerning financial investments allocation of teaching resources allocation of facilities curricula design systems and political economic social system reforms all contribute to the development of different levels and types of education in different modes and to different extents Topics of particular interest include five case studies conducted in five different municipalities and provinces that showcase the nation s education reform and development in a specific model and on the basis of substantial data Further milestone events regarding educational reform and development that have taken place in China since 2013 are examined As a unique feature the book also includes 353 diagrams and tables on the development and reform of education in China offering extensive and up to date information on a part of the world that often remains difficult to access The book provides an expansive and in depth examination of the nation s education reform and development from its historical roots to the present and combining official and grass roots standpoints It will help readers to understand why and how Chinese education could lead students to win in international comparisons like PISA while at the same time often being the target of scathing criticism as well as how the nation is now working to provide a better education to serve the world s largest population

Higher Education Management and Development. Compendium for Managers Jeroen Huisman, Attila Pausits, 2010 Today as never before it is imperative that university managers possess the knowledge and the competencies necessary for leading modern higher education institutions Professional management enables higher education institutions to cooperate more effectively with partners ranging from local businesses to international enterprises and other stakeholders As higher education institutions grow larger and extend their reach into new areas and the functions demanded of them multiply academic administration and management become increasingly complex thus the need for skilled management and administrative personnel becomes more acute This book emerged as the product of the European Higher Education Management and Development EHEMD project a European multilateral curriculum development project under the coordination of the Danube University Krems and funded by the European Union in the framework of the Erasmus Lifelong Learning Programme Focusing not only on theoretical points of view but also on their practical applications as demonstrated in the accompanying case studies the publication covers the key aspects of modern university management The booklet is structured so that each chapter presents a particular aspect and application of university management and the entire volume reflects the core contents of the EHEMD curriculum Can higher education management be taught While we confidently say yes the answer needs some qualification The yes applies because higher education management is no different from any other subject in the social sciences The qualification is that a sound pedagogical philosophy and structure need to underpin such a programme The fundamentals of the EHEMD programme are that it is interdisciplinary that it is practice oriented and that students learn from each other and also learn independently
