Emotion Pictures Reflections On The Cinema:

Emotion Pictures Wim Wenders, 1989-01-01 Essays discuss movies and movie directors including Truffaut Hitchcock Ford Lang Altman and Leone Emotion Pictures Wim Wenders, 1991 The Cinema of Wim Wenders Roger F. Cook, Gerd Gemünden, 1997 The Cinema of Wim Wenders the first anthology of scholarly work on Wenders is a unique anthropology of source materials and selected critical essays on the films of Wim Wenders a major filmmaker in the so called New German Cinema movement His work probably more than that of any other European director reflects the tension between the European auteur tradition and the increasing dominance of the American media industry In both his filmmaking and his critical writing he explores how the relationship between image and narrative manifests the basic opposition between these two film traditions This book serves as an introduction to the central concerns of his cinema while situation his work within German film history and the contemporary debates about postmodern film and media theory The Cinema of Wim

Wenders Alexander Graf, 2002 The Cinema of Wim Wenders The Celluloid Highway is a new study of the films of this most prominent of German directors and penetrates the seductive sounds and images for which he is best known The book analyses the individual films in the context of a preoccupation central to all of Wenders work and writings why modern cinema a recording art solely composed of sounds and images naturally developed into a primarily narrative medium a domain traditionally associated with words and sentences With its emphasis on analysing the films themselves this book identifies and critically elucidates Wenders chief artistic motivation that the act of seeing can constitute a creative act in its own right Deleuze and Cinema Felicity Colman, 2011-06-01 Gilles Deleuze published two radical books on film Cinema 1 The Movement Image and Cinema 2 The Time Image Engaging with a wide range of film styles histories and theories Deleuze s writings treat film as a new form of philosophy This cin philosophy offers a startling new way of understanding the complexities of the moving image its technical concerns and constraints as well as its psychological and political outcomes Deleuze and Cinema presents a step by step guide to the key concepts behind Deleuze s revolutionary theory of the cinema Exploring ideas through key directors and genres Deleuze s method is illustrated with examples drawn from American British continental European Russian and Asian cinema Deleuze and Cinema provides the first introductory guide to Deleuze s radical methodology for screen analysis It will be invaluable for students and teachers of Film Media and Philosophy

Culture in the Anteroom Johannes von Moltke, Gerd Gemünden, 2012-05-07 Culture in the Anteroom introduces an English speaking readership to the full range of Siegfried Kracauer s work as novelist architect journalist sociologist historian exile critic and theorist of visual culture This interdisciplinary anthology including pieces from Miriam Bratu Hansen Andreas Huyssen Noah Isenberg Lutz Koepnick Eric Rentschler and Heide Schl pmann brings together literary and film scholars historians and art historians sociologists and architects to address the scope and current relevance of a body of work dedicated to investigating all aspects of modernism and modernity The contributors approach Kracauer s writings from a variety of angles some by placing them in dialogue with his contemporaries in Weimar Germany and the New York Intellectuals of the 1940s and 50s others by exploring relatively unknown facets of Kracauer's oeuvre by considering his contributions to architectural history the history of radio as well as other new media and museum and exhibition culture

The Films of Wim Wenders Robert Phillip Kolker, Peter Beicken, 1993-01-29 The authors trace the development of one of the most well known directors of the New German Cinema that flourished in the 1970s and early 1980s Examining Wim Wenders' career from his early film school productions through his mature works of the 1970s this book also analyses the most recent works as well as the themes and preoccupations that unite his oeuvre As the authors note Wenders' works have been profoundly influenced by American films especially the road movie genre His own work often features characters who are always on the move in an attempt to capture a glimpse of their identity and place in the world They also represent a generation of postwar Germans seeking to redeem themselves and the history of their country by turning to American popular culture particularly its music and movies

Framed Visions Gerd Gemunden, 2025-10-01 Framed Visions analyzes the pivotal role American mass media and popular culture have played in shaping the political social and psychological identity of postwar Germans and Austrians Through detailed readings of films novels plays and poems of a variety of contemporary artists including Rainer Werner Fassbinder Wim Wenders Elfriede Jelinek Herbert Achternbusch Monika Treut Peter Handke and Rolf Dieter Brinkmann Gerd Gemunden reveals the paradoxical stance of this generation toward American politics and Hollywood aesthetics On the one hand they are pulled toward a culture that has shaped childhood images tastes and desires on the other they reject American politics and the colonizing effect of its mass culture In contrast to most scholarship about the reception of U S culture abroad this study underscores the imaginary relation of contemporary German and Austrian artists to America Topics such as Americanization and cultural imperialism are therefore treated not as a foreign principle imposed from the outside but as ways that German and Austrian artists have tried to come to terms with their own problematic culture and history Gemunden's study elucidates how the culture of the United States has been mapped in contradictory ways onto questions of national and cultural identity in Germany and Austria over the last thirty years Gerd Gemunden is Assistant Professor of German and Comparative Literature Dartmouth College

