Brennan, Marcelo Rougier, 2015-08-26 In mid twentieth century Latin America there was a strong consensus between Left and Right Communists working under the directives of the Third International nationalists within the military interested in fostering industrialization and populists about the need to break away from the colonial legacies of the past and to escape from the constraints of the international capitalist system. Even though they disagreed about the desired end state, Argentines of all political stripes could agree on the need for economic independence and national sovereignty which would be brought about through the efforts of a national bourgeoisie. James Brennan and Marcelo Rougier aim to provide a political history of this national bourgeoisie in this book. Deploying an eclectic methodology combining aspects of the new institutionalism, the new economic history, Marxist political economy and deep research in numerous rarely consulted archives into what they dub the new business history, the authors offer the first thorough empirically based history of the national bourgeoisie's peak association, the Confederación General Económica (CGE) and of the Argentine bourgeoisie's relationship with the state. They also investigate the relationship of the bourgeoisie to Perón and the Peronist movement by studying the history of one industrial sector, the metalworking industry, and two regional economies, one primarily industrial (Córdoba) and another mostly agrarian (Chaco), with some attention to a third (Tucumán), a cane cultivating and sugar refining region sharing some features of both. While spanning three decades, the book concentrates most on the years of Peronist government (1946-55 and 1973-76).

The European Yearbook of Business History Wilfried Feldenkirchen, Terry Gourvish, 2019-04-26 First published in 1999, this volume aims to reflect on the changing structure, experience and aspirations of European business as it approaches the Millennium, including chapters on issues including business scandals in the Weimar Republic, the evolution of management consultancies in Portugal and Spain and the British Public Sector. The yearbook exploits these changes by serving as a forum for debate in Europe and aims to bring work on individual countries to a wider European audience. Responding to the challenge of globalization, cooperation within a single European market and an increasing interest in corporate governance.

and environmental issues the yearbook broadens to include socio political issues along with stimulating new types of scholarship among European business historians and new preservation strategies by business archivists Los estudios de empresarios y empresas Jorge Basave,Marcela A. Ciafone, 2019-05-28 Counter Cola charts the history of one of the world's most influential and widely known corporations. The Coca Cola Company. Over the past 130 years the corporation has sought to make its products brands and business central to daily life in over 200 countries. Amanda Ciafone uses this example of global capitalism to reveal the pursuit of corporate power within the key economic transformations liberal developmentalist neoliberal of the twentieth and twenty first centuries. Coca Cola's success has not gone uncontested. People throughout the world have redeployed the corporation its commodities and brand images to challenge the injustices of daily life under capitalism. As Ciafone shows assertions of national economic interests critiques of cultural homogenization fights for workers rights movements for environmental justice and debates over public health have obliged the corporation to justify itself in terms of the common good demonstrating capitalism's imperative to either assimilate critiques or reveal its limits.
