Contemporary Facets of Injustice Gordon Albert Babst, Win-chiat Lee, 2025-07-11 The book presents contemporary or emerging areas where alignment with notions of justice is not yet sufficiently established and so issues of equity and fairness need to be sorted out It aims to clarify the issues of justice at stake and highlight the facets of injustice at work that problematize our understandings and/or practices such as with generative AI capital punishment truth and reconciliation commissions and Christian nationalism The Doctor's Aphrodite Heather Black, Having grown up in a time where social distancing is the normal no touching no physical contact with anyone not in your family Deona is enlisted into the carrier program that the government runs to help repopulate the world after several viruses killed off a majority of the world's population over forty years ago Alejandro is a doctor in training at the facility where the women in the carrier program are tracked inseminated and resulting babies are delivered When he meets Deona she's going through the initial testing for the program Feeling an almost immediate pull he knows that she is the woman for him Will their relationship survive leaving the only thing that they've ever known in life They have to leave the old life in the past and escape New Eden in order to have the life that they've only heard about Legally Kidnapped Oliver Kaye, 2011-09-29 A real life story disguised to protect the child involved The story embraces powerful human emotions from possessive jealousy to extraordinary parental deceit at the same time overcoming infertility problems and the dogged determination to get a rung on the farming ladder A roller coaster of extreme emotions that are finally eclipsed by the shenanigans by the professionals in the Family Court system leaving an ending that beggars belief Unreal James Serven, 2024-12-05 Unreal is a collection of stories vignettes anecdotes and moments from the life of the author James Serven James was the sole survivor of a tragic airplane crash in 1978 when he was fifteen years old The book Unreal describes how his life has unfolded and played out over the years The majority of the stories have a direct link to this harrowing plane crash in which the other three passengers tragically passed away But there are many other stories that are unique to themselves Some are humorous Some are ironic Some are sad But hopefully all are interesting and maybe a little unreal The Dome, 1899 Includes music Souvenirs of the Hillyer Golden Wedding, at Waupun, Wisconsin, 1898 Anton Chekhov Donald Rayfield, 2013-11-07 The description definitive is too easily used but Donald Rayfield's biography of Chekhov merits it unhesitatingly To quote no less an authority than Michael Frayn With question the definitive biography of Chekhov and likely to remain so for a very long time to come Donald Rayfield starts with the huge advantage of much new material that was prudishly suppressed under the Soviet regime or tactfully ignored by scholars But his mastery of all the evidence both old and new a massive archive is magisterial his background knowledge of the period is huge his Russian is sensitive to every colloquial nuance of the day and his tone is sure He captures a likeness of the notoriously elusive Chekhov which at last begins to seem recognisably human and even more extraordinary Chekhov's life was short he was only forty four when he died and dogged with ill health but his plays and short stories assure him of his place in the literary pantheon Here is a biography that does him full justice in short unapologetically to repeat that word definitive I don't remember any monograph by a Western scholar on a Russian author having such success Nikita Mikhalkov said that before this book came out we didn't know Chekhov The author doesn't invent add or embellish anything Rayfield is motivated by the Westerner's urge not to hold information back however grim it may be Anatoli Smelianski Director of Moscow Arts Theatre School It is hard to imagine another book about Chekhov after this one by Donald Rayfield Arthur Miller Sunday Times Donald Rayfield's exemplary biography draws on a daunting array of material inaccessible or ignored by his predecessors Nikolai Tolstoy The Literary Review Donald Rayfield Chekhov's best and definitive biographer William Boyd Guardian
