Basic Concepts in Family Therapy Linda Berg

Cross, 2014-02-25 Gain confidence and creativity in your family therapy interventions with new up to date research

Basic Concepts in Family Therapy An Introductory Text Second Edition presents twenty two basic psychological concepts that therapists may use to understand clients and provide successful services to them Each chapter focuses on a single concept using material from family therapy literature basic psychological and clinical research studies and cross cultural research studies Basic Concepts in Family Therapy is particularly useful to therapists working in a family context with child or adolescent referred problems and for students and clinicians treating the problems they see every day in their community The book builds on the strengths of the first edition incorporating ideas and articles that have become worthy of investigating since 1990 into the original text This new edition also introduces five new chapters on resiliency and poverty adoption chronic illness spirituality and religion and parenting strategies The new chapters make the book far more relevant for students and clinicians trying to use family theory and technique in response to the problems they see in their communities Basic Concepts in Family Therapy will assist you in offering clients better services by providing a deeper understanding of the contemporary family in its various forms the psychological bonds that shape all families and the developmental stages of the family life cycle This exploration of how family demography stages and life cycles affect family functions is a solid foundation from which all of the therapeutic concepts in this book can be explored Some of the facets of family therapy you will explore in Basic Concepts in Family Therapy are the importance of spirituality and religion in family therapy generational boundaries closeness and role behaviors managing a family's emotions defining problems and generating and evaluating possible solutions teaching children specific attitudes values social skills and norms transracial adoptions and normative processes and developmental issues of adoptive parents strategies for reducing conflict and much more Basic Concepts in Family Therapy will help to broaden your understanding of the ways families function in general You can use the effective concepts explored in this text to make a thorough assessment of the impact of a disorder on a child and on the rest of his or her family as well as how family dynamics might have shaped or exacerbated the problems The concepts described in this text can be customized to clients cultural values to avoid unnecessary resistance As a new therapist you will gain confidence in your assessments and if you are already a seasoned professional you will gain creativity in your interventions

Gender, Emotion, and the Family Leslie Brody, 2009-07-01 Do women express their feelings more than men Popular stereotypes say they do but in this provocative book Leslie Brody breaks with conventional wisdom Integrating a wealth of perspectives and research biological sociocultural developmental her work explores the nature and extent of gender differences in emotional expression as well as the endlessly complex question of how such differences come about Nurture far more than nature emerges here as the stronger force in fashioning gender differences in emotional expression Brody shows that whether and how men and women express their feelings varies widely from situation to situation and from culture to culture and depends on a number of particular characteristics including age ethnicity cultural background power and status Especially pertinent is the organization of the family in which boys and girls elicit and absorb different emotional strategies Brody also examines the importance of gender roles whether in the family the peer group or the culture at large as men and women use various patterns of emotional expression to adapt to power and status imbalances Lucid and level headed Gender Emotion and the Family offers an unusually rich and nuanced picture of the great range of male and female emotional styles and the variety of the human character

Eating Disorders and Marital Relationships Jan Norre, Stephan Van den Broucke, Walter Vandereycken, 2006-04-19 Anorexia and bulimia are on the increase in the Western world and the disease is now recognised to no longer be only a problem for teenage girls but older women as well Most older women either do now or did previously live with a partner and much attention has been paid to these relationships in devising therapeutic regimes Eating Disorders and Marital Relationships takes a critical look at the evidence behind the assumption of psychiatric illness in the patients and their partners and comes up with some surprising results Van den Broucke Vandereycken and Norre carefully describe both the theoretical and practical implications of their work making this book important reading for both practitioner and researcher

Women, Gender, and Social Psychology Virginia E. O'Leary, Rhoda K. Unger, Barbara S. Wallston, 2014-01-09 First published in 1985 This volume contains ten short pieces focusing on methodological issues definitional problems and new questions both empirical and theoretical that had been inspired by the social psychological study of women in the last decade The material submitted was rich and varied and offered an exciting new look at the current and potential contribution of the study of sex and gender to social psychology

Depression in Marriage Steven R. H. Beach, Evelyn Sandeen, K. Daniel O'Leary, 1990-04-20 All practicing marital therapists and clinicians working with a depressed population see patients in whom depression and a dysfunctional relationship exist concurrently Due to the unique problems they present and the therapy process issues involved in seeing treatment through to successful completion these cases are usually considered difficult The first book to bring the relevant research literature to bear on this thorny clinical problem DEPRESSION IN MARRIAGE views the marital relationship as a powerful point of therapeutic intervention for depression and offers step by step guidance to clinically flexible treatment By utilizing a marital discord model of depression therapists can tap the power of the marital relationship to promote growth and healing rather than work against the powerful forces of the marital dyad Offering precise guidelines for assessment intervention and management DEPRESSION IN MARRIAGE provides useful clinical measurement tools and uses case vignettes to illustrate practical issues Interventions are described in detail with references to the relevant research literature Whether marital therapy is the primary treatment modality or an adjunct to individual or somatic interventions DEPRESSION IN MARRIAGE will help identify useful practical intervention strategies Providing a new understanding of the interpersonal aspects of depression as well as ways in which this understanding can be put to work in therapy DEPRESSION IN MARRIAGE will be of interest to a wide range of professionals working with depressed individuals or distressed couples It can also be used as a text for graduate level courses in psychology marriage and family therapy and social work Social Identity Stephen Worchel,1998-03-28 Social identity and social categorization theories have offered some of the most exciting developments in social psychology informing work on everything from intergroup relations to personal identity This comprehensive book surveys the latest empirical and theoretical findings alongside original contributions to provide an invaluable overview of this important field The internationally renowned contributors explore a broad range of psychosocial phenomena including intergroup discrimination influence group polarization collective behaviour impact of minorities prejudice stereotypes and leadership Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1983 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70 The Lanahan Readings in the Psychology of Women Tomi-Ann Roberts,1997 National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1983 The Handbook of Family Psychology and Therapy Luciano L'Abate,1985 Getting It Right the First Time Barry McCarthy,Emily J. McCarthy,2005-10-05 Barry and Emily McCarthy draw on 35 years of marriage extensive clinical experience and illustrative examples to provide younger generations with an informative warmly written guide to the vital first years of partnership Influences of the Parental Marriage, Triangulation, and Conflict Resolution on the Level of Intimacy in Young Adult Men and Women Stacy Jacobson,1989 Fundamentals Of Marital Therapy D. Russell Crane,2013-04-15 Published in 1996 Fundamentals of Marital Therapy is a valuable contribution to the field of Family Therapy Relationships Robert A. Hinde,2015-01-28 This volume on close relationships in adulthood discusses the central issues in the field and points the way towards the construction of an integrated body of knowledge about human relationships The self interactions relationships and groups are treated as dynamic processes in dialectical relations with each other and with the socio cultural structure of norms values beliefs and institutions Early chapters introduce aspects of the self relevant to the dynamics of interactions and relationships Intrapsychic Processes Of Cognition And Emotion Are Emphasized These Are followed by chapters discussing the principle characteristics of relationships Seven further chapters focus on the processes involved in the dynamics of relationships and later chapters synthesize previous ones in discussions of love and friendship and the nature of relationship change The focus throughout the text is on current work and current controversy placed against a background of knowledge that has been built up in recent decades Intimate Relationships Wind Goodfriend,2020-07-30 Recipient of a 2021 Most Promising New Textbook Award from the Textbook Academic Authors Association TAA Intimate Relationships provides students with a comprehensive understanding of the science behind relationships using a modern approach Award winning teacher and author Wind Goodfriend integrates coverage of family and friendship relationships in context with research methods open science theories and romantic relationships so that readers can learn about all types of relationships and their interactions including conflict and the dark side of relationships The text supports today's students by frequently applying relationship theories to examples that can be found in popular culture helping students see how psychology can apply to the world that surrounds them Included with this title The password protected Instructor Resource Site formally known as SAGE Edge offers access to all text specific resources including a test bank and editable chapter specific PowerPoint slides Motivation and Culture Donald Munro, John F. Schumaker, Stuart C. Carr, 2014-06-11 Although a growing number of researchers emphasize the social and psychocultural aspects of motivation and motivation theory few books have provided much coverage beyond well tread studies of physiological and biological factors and theories Motivation and Culture brings together eighteen writers with a variety of academic backgrounds and cultural experiences to explore the way that culture impinges on motivation Exploring topics such as personal values and motives intercultural exchange in the workplace the intrapsychic process and the nexus between biology and culture they formulate theories of motivation that can be applied in the modern multicultural world Contributors include Dona Lee Davis Russell Geen Joan Miller John Paul Scott William Wendenoja Elisa J Sobo and Stephen Wilson Opting Out Joanna Davidson, Dinah Hannaford, 2022-11-11 Women around the world are opting out of marriage Through nuanced ethnographic accounts of the ways that women are moving the needle on marital norms and practices Opting Out reveals the conditions that make this widespread phenomenon possible in places where marriage has long been obligatory Each chapter invites readers into the lives of particular women and the changing circumstances in which these lives unfold sometimes painfully sometimes humorously and always unexpectedly Taken together the essays in this volume prompt the following questions Why is marriage so consistently disappointing for women When the rewards of economic stability and the social status that marriage confers are troubled does marriage offer women anything compelling at all Across diverse geographic contexts in Africa Asia and Latin America this book offers sensitive and powerful portrayals of women as they escape or reshape marriage into a more rewarding arrangement The Gender Knot Johnson, 2007-09

Positive Psychology of Love Mahzad Hojjat, Duncan Cramer, 2013-05-02 Many topics within the study of close relationships are relevant to positive psychology such as love friendship social support and forgiveness However very little has been done to specifically connect and thus expand these two interrelated and rapidly growing fields Positive Psychology of Love fills this void by bringing together the latest research and theory in the field of close relationships from a positive psychology point of view suggesting how we can have more fulfilling close and intimate relationships and how these relationships may enhance our lives Each of the chapters focuses on a different aspect of close and intimate relationships as related to positive psychology such as romantic love friendship positive emotions sexuality attachment communication forgiveness conflict resolution self esteem relational maintenance mental health physical health and culture International contributors from a variety of disciplines explore how these areas of close relationships relate to positive psychology and how close relationships function as an important aspect of our personal health growth happiness and well being This unique and fascinating approach will be of interest to researchers educators and students in a number of fields including psychology sociology counseling social work communication family studies marriage and family therapy and nursing
