Gospel Hour:

Out in the South Carlos Lee Barney Dews, Carolyn Leste Law, 2001-01-15 An absorbing collection of writings about gay and lesbian life in the South

Gay Religion Scott Thumma, Edward R. Gray, 2004-12-10 Conflicts over homosexuality and gay rights threaten to break apart denominations if not North American society These heated theological and political debates have as well obscured the fact that many gays and lesbians are religiously active individuals Gay Religion is the first book to give a straightforward presentation of the spiritual lives practices and expressions of gays lesbians bisexuals and transgender Drawing from a wide range of religious traditions new and established scholars explore the range of gay religious expression in denominations sects and even outside recognized religious institutions The essays ask what these religious innovations mean to the continually evolving religious environment of North America With its helpful section introductions and an appendix providing profiles of organizations involved Gay Religion is a unique and compelling resource for anyone interested in homosexuality and American religion

Contemporary American Religion Penny Edgell, Nancy L. Eiesland, 2000-01-01 No single narrative or theory can describe the varieties of religious experience in North America today The tidy dichotomies of liberal conservative public private local global and renewal secularization make little sense once specific congregations are examined closely To understand the shifting boundaries of contemporary religious expressions new tools are needed Contemporary American Religion collects qualitative on the ground studies of local congregations by up and coming religious scholars Ethnography combined with more traditional sociological methods help make sense of complex religious communities from Messianic Jews to evangelical feminists from Gospel Hour at a gay bar to exurban megachurches This collection covers a wide span of the religious landscape always trying to uncover new theoretical insights Essential reading for classes in sociology of religion contemporary American religion and anthropology of religion

by a reporter with unprecedented access to the family The Divine Supermarket Malise Ruthven,2012-04-30 A perfect guide and crazy concept It s a rocking good read and something of a pocket guide to hell Time Out Travelling in a battered camping van Malise Ruthven set out across America in search of the manifestations often bizarre and sometimes terrifying of its religious spirit The journey took him from the dark woods of Puritan New England to neo Nazi cults in the Rockies from Mormons and Snake handlers to fundamentalist groups who challenge the teaching of evolution from Channellers in California to the sexual and financial scandals surrounding millionaire TV preachers The Divine Supermarket is his zesty and brilliantly observed account of the journey offering illuminating and humorous insights into the quirky soul of modern America Hospital for Sinners Tom Wright,2018-11-29 Hospital For Sinners is the culmination of nearly thirty years of planning and preparation The idea was first conceived in the late 1970 s thus we have a storied history of the religious right and its components from 1979 to 2006 During this time period the supposedly light of the world has become darkened by sex scandals misappropriation of funds and sundry other lewd behaviors Our church leadership is in pursuit of money and power while hiding behind a mask of self righteousness and political associations Does God want Christians to clothe themselves in sackcloth and ashes No Nor does He desire one to ride around in a Rolls Royce either Religion in the Public Square James M. Patterson,2019-06-28 Ven Fulton J Sheen Dr Martin Luther King Jr and Rev Jerry Falwell religious leaders who popularized theology through media campaigns designed to persuade the public In Religion in the Public Square James M Patterson considers religious leaders who popularized theology through media campaigns designed to persuade the public Ven Fulton J Sheen Dr Martin Luther King Jr and Rev Jerry Falwell differed profoundly on issues of theology and politics but they shared an approach to public ministry that aimed directly at changing how Americans understood the nature and purpose of their country From the 1930s through the 1950s Sheen was an early adopter of paperbacks radio and television to condemn totalitarian ideologies and to defend American Catholicism against Protestant accusations of divided loyalty During the 1950s and 1960s King staged demonstrations and boycotts that drew the mass media to him The attention provided him the platform to preach Christian love as a political foundation in direct opposition to white supremacy Falwell started his own church which he developed into a mass media empire He then leveraged it during the late 1970s through the 1980s to influence the Republican Party by exhorting his audience to not only ally with religious conservatives around issues of abortion and the traditional family but also to vote accordingly Sheen King and Falwell were so successful in popularizing their theological ideas that they won prestigious awards had access to presidents and witnessed the results of their labors However Patterson argues that Falwell s efforts broke with the longstanding refusal of religious public figures to participate directly in partisan affairs and thereby catalyzed the process of politicizing religion that undermined the Judeo Christian consensus that formed the foundation of American politics Decisions of the United States Courts Involving Copyright, 1983 ,1988 End Time Politics Keri L. Many books have been written about war but it may be unusual to have a record of what a variety of soldiers had to say when they came off the front lines The author did not interview anyone what they said was spontaneous of their own will because they sensed he was willing to listen After the author had finished his journal and had been discharged from the army he was working for the army as a department of the army civilian or DAC as a clerk typist He lived with the officers and ate in their mess hall in Yokohama One evening he went to the mess hall to eat dinner The war was still in full swing He sat by himself at a small table covered by white linen A weather beaten major walked in and sat at his table A Japanese waitress came to their table and asked the major if he wanted A or B dinner The major replied aEURoeBring the food aEUR The waitress repeated her question and the major repeated his answer The author told the waitress to bring the B dinner the same as his Then he turned to the major and said aEURoeSir you are easily satisfied Some people complain about the food even though they have a choice aEUR With a faraway look in his eyes he said aEURoeThey ought to take them out and shoot them aEUR They ate their meal in silence
