Emilia Pardo Bazan:

Cigar Smoke and Violet Water Joyce Tolliver, 1998 In Cigar Smoke and Violet Water a work informed by feminist and narrative theory as well as by linguistic discourse analysis Joyce Tolliver considers narrative tactics and their cultural context in the nineteenth century Spanish writer Emilia Pardo Bazan 1851-1921 The critical focus is on the narrative voices in short stories by this writer and on the role gender plays both in narrative dynamics and in the writer's engagement with her public

Emilia Pardo Bazán Emilia Pardo Bazán, 2025-11-11 Spanish writer intellectual and feminist Emilia Pardo Bazán 1851-1921 was a master of the short form and practitioner of the style that became known as naturalism This collection of twenty-seven translated stories marked by their brevity reveal the narrative complexity keen psychological insight and careful attention to realistic detail that was characteristic of her work Some fictionalize actual occurrences The Pardon A Galician Mother and The Lady Bandit others are a defense of subjugated women The Guilty Woman and The Faithful Fiancé One highly symbolic story The White Horse qualifies Pardo Bazán as the godmother of the Generation of 98 the group of writers who exhorted Spain to rid itself of inertia apathy and fixation on past glories Still others resemble contemporary suspense thrillers The Cuff Link and The White Hair Influenced by the work of Guy de Maupassant and Émile Zola Pardo Bazán's themes are fear love hatred forgiveness cruelty poverty repentance homesickness and madness that is naked reality Emilia Pardo Bazán Walter Thomas Pattison, 1971 Emilia Pardo Bazan Manuel Gálvez, 1921 Emilia Pardo Bazan Emilia Pardo Bazan, 1993-08 This is a collection of stories by Emilia Pardo Bazan 1851-1921 a Spanish author who often found the subject matter of her stories in the mysteries and vicissitudes of life Some of her tales are fictional accounts of actual occurrences or people The Pardon A Galician Mother and The Lady Bandit others are a defense of women subjugated by a double standard The Guilty Woman and The Faithful Fiancee a number focus on the figure of the rural priest A Descendant of the Cid and Don Carmelo's Salvation for example One highly symbolic story The White Horse qualifies Pardo Bazan as the godmother of the Generation of 98 the group of writers who exhorted Spain to begin anew ridding itself of inertia apathy and fixation on past glories Several of the collected tales are like contemporary suspense thrillers such as The Cuff Link and The White Hair while many others reveal a keen psychological insight The Torn Lace The Substitute Scissors The Nurse and Rescue Pardo Bazan's themes are fear love hatred forgiveness cruelty poverty necrophilia repentance homesickness and madness that is naked reality bitter reality and often an ugly vicious reality One of the indisputable giants of the nineteenth century short story is Guy de Maupassant Pardo Bazan met him along with Daudet and Zola in France and considered him author of The Horla to be the master of short story writers However although Maupassant influenced her most notably in psychological inquiry and careful attention to realistic detail Pardo Bazan put her own stamp on her stories and developed a style sui generis the most striking feature of which is brevity The essence of Pardo Bazan's approach is to engage the reader as quickly as possible certainly in the first paragraph frequently in the first few sentences Some aspect of a character or an episode is brought to light and the story unfolds rapidly There are third person narratives in which the author occasionally injects herself or her point of view Other narratives are presented wholly in the first person some by an omniscient narrator some by the players and from time to time Pardo Bazan has someone else tell the story to her and then as narrator she becomes the audience It is entirely plausible that some of her graphic descriptions were intended to blunt accusations of softness i e femininity that in her era would foolishly but automatically have been associated with a woman writer Still when the time came to represent the plight of women in terms of natural understandable sexual needs and intellectual acceptance Pardo Bazan captured the anguish and inferior status of her Spanish sisters

BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved From the Outside Looking in Susan Walter,2010 Emilia Pardo Bazan Maurice Hemingway,1983 Insolación: Historia amorosa Graham Whittaker,2020-04-23 Emilia Pardo Bazan the most prolific and influential Spanish female writer of the nineteenth century was a very controversial figure vilified for her embracement of naturalism and her robust feminist stance When Insolación was published in 1889 it provoked a litany of negative comments and personal insults This subtle psychological novel drawing on many aspects of its author's personal life deals with the relationship between Asa a respectable Galician widow and Pacheco a feckless womaniser from Andalusia Although they scarcely know each other Asa accepts Pacheco's invitation to visit the San Isidro Fair where a heady cocktail of sun alcohol and revelry causes her to behave in an uncharacteristic manner Insolación explores the conflict between Asa's self recrimination and concern for the quidnunc and her nascent sexuality Finally despite her determination to banish Pacheco from her mind and her intention to go back to Galicia the couple sleep together and decide to marry The perceived promiscuity of this work of fiction scandalised the reading public as well as many leading critics Pereda considered Asa's behaviour reprehensible and Clarín dismissed the novel as a pseudo erotic boutade Nowadays Insolación is recognised as an important novel La cuestión palpitante Emilia Pardo Bazán (condesa de),1989 Estudio critico de caracter historico literario y social sobre la teoria literaria del movimiento naturalista basandose en la critica de las escritoras de la epoca Se analiza el movimiento naturalista en el mundo de la literatura española y la obra de autoras de diferentes paises creadores de este movimiento La obra incluye un trabajo introductorio y bibliografia ademas del texto completo de la cuestion palpitante
