which periodically ravage the adjacent regions never sweep their quiet surface and ships from the ports of the neighbouring colonies usually avail themselves of the protection afforded by this sheltered haven and safely ride away the tempestuous months on its smooth expanse The scenery around this gulf is extremely picturesque and beautiful Small green islands are dispersed here and there and seem to float gaily on the bosom of the slumbering waters the forest clothed mountains that beetle from above cast their lengthy shadows far and wide and the diving birds that continually ply the wing over the reflecting surface throw into the scene some of the choicest features of romantic beauty It was here that on a lovely morning in the month of March two skiffs might barely be seen floating quietly far far away at sea It was as yet early the gray mist of the tropical morning was just melting away before the rays of the rising sun that was fast ascending from behind the mountains in the east a thin haze nevertheless was still left surrounding every object Scarcely a ripple as yet marked the gulf and in the quiet of the hour might be heard the wakening halloos of the mariners on board their ships in the harbour of Port of Spain as they summoned each other to the labours of the day The two skiffs were at a great distance from land In the haze it was difficult on a hasty glance to distinguish them from the sea but on closer observation they might be discovered to be a small fishing boat such as those which are generally seen on the gulf and a curial or Indian canoe There were three men in the fishing boat two who were rowers and one that was sitting at its stern and was apparently the master He was of mixed blood of that degree known as that of mulatto and seemingly of Spanish extraction but his two men were blacks The men were resting on their oars the master was occupied in deep sea fishing and the boat floated passively on the water In the Indian canoe there seemed also but three men one sat at the stern the other two crouched in the centre their paddles were carelessly rested on the sides of the light vessel and the canoe like the fishing boat was permitted to float unsteered on the gulf The two skiffs were not far from each other and as the haze cleared away the master of the fishing boat in the musing calm attendant on quiet fishing observed to his men as he dreamingly looked on the canoe Those fellows are Guaragons I dare say they paddled from the canoe the whole of last night and they are now taking their breakfast to get up to town before the breeze rises Yes sa briskly rejoined one of the boatmen dey wok all night all nakid as dey be dey dey no fraid rain dey no fraid sun but wen dey begin dey wok wok so night and day you see paddle go phshah phshah phshah here the speaker screwed up his little features to the utmost in order to express the energy with which the Indians are supposed to paddle while at the same time he endeavoured to imitate the sound of the paddle itself as it dashes the water
