

A young couple is shown in a close-up, intimate moment outdoors. The woman on the left has long, wavy brown hair and is smiling broadly, showing her teeth. She is wearing a light blue denim jacket. The man on the right has long, wavy blonde hair and a beard. He is laughing with his eyes closed, and his hand is near his face, with his index finger pointing towards his nose. He is wearing a dark jacket with a brown fur collar. The background is a soft, out-of-focus natural setting.

Emotion In Aesthetics:

Emotion in Aesthetics Warren A. Shibbes, 1995-09-30 Emotion in Aesthetics is the first book on aesthetics to provide an extensive theory of emotion application of the cognitive emotive theory to aesthetics analysis of the relationship between aesthetics metaphor and emotion a full theory of meaning and its application to aesthetics discussion of the relationship between aesthetics music and language in terms of phonetics phonology and intonation an analysis of humanistic aesthetics a well developed naturalistic theory of ethics as applied to aesthetics and emotion Stress is placed on the views of contemporary philosophers as well as some of the main historical accounts of emotion in aesthetics The important recent work on emotion has not hitherto been applied to aesthetics As a result there is still much confusion in aesthetics about aesthetic emotion and related concepts such as the expression theory of emotion The present book has been written to show how the theory can be used to clarify the issue resulting in a major breakthrough in aesthetics In addition the theory presented is valuable in relating aesthetics to ethics and humanism

The Aesthetics of Emotion Gerald C. Cupchik, 2016-07-28 Gerald C Cupchik builds a bridge between science and the humanities arguing that interactions between mind and body in everyday life are analogous to relations between subject matter and style in art According to emotional phase theory emotional reactions emerge in a perfect storm whereby meaningful situations evoke bodily memories that unconsciously shape and unify the experience Similarly in expressionist or impressionist painting an evocative visual style can spontaneously colour the experience and interpretation of subject matter Three basic situational themes encompass complementary pairs of primary emotions attachment happiness sadness assertion fear anger and absorption interest disgust Action episodes in which a person adapts to challenges or seeks to realize goals benefit from energizing bodily responses which focus attention on the situation while providing feedback in the form of pleasure or pain regarding success or failure In high representational paintings style is transparent making it easier to fluently identify subject matter Exploring Emotions, Aesthetics and Wellbeing in Science Education Research Alberto Bellocchi, Cassie Quigley, Kathrin

Otrell-Cass, 2016-10-19 This book addresses new research directions focusing on the emotional and aesthetic nature of teaching and learning science informing more general insights about wellbeing It considers methodological traditions including those informed by philosophy sociology psychology and education and how they contribute to our understanding of science education In this collection the authors provide accounts of the underlying ontological epistemological methodological perspectives and theoretical assumptions that inform their work and that of others Each chapter provides a perspective on the study of emotion aesthetics or wellbeing using empirical examples or a discussion of existing literature to unpack the theoretical and philosophical traditions inherent in those works This volume offers a diverse range of approaches for anyone interested in researching emotions aesthetics or wellbeing It is ideal for research students who are confronted with a cosmos of research perspectives but also for established researchers in various disciplines with an interest in researching emotions affect aesthetics or wellbeing      Emotion and the Arts Mette Hjort, Sue Laver, 1997 Literature gave p 283 298 Under four headings the relationship between the arts and emotions is discussed by mainly philosophers The headings are the paradox of fiction emotion and its expression through art the rationality of emotional responses to art and the value of emotion art forms discussed are literature music theatre visual arts      Art's Emotions Damien

Freeman, 2011-01-01 How is that artistic works have the power to move the human heart Why does Manet's Woman with a Parrot evoke reverie and an Edward Elgar cello concerto nostalgia What is the value of such experiences Art's Emotions is a reflective thought provoking exploration of the significance that experiencing emotion through art has upon our lives Damien Freeman reviews and evaluates three traditional approaches to understanding artistic expression and moves on to develop a new theory of emotion that resolves key questions in aesthetics In a novel philosophical project Freeman also establishes the ethical importance of art in nurturing humans and helping them flourish Art's Emotions challenges readers to consider not only how art engages with emotion but also the ways in which art can answer fundamental questions about the value and nature of experience      The Rôle of Feeling and Emotion in Aesthetics Herbert Sidney Langfeld, 1928      Art and Emotion

