Haverhill Public Library, 1896 The Last Expedition Daniel Liebowitz, Charles Pearson, 2005 Henry Morton Stanley undertook the greatest African expedition of the 19th century to rescue Emin Pasha last lieutenant of the martyred General Gordon and governor of the southern Sudan Instead of ten months the trip took three years and cost the lives of thousands of people as Stanley s column hacked its way across the last great unexplored territory in Africa Stanley s secret agenda was territorial expansion on the model of Leopold s Congo or the British East India Company Alur Society Aidan Southall, 2004 Alur Society became a classic for a number of reasons Being much more than a descriptive account of an African society it was the first intensive ethnography to adopt the ideas of Max Weber It pioneered the idea that religion and ritual could be the basis of political action It also showed how state systems could evolve not just on the basis of conquest but as a result of societies without kings inviting those with kings to govern them Author Aidan Southall s theory of the segmentary state was adopted by political anthropologists throughout the subject and also by political scientists being applied not just to Africa but also to India and other parts of the world The book was able to arrive at such long lasting and imaginative conclusions through the use of ethnographic material of a quality rarely surpassed It is moreover arguably the best book in social anthropology of a Nilotic speaking people Southall s own command of their language and his overall scholarly knowledge of Nilotes is also unsurpassed
