This book focuses on the emotional experience of imprisonment In no uncertain terms prisons seethe with emotions and feelings Based on two empirically rigorous studies this book analyses how prisoners attempt to adapt and control their emotions It begins with an account of male and female prisoners held in medium security prisons and then moves to the particular case of emotions in solitary confinement There has been a turn towards emotions in criminology but this is the first book to centralize the subject of prisoner emotions in a detailed manner The ethnographic study of feelings has much to contribute to broader debates about survival in prison and pathways to desistance Most importantly it emphasizes that full blooded depictions of prisoners belong at the heart of academic inquiry Emotions, Crime and Justice Susanne Karstedt,Ian Loader,Heather Strang,2011-04-01