Derek Matravers, 2001-01-25 The author's aim in this study is to show that what experiences of art and emotion have in common and what links them to the expression of emotion in non artistic cases is the role played by feeling      Modeling

Sense and Sadness Tala Jarjour PhD, 2018-04-16 Sense and Sadness is an innovative study of music modality in relation to human emotion and the aesthetics of perception It is also a musical story of survival through difficulty and pain Focusing on chant at St George's Syrian Orthodox Church of Aleppo author Tala Jarjour puts forward the concept of the emotional economy of aesthetics which enables a new understanding of modal musicality in general and of Syriac musicality in particular Jarjour combines insights from musicology and ethnomusicology sound and religious studies anthropology history East Christian and Middle Eastern studies and the study of emotion to seamlessly weave together multiple strands of a narrative which then becomes the very story it tells Drawing on imagination and metaphor she brings to the fore overlapping at times contradictory modes of sense and sense making At once intimate and analytical this ethnographic text entwines academic thinking with its subject s and subjectivities portraying events writing people and music as they unfold together through ritual commemorations and a devastating ongoing war      The Expression of Emotion in the Visual Arts: A Philosophical Inquiry Benjamin R.

Tilghman,2012-12-06 The philosophy of art aesthetics is here understood to be something distinct from both art appreciation and art criticism The philosophy of art is never theless dependent upon the existence of appreciation and criticism because it is out of reflection upon these that the uniquely philosophical problems of art arise problems that reflect puzzlement about what is involved in under standing enjoying describing and evaluating works of art Hence the philo sophy of art must presuppose at least some measure of understanding and appreciation of particular works of art and if such understanding and appre ciation are lacking the philosopher is in no position to supply them It can not be a philosophical task to undertake a Defense of Poesie against either the philistine or the tyrant The philosopher is not the one to convince us that art is a Good Thing that paintings are worth looking at poems worth reading and music worth listening to if for no other reason than that philo sophical theory and argument are no substitute for taste and sensibility My position here is the now unexceptional one that philosophical problems are essentially conceptual problems and while the philosopher of art cannot produce aesthetic sensibility and appreciation where these do not exist he can give us understanding of the concepts relevant to artistic appreciation and thereby help us to see our way through the conceptual confusions that have generated the philosophical puzzles surrounding art its appreciation and criticism      Fiction and Emotion Bijoy H. Boruah,1988 Why do people respond emotionally to fiction when they know that it is only make believe This question which is fundamental to aesthetics and literary studies is here tackled from a new perspective The author first discusses the various answers that have been offered by philosophers form Aristotle to Roger Scruton He shows that while some philosophers have denied any rational basis to our emotional responses to fiction others have argued that the emotions evoked by fiction are not real emotions at all In contrast Dr Boruah argues that fictional emotions are rational and that they are based on the same sorts of beliefs that we form about real situations and real people He illustrates his discussion throughout by an extensive use of literary examples ranging from Shakespeare to Tolstoy      Suffering Art Gladly Jerrold Levinson,2013-11-14 A collection of newly composed essays some with a historical focus and some with a contemporary focus which addresses the problem of explaining the appeal of artworks whose appreciation entails negative or difficult emotions on the appreciator s part what has traditionally been known as the paradox of tragedy      Sense and Sadness Tala Jarjour,2018 Sense and Sadness is a study of music modality in relation to human emotion and the aesthetics of perception It is also a musical story of survival through difficulty and pain Focusing on chant at St George s Syrian Orthodox Church of Aleppo author Tala Jarjour puts forward the concept of the emotional economy of aesthetics which enables a new understanding of modal musicality in general and of Syriac musicality in particular Jarjour combines insights from musicology and ethnomusicology sound and religious studies anthropology history East Christian and Middle Eastern studies and the study of emotion to seamlessly weave together multiple strands of a narrative which then becomes the very story it tells At once intimate and analytical this ethnographic text entwines academic thinking with its subject s and subjectivities Drawing on imagination and metaphor Jarjour brings to the fore overlapping at times contradictory modes of sense and sense making And reconciling multiple worlds as well as modes of thinking and belief Sense and Sadness portrays events writing people and music as they unfold together through ritual commemorations and a devastating ongoing war

