

The book cover features a classical painting of two women in 18th-century attire. The woman on the left is shown in profile, looking towards the right, with her hair styled in an elaborate updo. The woman on the right is facing forward, looking slightly to the left, with her hair also styled in a similar fashion. Both women are wearing light-colored, possibly white, dresses with puffed sleeves and low necklines. The background of the painting is dark and indistinct. The title 'EMMA' is written in large, ornate, gold-colored capital letters at the top. Below it, 'in love' is written in a smaller, elegant, cursive script. The author's name 'T. E. TENNANT' is at the bottom in large, white, serif capital letters. The subtitle 'JANE AUSTEN'S EMMA CONTINUED' is centered between the title and the author's name in a smaller, white, serif font.

Iris Murdoch and the Literary Imagination Miles Leeson, Frances White, 2023-07-25 This volume is the third volume in Palgrave Macmillan s new Iris Murdoch Today scholarly series Iris Murdoch and the Literary Imagination is the first major collection of literary essays since her centenary in 2019 It brings together leading Murdoch scholars from across the world who expand the boundaries of recent criticism offering work not only on the novels but on her unpublished poetry and archival materials This collection discusses her interest in and use of Japanese literature her relationship with and reader response to her in Australia Murdoch in the post metoo era her lifelong interest in the supernatural same sex relationships and friendships as well as the use and abuse of biographical material The collection widens the field of Murdoch studies and marks a new waypoint in the development of her critical reception Romanticism, History, and the Possibilities of Genre Tilottama Rajan, Julia M. Wright, 1998-02-13 Romanticism has often been associated with the mode of lyric or otherwise confined within mainstream genres As a result we have neglected the sheer diversity and generic hybridity of a literature that ranged from the Gothic novel to the national tale from monthly periodicals to fictionalized autobiography In this volume leading scholars of the period explore the ways in which the Romantics developed genre from a taxonomical given into a cultural category so as to make it the scene of an ongoing struggle between fixed norms and new initiatives Focusing on non canonical writers such as Thelwall Godwin and the novelists of the 1790s or placing authors such as Wordsworth and Byron in a non canonical context these essays explore the psychic and social politics of genre from a variety of theoretical perspectives while the introduction looks at how genre itself was rethought by Romantic criticism

Minervas Gothics

Elizabeth Neiman, 2019-02-15 This project has several distinctive features The first is statistical analysis of publishing records for all British novels Minerva and otherwise published between 1780 and 1829 data are compiled from James Ravens and Peter Garsides The English Novel 1770 1829 a Bibliographical Survey of Prose Fiction Published in the British Isles This analysis confirms that Minerva novelists are more prolific than most female novelists in the period It is rarely noted that Minerva novelists also often publish on occasion with other presses something to which the data calls attention The books scope and content challenges an anachronism that still permeates studies of the Romantic era Minervas Gothics restores a forgotten pathway between first generation Romantic reactions to popular print culture and Percy Shelleys influential conceptualization of the poet

Women Writing Intimacy and Resistance

Valérie Baisnée-Keay, Corinne Bigot, Nicoleta Alexoae-Zagni, Nathalie Saudo-Welby, Stephanie Genty, 2025-05-27 This collection explores how women writers in the English speaking world transform personal intimacy into political engagement challenging cultural oppression across genres life writing novels poetry and theatre from the 19th century to today Guided by the feminist slogan the personal is political it bridges feminist decolonial ethnic and queer studies revealing how gender based domination intersects with other forms of oppression The authors highlight how these writers across various forms of expression imagine new modes of resistance and carve out space for social change

Epistolary Narratives of Love, Gender and Agonistic Politics

Maria Tamboukou, 2023-09-30 This book revolves around epistolary narratives of women political theorists and activists following traces of Hannah Arendts philosophical approaches to love and agonistic politics Arendts interlocutors are four revolutionary women in the long durée of the nineteenth and twentieth centuries in Europe and the USA the romantic socialist Désirée Viret Gay the Marxist Rosa Luxemburg the anarchist Emma Goldman and the labour activist Rose Pesotta The books central argument is that Arendts philosophical thought can throw light on dangerous liaisons between love gender and agonistic politics further making connections with feminist ruminations around love as an existential force in the ephemeral constitution of the female self in modernity Drawing on extended research with physical digital and published archival collections the book responds to the challenges of the digital turn and highlights the importance of memory work as a way of understanding the lasting effects of the past on the present As such Epistolary Narratives of Love Gender and Agonistic

Politics will appeal to scholars of sociology and gender studies with interests in research methods particularly archival methods the work of Arendt feminist thought and memory studies