Examinations and Analysis of Sequels and Serials in the Film Industry Seçmen, Emre Ahmet, 2023-04-25 There are many elements in the concept of visual continuity and they are all interrelated In films or film series that are described as sequels establishing a visual integrity relationship between films comes to the fore The concept of the sequel appears in two ways Sometimes while the ideas are scripted the story is divided into more than one part Sometimes the story is planned as a single movie and after a certain time it can be realized as a follow up movie film for different reasons In both systems of expression it is necessary to seek harmony between all elements of visual design Examinations and Analysis of Sequels and Serials in the Film Industry examines certain contents through the concepts of cinematography and narrative focusing more on the practical side of cinema and partially on the theoretical side It examines samples sequels serials and trilogy universes on the axis of cinematography and narration Covering topics such as film landscape repeated narrative elements and storytelling this premier reference source is an excellent resource for film industry workers film students and educators sociologists librarians academicians and researchers Screen Writings Bert Cardullo,2010-03-01 Screen Writings Genres Classics and Aesthetics offers close readings of genre films and acknowledged film classics in an attempt to explore both the aesthetics of genre and the definition of classic as well as the changing perception of so called classic movies over time Implicitly theoretical as much as it is unashamedly practical this book is a model not only of film analysis but also of the enlightened deployment of cultural studies in the service of cinema study Road Movies D. Orgeron,2007-12-09 Road Movies engages with two foundational twentieth century technologies cinematic and automotive It is a book about road movies a genre burdened by its own seductiveness It is also however a book about images of human mobility more generally and the social function those images have served Film and Stereotype Jörg Schweinitz,2011 Since the early days of film critics and theorists have contested the value of formula clich conventional imagery and recurring narrative patterns of reduced complexity in cinema Whether it s the high noon showdown or the last minute rescue a lonely woman standing in the window or two lovers saying goodbye in the rain many films rely on scenes of stereotype and audiences have come to expect them Outlining a comprehensive theory of film stereotype a device as functionally important as it is problematic to a film s narrative J rg Schweinitz constructs a fascinating though overlooked critical history from the 1920s to today Drawing on theories of stereotype in linguistics literary analysis art history and psychology Schweinitz identifies the major facets of film stereotype and articulates the positions of theorists in response to the challenges posed by stereotype He reviews the writing of Susan Sontag Roland Barthes Theodor W Adorno Rudolf Arnheim Robert Musil B la Bal zs Hugo M nsterberg and Edgar Morin and he revives the work of less prominent writers such as Ren F l p Miller and Gilbert Cohen S at tracing the evolution of the discourse into a postmodern celebration of the device Through detailed readings of specific films Schweinitz also maps the development of models for adapting and reflecting stereotype from early irony Alexander Granowski and conscious rejection Robert Rossellini to critical deconstruction Robert Altman in the 1970s and celebratory transfiguration Sergio Leone and the Coen brothers Altogether a provocative spectacle Schweinitz s history reveals the role of film stereotype in shaping processes of communication and recognition as well as its function in growing media competence in audiences beyond cinema Defeated Masculinity Raya Morag,2009 The burgeoning field of trauma and cinema is an exciting development within contemporary trauma studies The author of this book describes the complex relationship between cinema and the trauma of defeat in war An asymmetric and non binary comparison of two test cases post World War II New German Cinema and post Vietnam War American cinema illuminates the indirect and intriguing ways these societies have dealt with the enormous psycho cultural difficulty of acknowledging their defeat and understanding its manifold meanings

This book draws on psychoanalysis masculinity studies and corporeal feminism to explore the bodily experience of defeat It examines themes and representations of body and sexuality to create a theoretical framework that reveals anew the link between defeated masculinity and nationalism Building on an original analysis of such varied films as The Deer Hunter Full Metal Jacket The Tin Drum and Paris Texas the author suggests new criteria that highlight the characteristics of post traumatic cinema

German National Cinema Sabine Hake,2013-01-11 German National Cinema is the first comprehensive history of German film from its origins to the present In this new edition Sabine Hake discusses film making in economic political social and cultural terms and considers the contribution of Germany's most popular films to changing definitions of genre authorship and film form The book traces the central role of cinema in the nation's turbulent history from the Wilhelmine Empire to the Berlin Republic with special attention paid to the competing demands of film as art entertainment and propaganda Hake also explores the centrality of genre films and the star system to the development of a filmic imaginary This fully revised and updated new edition will be required reading for everyone interested in German film and the history of modern Germany

