Adapting Historical Knowledge Production to the Classroom P.V. Kokkotas, K.S. Malamitsa, A.A. Rizaki, 2011-10-18 The aims of this book are to contribute to professional development of those directly involved in science education science teachers elementary and secondary science teacher advisors researchers in science education etc to contribute to the improvement of the quality of science education at all levels of education with the exploitation of elements from History of Science incorporated in science teaching it is argued that through such approaches the students' motivation can be raised their romantic understanding can be developed and consequently their conceptual understanding of science concepts can be improved since these approaches make science more attractive to them and to contribute to the debate about science education at the international level in order to find new ways for further inquiry on the issues that the book is dealing with The book is divided in two parts The first expounds its philosophical and epistemological framework and the second combines theory and praxis the theoretical insights with their practical applications

Interpretation in Architecture Adrian Snodgrass, Richard Coyne, 2013-05-13 Drawing on cultural theory phenomenology and concepts from Asian art and philosophy this book reflects on the role of interpretation in the act of architectural creation bringing an intellectual and scholarly dimension to real world architectural design practice For practising architects as well as academic researchers these essays consider interpretation from three theoretical standpoints or themes play edification and otherness Focusing on these the book draws together strands of thought informed by the diverse reflections of hermeneutical scholarship the uses of digital media and studio teaching and practice

Democracy and Education Reconsidered Jim Garrison, Stefan Neubert, Kersten Reich, 2015-12-22 Democracy and Education Reconsidered highlights the continued relevance of John Dewey s Democracy and Education while also examining the need to reconstruct and re contextualize Dewey s educational philosophy for our time The authors propose ways of revising Dewey s thought in light of the challenges facing contemporary education and society and address other themes not touched upon heavily in Dewey s work such as racism feminism post industrial capitalism and liquid modernity As a final component the authors integrate Dewey s philosophy with more recent trends in scholarship including pragmatism post structuralism and the works of other key philosophers and scholars

Moral Education and the Ethics of Self-Cultivation Michael A. Peters, Tina Besley, Huajun Zhang, 2021-07-30 Educational philosophies of self cultivation as the cultural foundation and philosophical ethos for education have strong and historically effective traditions stretching back to antiquity in the classical cradle civilizations of China and East Asia India and Pakistan Greece and Anatolia focused on the cultural traditions in Confucianism Taoism and Buddhism in the East and Hellenistic philosophy in the West This volume in East West dialogues in philosophy of education examines both Confucian and Western classical traditions revealing that although each provides its own distinct figure of the virtuous person they are remarkably similar in their conception and emphasis on moral self cultivation as a practical answer to how humans become virtuous The collection also examines self cultivation in Japanese traditions and also the nature of Michel Foucault s work in relation to ethical and aesthetic ideals of Hellenistic self cultivation

An Historical Introduction to American Education Gerald L. Gutek, 2012-09-18 Guteks classic volume on the history of American education has been thoroughly revised and updated to provide a twenty first century perspective on the development of American educational institutions Like earlier editions the well researched Third Edition employs a topical approach to examine the evolution of key institutions like the common school and the high school as well as significant movements like progressive education racial desegregation and multiculturalism Primary source readings enhance and reinforce chapter content and feature new writings from Benjamin Rush Horace Mann Maria Montessori W E B Du Bois John Dewey and Jane Addams Two new chapters add depth to this comprehensive richly illustrated work Immigration Multiculturalism and Education examines the response of public schools to the education of immigrant children in the context of Americas industrialization and urbanization This compelling addition also looks at the changing demographics of immigration and discusses the experiences and contributions of Hispanic Americans and Asian Americans

Progressive Education and John Dewey explores the origins of progressive education the philosophies of John Dewey and other leading progressive educators and this movements ongoing influence in American classrooms The Third Editions topical organization lends itself to multiple uses in the classroom Each chapter provides the historical foundation for the study of a contemporary topic in education including the organization and structure of schools the philosophy of education early childhood education curriculum and instruction multicultural and bilingual education and educational policy

Islamic Education in Britain Alison Scott-Baumann,Sariya Cheruvallil-Contractor,2015-08-27 The Western world often fears many aspects of Islam without the knowledge to move forward On the other hand there are sustained and complex debates within Islam about how to live in the modern world with faith Alison Scott Baumann and Sariya Contractor Cheruvallil here propose solutions to both dilemmas with a particular emphasis on the role of women Challenging existing beliefs about Islam in Britain this book offers a paradigm shift based on research conducted over 15 years The educational needs within several groups of British Muslims were explored resulting in the need to offer critical analysis of the provision for the study of classical Islamic Theology in Britain Islamic Education in Britain responds to the dissatisfaction among many young Muslim men and women with the theological secular split and their desire for courses that provide combinations of these two strands of their lived experience as Muslim British citizens Grounded in empirical research the authors reach beyond the meta narratives of secularization and orientalism to demonstrate the importance of the teaching and learning of classical Islamic studies for the promotion of reasoned dialogue interfaith and intercultural understanding in pluralist British society     Readers' Guide to Periodical Literature Anna Lorraine Guthrie,1904 An author subject index to selected general interest periodicals of reference value in libraries     American Monthly Review of Reviews ,1904     Book Review Digest ,1911 Excerpts from and citations to reviews of more than 8 000 books each year drawn from coverage of 109 publications Book Review Digest provides citations to and excerpts of reviews of current juvenile and adult fiction and nonfiction in the English language Reviews of the following types of books are excluded government publications textbooks and technical books in the sciences and law Reviews of books on science for the general reader however are included The reviews originate in a group of selected periodicals in the humanities social sciences and general science published in the United States Canada and Great Britain Publisher     Paradoxes in Education Rosemary Sage,2017-11-10 The world of 2017 is unrecognisable In September a robot YuMi with incredibly expressive nuances will conduct a Tuscan orchestra while Andrea Bocelli sings Woman is Fickle La donna mobile from Verdi s Rigoletto University students have invented a rowbot which is faster than the Cambridge and Oxford boat crews in the annual regatta and they are challenging rivals to compete in a new hi tech event the Rowbot race The Australians have developed Hadrian X which can lay 1000 bricks an hour a task that would take two humans a day or two De Laval International s cow milking robot is being deployed in America to challenge the humans All routine jobs will soon be carried out by robotic machines This situation is depressing students who are striving to find jobs and feeling overwhelmed by the enormity of life Education promotes compliant rather than creative learners employing out dated teaching models which aimed to prepare pupils for routine work in factories and other places Today these mundane tasks are being taken over by artificial intelligence so greater attention to learning needs and personal development is required for higher level work to be ahead of our new robot rivals Students must acquire excellent abilities to communicate collaborate and create for coping with a rapidly changing challenging complex world This book is the output of the first UK Doctorates by Professional Record who have studied present society needs formulating and implementing new ideas into their practice to make learning more holistic relevant and fun Their suggestions encourage us to reflect review and refine our present outdated systems and produce a blue print for a brave new world Stories will make you smile at successes and wince at the failures Sharing experiences supports energises and expands learning The authors hope that students will not leave school hanging on the negatives but will in future be swinging with the positives that a radical new approach to learning brings for them Chapters in this book are contributed by Jonathan Adeniji Max Coates Richard Davies Rob Loe Pauline Lovelock Riccarda Matteucci Elizabeth Negus
