Empowering The Child Nurturing The Hungry Mind:

Empowering the Child Raymond H. Hartjen, 1994 The theme of this book is self initiated learning It provides a framework to examine the dynamics of how children learn in this new environment Chapter 1 Underlying Rationale and Overview discusses the rationale underlying a new philosophy of education Chapter 2 Background and Characteristics of a Self Initiated Learning Classroom is a review of dimensions of self initiated learning supported in part through four vignettes depicting the adaptability of children Chapter 3 Our Educational Heritage is a review of how the Horace Mann principles of education are applied Chapter 4 Life Coping Skills School as Community discusses how the socio cultural environment becomes the community where self initiated learning flourishes Chapters 5 to 8 Long Term Attending Skills Self Initiated Learning Thinking Skills and Creativeness vs Destructiveness discuss the new basic skills of focused behavior self initiation thinking and creativeness the four rules of lifelong learning with some insights to support the tenet that these are the key elements of child development Chapter 9 Nurturing the Hungry Mind gives a brief picture of a rule based classroom Chapter 10 Relating Self Initiated Learning to Current Trends in Education relates self initiated learning to current trends Contains 20 references MOK The Moral of the Story Bobby Norfolk, Sherry Norfolk, 2006 Throughout history traditional cultures have recognized the role of storytelling in teaching values to children This user friendly hands on guide to using storytelling and folktales in character education provides not only a rationale for this approach it includes stories These twelve stories are fun time and audience tested and accessible to a wide range of listeners from preschool to high school The tales are enhanced by suggested activities or informal lesson plans source notes and extensive bibliographies that point the reader to additional sources of folktales suitable for character education Book jacket Resources in Education, 1997 Downsizing the U.S.A. Thomas H. Naylor, William H. Willimon, 1997 In this trenchant analysis of American society Thomas H Naylor and William H Willimon take an unabashed stance against the belief that bigger is better and warn that size and technological complexity are not risk free There is a grave price to be paid for our uncritical affirmation of bigness universal solutions to problems dehumanizing uniformity and standardized mass production Naylor and Willimon argue that our government our cities our corporations our schools our churches our military and our social welfare system are all too big too powerful too intrusive too insular and too unresponsive to the needs of individual citizens and small local communities They propose specific strategies for decentralizing and downsizing virtually every major institution in America including America itself The authors audaciously call for the peaceful dissolution of the United States through secession and provide a thoughtful game plan for achieving this controversial objective Integrative Education Dean Walker, 1996 Publishers Weekly, 1995
