Emotions And Learning Reconsidered International Perspectives:

Emotions and Learning Reconsidered Kay Field, Edward Kaufman, Charles Saltzman (B.S.), 1993      Smart But Stuck Myrna Orenstein, 2012-12-06 Smart But Stuck Second Edition is an updated look at how smart people with learning gaps can not only overcome them but become successful in learning and life The new edition of this classic explores the emotional aspects of learning disabilities and imprisoned intelligence showing how and why smart people with learning disabilities are resilient in getting help in order to struggle survive and achieve The book also includes new material on the relationship between learning disabilities and neuroscience and a new foreword by Joseph Palombo Founding Dean of the Institute for Clinical Social Work in Chicago      The Clinical Practice of Educational Therapy Maxine Ficksman, Jane Utlej Adelizzi, 2013-05-13 The Clinical Practice of Educational Therapy is the first book to provide a comprehensive review of the interdisciplinary profession and practice of educational therapy as it exists today It describes the scope and practice of educational therapy from its European roots to its growing presence in the United States and provides case studies to illustrate the work of educational therapists Key Features Interdisciplinary Perspective Other books focus on either educational or therapeutic interventions but rarely discuss the blend and synergy of disciplines that are the hallmark of the profession Illustrative Cases The text draws heavily on case studies as a means of understanding the practice of educational therapy especially the relationship between therapist and client Expertise Chapter authors are either experienced educational therapists or allied professionals who have made scholarly contributions to the profession such as Dorothy Ungerleider Patricia Waters Roslyn Arnold and George McCloskey In addition to educational therapy students and practitioners this book is appropriate for those working in related fields including special education school psychology school counseling and social work in educational settings      When Love Is Not Enough Donna Piazza, PHD, 2014-05-22 When Love Is Not Enough relates how a multitude of factors the competence of staff the safety nurturing and protective elements of the emotional physical and political setting and all overt and covert organizational dynamics determine whether or not a treatment setting accomplishes its therapeutic aims Authors in When Love Is Not Enough continue the emphasis on the group as a whole Group Relation model of organizational and group processes begun with Wilfred Bion's work at the Tavistock Clinic in London in the 1940s This model helps those providing services to children and adolescents evaluate their treatment programs and make the necessary changes toward improvement Chapters in When Love Is Not Enough are dedicated to improving the psychological treatment of children and adolescents in postmodern society a society in which life in interdependent communities is becoming increasingly important for the health and survival of all persons Topics covered include the Tavistock approach to understanding group and organizational behavior the emphasis on group as a whole in problem solving and treatment design narrowing the gap between plan and outcome the dynamics involved in the psychiatric treatment of children issues of staff selection training and development in programs designed to treat children

countertransference responses in the treatment of children and adolescents revitalizing organizations the subjective experience of school life When Love Is Not Enough helps organizations realize the ways in which they may inadvertently undermine the emotional and cognitive functioning of the staff or the identified patients and set serious limits on the growth of members of the organization staff and patients alike It urges organizations to conduct an ongoing self scrutiny concerning their rational and irrational processes as this self examination is crucial to the health and vitality of the treatment offered to others The book also promotes thinking of the conscious and unconscious dynamics of the group as a whole to more completely inform organizational decisions concerning changes that may enhance the treatment of children and adolescents When Love Is Not Enough serves as an invaluable guide for mental health professionals who treat children and adolescents group therapists hospital and clinic administrators psychoanalysts nurses social workers psychologists and psychiatrists

