

- Unemployment

- Region has the highest average youth unemployment in the world since the early 1990s
- In 2014, it stood at 29.3%, more than twice the world average of 13.99%
- Traditional employment provider, the public sector can no longer absorb this growing number of new labor market entrants
- Means more young people face insecure, low paid work in the informal sector
- As a result they experience and extended transition to economic independence and struggle to establish families and homes
