EMPIRE OF CONSPIRACY

NY 100-129302

Careful consideration has been given to the selection of the person we would attempt to develop as a source. There are 17 Security Index subjects employed by the "New York Times", in low level positions, mostly as proofreaders. In addition, [REDACTED], is listed on a caution card in the NYO. He wrote a critical review of one of the Director's books.

The NYO does not recommend contacting [REDACTED] who is writing the article to appear 10/21/51, as he may be identical with [REDACTED].

New York has no recent information on either of these subjects but the latter was [REDACTED] and the former was a [REDACTED] socialist, so either may be identical with the [REDACTED] now employed by the Times.

The NYO believes the most logical person to approach for development [REDACTED] would be [REDACTED].

THE CULTURE OF PARANOIA IN POSTWAR AMERICA

He was found to be friendly and cooperative. In addition, he would be in a position to use information supplied by us without the approval or knowledge of anyone else.

There are many identical references to [REDACTED] in the NYO indices that apparently came about as a result of his employment. These references are as follows:
