Emptiness Of The Image:

The Emptiness of the Image Parveen Adams, 2013-04-15 There has long been a politics around the way in which women are represented with objection not so much to specific images as to a regime of looking which places the represented woman in a particular relationship to the spectator's gaze. Artists have sometimes avoided the representation of women altogether but they are now producing images which challenge the regime. How do these images succeed in their challenge? The Emptiness of the Image offers a psychoanalytic answer. Parveen Adams argues that despite flaws in some of the details of its arguments, psychoanalytic theory retains an overwhelming explanatory strength in relation to questions of sexual difference and representation. She goes on to show how the issue of desire changes the way we can think of images and their effects. Throughout she discusses the work of theorists, artists and filmmakers such as Helene Deutsch, Catherine MacKinnon, Mary Kelly, Francis Bacon, Michael Powell and Della Grace. The Emptiness of the Image shows how the very space of representation can change to provide a new way of thinking the relation between the text and the spectator. It shows how psychoanalytic theory is supple enough to slide into and transform the most unexpected situations.

Feminist Mysticism and Images of God Jennie S Knight, 2011-02-28 Feminist theologians often claim that women's experience is their starting point. However, most feminist theology is remarkably void of analysis of particular women's experiences of imaging God. In this book, Knight provides practical recommendations to help people transform images in the context of religious practices. What difference does it make whether we picture God as an elderly white grandfather, a nurturing African American mother, or a stranger on the bus? Jennie Knight says our image of God affects how we see ourselves, how we worship, how we treat one another, how or whether we work for justice, and a host of other life practices. But after years of knowing intellectually that God transcends a specific human type, Knight still struggles to make an emotional connection with God in different forms. She suspects that that struggle is why many seminarians who wrote papers about thea theology abandon nontraditional God images once they hit parish ministry, perpetuating the practice of seeing God as a European male on a throne and all the accompanying problems that such imagery creates. Knight believes that personal and critical reflection in the context of a supportive learning community, combined with experiences of diverse images for the divine in worship, can lead to profound changes in self-image, relationship with the divine, and agency in the world. This book aims to demonstrate why and how this transformation is both possible and necessary. The popularity of The Shack, The Secret Life of Bees, Joan of Arcadia, and other works with nontraditional God figures reveals a culture ready to embrace God in many forms. Knight examines how the church can do the same.

Heart of Wisdom Kelsang Gyatso, 2000-01-01 Heart of Wisdom is based on an oral commentary to the Essence of Wisdom Sutra the Heart Sutra which was given by the author at Manjushri Mahayana buddhist Centre in England The Heart Sutra one of the best known and most popular of Mahayana Buddhist scriptures contains the essence of Buddha's teachings on emptiness and the methods to develop the wisdom that understands this ultimate reality In this highly acclaimed explanation of the Sutra Geshe Kelsang reveals its explicit and implicit meanings with both clarity and authority and relates them to the five Mahayana paths that lead to full enlightenment Seen in modern light Buddha had been able to perceive even see the vast spatial distances between atoms and between sub atomic particles filled with electrons and even sub eletrons in a state of high vibration This atomic condition corresponds to a similar pattern in the brains of living beings and to interstellar and interplanetary gaps The subject of emptiness as the author explains deals with perceptions leading to concept of formation and creation of a world of sense ideas which is merely a random arranging of material resources in an otherwise empty space filled with vibrations of these very particles This is a rather difficult subject handled facilely by the author