Documentary Screens Keith Beattie,2017-04-29 Documentary productions encompass remarkable representations of surprising realities How do documentaries achieve their ends What types of documentaries are there What factors are implicated in their production Such questions animate this engaging study Documentary Screens is a comprehensive and critical study of the formal features and histories of central categories of documentary film and television Among the categories examined are autobiographical indigenous and ethnographic documentary compilation films direct cinema and cinema verite and television documentary journalism The book also considers recent so called popular factual entertainment and the future of documentary film television and new media This provocative and accessible analysis situates wide ranging examples from each category within the larger material forces which impact on documentary form and content The important connection between form content and context explored in the book constitutes a new and lively documentary studies approach to documentary representation

Projecting History Nora M. Alter,2009-08-27 The intersection between social historical and political developments in Germany and the emergence of a nonfiction mode of film production

The Euro-American Cinema Peter Lev,2014-05-23 From as scholar of mass communications an international study of the influence of Hollywood movies on twentieth century European art films With McDonalds in Moscow and Disneyland in Paris and Tokyo American popular culture is spreading around the globe Regional national and ethnic cultures are being powerfully affected by competition from American values and American popular forms This literate and lively study explores the spread of American culture into international cinema as reflected by the collision and partial merger of two important styles of filmmaking the Hollywood style of stars genres and action and the European art film style of ambiguity authorial commentary and borrowings from other arts Peter Lev departs from the traditional approach of national cinema histories and discusses some of the blends overlaps and hegemonies that are typical of the world film industry of recent years In Part One

he gives a historical and theoretical overview of what he terms the Euro American art film which is characterized by prominent use of the English language a European art film director cast and crew from at least two countries and a stylistic mixing of European art film and American entertainment The second part of Lev s study examines in detail five examples of the Euro American art film Contempt 1963 Blow Up 1966 The Canterbury Tales 1972 Paris Texas 1983 and The Last Emperor 1987 These case studies reveal that the European art film has had a strong influence on world cinema and that many Euro American films are truly cultural blends rather than abject takeovers by Hollywood cinema

The Autobiographical Turn in Germanophone Documentary and Experimental Film Robin Curtis, Angelica Fenner, 2014 The essays in this volume examine the parameters shaping the audiovisual self in the Germanophone cultural context across a variety of practices and aesthetic modes from contemporary artists including Hito Steyerl Ming Wong and Kate Hers to Rolf Dieter Brinkmann s multimedia experiments of the 1970s and from Helke Misselwitz s challenges to the documentary tradition in the GDR to Peter Liechti s investigations of Swiss ambivalence toward the nation s iconic landscape The volume thus takes up a number of historically and geographically specific iterations of autobiographical discourse that in each case remain contingent on the space and time in which they are uttered

The Oxford History of World Cinema, 1996-10-17 From its humble beginnings as a novelty in a handful of cities cinema has risen to become a billion dollar industry and the most spectacular and original contemporary art form It has spread to all parts of the globe and is enjoyed by audiences that cut across all sections of society The Oxford History of World Cinema traces the history of this enduringly popular entertainment medium Covering all aspects of its development stars studios and cultural impact the book celebrates and chronicles over one hundred years of diverse achievement from westerns to the New Wave from animation to the Avant Garde and from Hollywood to Hong Kong An international team of distinguished film historians tells the story of the major inventions and developments in the cinema business its institutions genres and personnel other chapters outline the evolution of national cinemas round the world the varied and distinctive filmic traditions that have developed alongside Hollywood A unique aspect of the book are the special inset features on the film makers and personalities Garbo and Godard Keaton and Kurosawa Bugs Bunny and Bergman who have had an enduring impact in popular memory and cinematic lore With over 300 illustrations a full bibliography and an extensive index this is the buff s ultimate guide to cinema worldwide

The Routledge Encyclopedia of Films Sabine Haenni, Sarah Barrow, John White, 2014-09-15 The Routledge Encyclopedia of Films comprises 200 essays by leading film scholars analysing the most important influential innovative and interesting films of all time Arranged alphabetically each entry explores why each film is significant for those who study film and explores the social historical and political contexts in which the film was produced Ranging from Hollywood classics to international bestsellers to lesser known representations of national cinema this collection is deliberately broad in scope crossing decades boundaries and genres The encyclopedia thus provides an introduction to the historical range and scope of cinema produced throughout