Reading with Feeling Susan L. Feagin, 2018-10-18 Feelings and other affective responses to a work of fiction are an important part appreciation and the capacity to inspire such responses is part of what is valuable about literary works of art Susan L Feagin s philosophical exploration of appreciation focusing specifically on its emotional or affective components asks us to consider aesthetic appreciation as getting the value out of the work Appreciation involves exercising abilities Feagin develops a psychological model for understanding how one becomes emotionally engaged with something one knows is fictional She stresses the importance of the role of imagination in producing affective responses Imagination is harnessed by the writer s choice of phrase or depiction of detail Feagin cites the work of Angela Carter Molly Keane Heinrich B ll Gabriel Garcia Marquez and draws an extended example from Henry James She notes that not all responses to a work are relevant or appropriate and discusses a variety of ways responses may be assessed Even though assessing responses can stifle imagination and hence threaten spontaneity and the responses themselves the value of having affective responses to fiction depends upon our being able to make such assessments Whatever else we may gain appreciating a work getting the value out of it is one means of extending the capacities of our own imaginations

The Top Books of the Year Emotion In Aesthetics The year 2023 has witnessed a noteworthy surge in literary brilliance, with numerous compelling novels captivating the hearts of readers worldwide. Lets delve into the realm of bestselling books, exploring the captivating narratives that have charmed audiences this year. The Must-Read : Colleen Hoover's "It Ends with Us" This touching tale of love, loss, and resilience has captivated readers with its raw and emotional exploration of domestic abuse. Hoover skillfully weaves a story of hope and healing, reminding us that even in the darkest of times, the human spirit can triumph. Uncover the Best : Taylor Jenkins Reid's "The Seven Husbands of Evelyn Hugo" This intriguing historical fiction novel unravels the life of Evelyn Hugo, a Hollywood icon who defies expectations and societal norms to pursue her dreams. Reid's compelling storytelling and compelling characters transport readers to a bygone era, immersing them in a world of glamour, ambition, and self-discovery. Emotion In Aesthetics : Delia Owens' "Where the Crawdads Sing" This mesmerizing coming-of-age story follows Kya Clark, a young woman who grows up alone in the marshes of North Carolina. Owens weaves a tale of resilience, survival, and the transformative power of nature, captivating readers with its evocative prose and mesmerizing setting. These bestselling novels represent just a fraction of the literary treasures that have emerged in 2023. Whether you seek tales of romance, adventure, or personal growth, the world of literature offers an abundance of captivating stories waiting to be discovered. The novel begins with Richard Papen, a bright but troubled young man, arriving at Hampden College. Richard is immediately drawn to the group of students who call themselves the Classics Club. The club is led by Henry Winter, a brilliant and charismatic young man. Henry is obsessed with Greek mythology and philosophy, and he quickly draws Richard into his world. The other members of the Classics Club are equally as fascinating. Bunny Corcoran is a wealthy and spoiled young man who is always looking for a good time. Charles Tavis is a quiet and reserved young man who is deeply in love with Henry. Camilla Macaulay is a beautiful and intelligent young woman who is drawn to the power and danger of the Classics Club. The students are all deeply in love with Morrow, and they are willing to do anything to please him. Morrow is a complex and mysterious figure, and he seems to be manipulating the students for his own purposes. As the students become more involved with Morrow, they begin to commit increasingly dangerous acts. The Secret History is a exceptional and gripping novel that will keep you wondering until the very end. The novel is a warning tale about the dangers of obsession and the power of evil.
