Emotional Experience Of Learning And Teaching:

The Emotional Experience of Learning and Teaching Gianna Henry, Elsie Osborne, Isca Salzberger-Wittenberg, 2003-09-02 Based on work done with teachers at the Tavistock Clinic in London this book will be of help to teachers at every level of the education system from infant to tertiary The Emotional Experience of Learning and Teaching Isca Salzberger-Wittenberg, 1983 The Emotional Experience of Learning and Teaching Elsie Osborne, Isca Salzberger-Wittenberg, Gianna Williams, 2018-06-12 This book aims to heighten the awareness of the emotional factors which enter into the process of learning and teaching It is based on the work done by the authors with a group of teachers who attended the Tavistock Clinic for a course called Aspects of Counselling in education The Emotional Experience of Learning and Teaching Isca Salzberger-Wittenberg, Gianna Henry, Elsie L. Osborne, 1999 The authors who are experienced teachers and analysts examine the ways in which Kleinian and psychoanalytic ideas can be put to work in the classroom The role of phantasy in the student teacher relationship receives detailed attention The Emotional Experience of Learning and Teaching Isca Salzberger-Wittenberg, Gianna Henry, Elsie Letitia Osborne, 1983-01-01 Utilizing Emotional Experience for Best Learning Design Practices Sniderman, Sarah, 2024-10-22 Despite growing recognition of the impact of emotions on adult learning academics and practitioners in our field still often overlook its critical role Traditional approaches focus heavily on cognitive outcomes neglecting the affective components of meaningful and relevant learning and development This leaves learners ill equipped to navigate the emotional challenges inherent in the process hindering their ability to achieve their goals The book Utilizing Emotional Experience for Best Learning Design Practices draws on extensive research and practical experience to explore many different perspectives on this issue It argues that the emotional experience of learners must be considered throughout the design of educational models tools and programs and it provides theoretical and applied insights for integrating emotional learning goals and strategies into instructional design enabling educators to create more supportive and effective learning environments By bridging the gap between theory and practice this book empowers learning professionals to enhance the emotional experiences of adult learners and improve their overall outcomes Through a nuanced exploration of emotional foundations theoretical frameworks and practical strategies it equips educators with the tools to address the affective needs of learners Utilizing Emotional Experience for Best Learning Design Practices is a vital resource for transforming adult education fostering a more holistic and empowering approach to learning and development

Learning Teaching from Experience Viv Ellis, Janet Orchard, 2014-01-16 What do teachers learn on the job And how if at all do they learn from experience Leading researchers from the UK Europe the USA and Canada offer international research based perspectives on a central problem in policy making and professional practice the role that experience plays in learning to teach in schools Experience is often weakly conceptualized in both policy and research sometimes simply used as a proxy for time in weeks and years spent in a school classroom The conceptualization of experience in a range of educational research traditions lies at the heart of this book exemplified in a variety of empirical and theoretical studies Distinctive perspectives to inform these studies include sociocultural psychology the philosophy of education school effectiveness the sociology of education critical pedagogy activism and action research However no one theoretical perspective can claim privileged insight into what and how teachers learn from experience rather this is a matter for a truly educational investigation one that is both close to practice and seeks to develop theory At a time when policy makers in many countries seek to make teacher education an entirely school based activity Learning Teaching from Experience offers an essential examination of the evidence base the traditions of inquiry and the limits of those inquiries The ECPH Encyclopedia of Psychology ,2025-01-11 This encyclopedia volume comprehensively reflects the basic knowledge and the latest research results in the field of psychology In this reference book the knowledge system basic concepts basic theories as well as important figures representative works and institutions of psychology are well organized in encyclopedic entries The whole work includes more than 1 300 entries and about 570 figures making it a full and detailed introduction to the origin and development of psychology Management, Information and Educational Engineering Hsiang-Chuan Liu,Wen-Pei Sung,Wenli Yao,2015-06-11 This book contains selected Computer Management Information and Educational Engineering related papers from the 2014 International Conference on Management Information and Educational Engineering MIEE 2014 which was held in Xiamen China on November 22 23 2014 The conference aimed to provide a platform for researchers engineers and academic Digitalization in Education: Developing Tools for Effective Learning and Personalisation of Education Manpreet Kaur Bagga,Laura Sara Agrati,2024-08-20 Technology driven trends in the modern society have transformed the ways humans think and communicate The latest technological artefacts and devices have a profound impact on the forms of interaction between individuals and also significantly influence the process of co construction of knowledge The COVID pandemic induced experience of remote teaching has significantly contributed to the widespread use of digital technologies in teaching learning processes faculty communications research collaborations conferences and workshops The crisis also led to an understanding of the uncertainty of returning to conventional normal and paved way for a new normal ushered by the COVID pandemic Such transformations create a need for Institutions to prioritize identification of perspective models of digitalization in education Salmon 2013 Teachers teacher educators and policymakers need to collaborate for co constructing the technology assisted classroom that will gradually evolve from teaching supplements to pivotal support for creating a personal learning environment Dabbagh et al 2021 This article collection aims at examining teachers experience in implementation of computer technologies and exploring gaps and challenges in the current academic educational practice with regard to use of digital tools Various elements of digital environment including online courses e resources virtual and augmented reality artificial intelligence and robotics have become an integral component of learning and fostering students skills practical teaching experience and effective professional training It is imperative that aspects of e education are