Big Theories Revisited 2 Gregory Arief D. Liem, Dennis M. McInerney, 2018-04-01 Students school motivation and engagement are key contributors to the quality of their academic learning and performance as well as growth in other important areas of life social emotional and physical health Fostering motivation and engagement is thus a meaningful educational purpose both in and of itself and as a pathway to holistic student development However motivation and engagement do not develop in a vacuum and effort seeking to facilitate them cannot be effectively pursued without understanding their underpinning sociocultural influences In the first edition of this volume Big Theories Revisited McInerney Van Etten 2004 authors of major models of school motivation and engagement were challenged to look into their theoretical work through a sociocultural lens The volume has been well received as objectively reflected in the number of citations of its chapters Significant progress has since been made in the theorizing and research of big theories of school motivation and engagement In this volume we invited a group of internationally renowned scholars to re examine their theoretical and conceptual work by highlighting the what factors and how processes of sociocultural influences in association with the key motivation and or engagement constructs of their expertise We made it clear to our contributors that we solicited new chapters rather than chapters with merely rehashed materials As a result this volume Big Theories Revisited 2 Liem McInerney 2018 contains chapters that critically discuss sociocultural influences on school motivation and engagement constructs as viewed from focal theories including self determination theory achievement goal theory personal investment theory expectancy value theory self efficacy theory self and co regulated learning models and many others Whereas some of the chapter topics covered in the initial edition are also part of this edition some are new and provide fresh sociocultural angles on achievement relevant processes and outcomes Likewise whereas some of the authors contributed to the earlier edition of the Volume many of them are different What appears to be the same across the two editions is the scholarly distinction of the authors and the substantive rigor of the chapters in advancing our current understanding of this field of enquiry Readers will learn much from and be inspired by stimulating ideas presented in this volume Global

Perspectives on Education Research, Vol. II Liesel Ebersöhn, Ingrid Gogolin, 2023-05-31 Presenting a wide range of new research from World Education Research Association WERA affiliated scholars pertaining to democracy and education this volume including topics such as school readiness in Mongolia high stakes teacher evaluation policy in Japan and family and community involvement in global educational advocacy This collection arrives at a time of extreme global challenges leaving researchers teachers students families and policymakers without a baseline of how to act react and be proactive to stem the chronic flow of disruption to global education systems These challenges require researchers worldwide to consider how evidence can support individuals and systems to buffer against extreme global health distress and conflict whilst simultaneously supporting the continued functioning of education systems and processes Such processes must allow students teachers leaders administrators and members of the educational communities to retain positive self esteem and maintain supportive relationships and systems that provide the appropriate conditions for such processes Global Perspectives on Education Research pulls together contributions from different contexts and cultures to distil vistas and research results that can enlighten a worldwide community of researchers education professionals and practitioners as well as policymakers and local national or supra national decision makers This text is also the ideal companion for educators and leaders alike as they navigate the uncertainty within global health and social justice Reconsidering Resilience in Education Adeela Ahmed

Shafi, Tristan Middleton, Richard Millican, Sian Templeton, 2020-09-03 This book explores the concept of resilience and its significance in responding to a rapid and ever changing globalised world whilst critiquing its buzzword status in contemporary times Drawing on research from a range of educational settings the book demonstrates that the resilience of individuals and their surrounding systems should not be viewed in isolation and that the interplay between individual resilience community resilience and resilient societies is complex and symbiotic On this basis it illustrates that efforts to promote resilience would benefit from a systems approach capable of coping with this complexity Using the ideas of agency and the power of self determinism a development of Bronfenbrenner s bio ecological model is presented to illustrate the complexity of their interplay Existing models of resilience are developed with the book offering the Dynamic Interactive Model of Resilience DIMoR as a way to analyse and support resilience which moves beyond a reductionist descriptive and fashionable presentation of resilience Global Education in Europe Revisited Helmuth Hartmeyer,Liam

Wegimont,2016 Global Education is an area of policy practice research and educational advocacy It is an umbrella term that encompasses a variety of areas with differing terminologies development education human rights education education for sustainable development education for global citizenship Global Education has become increasingly central to education policy and practice With this book GENE Global Education Network Europe marks 15 years of its work networking policymakers for increased and improved Global Education in Europe The book explores key issues in contemporary Global Education in Europe issues of national strategy of structure development of policy learning and engagement within education systems It outlines challenges in research practice policy and conceptual development through detailed analysis of national and international case studies The book will be of use to policymakers educationalists researchers and practitioners in the fields of education international development human rights and sustainability GENE intends it as a contribution to the ongoing dialogue in this field towards the day when all people in Europe in solidarity with peoples globally might have access to quality Global Education Academic Advising and Tutoring for Student Success in Higher Education:
