The Human Background of Her Poetry

Josephine Pollitt

¶ The curtains of legend and inference that have enshrouded the figure of Emily Dickinson are sympathetically parted in this study of her life and personality.

¶ The mystery of her seclusion is explained by a flood of new material, which tells very plainly the story of her eventful life and traces the causes of one of the most tender and beautiful love affairs of literary history. From this luminous and sensitive biography emerges a serene, true portrait of an exquisite poet and enchanting woman.
