G. Ballard* David Ian Paddy, 2015-08-25 J G Ballard once declared that the most truly alien planet is Earth and in his science fiction he abandoned the traditional imagery of rocket ships traveling to distant galaxies to address the otherworldliness of this world The Empires of J G Ballard is the first extensive study of Ballard's critical vision of nation and empire of the political geography of this planet Paddy examines how Ballard's self-perceived status as an outsider and exile the Sheppertonian from Shanghai generated an outlook that celebrated worldliness and condemned parochialism This book brings to light how Ballard wrestled with notions of national identity and speculated upon the social and psychological implications of the post-war transformation of older models of empire into new imperialisms of consumerism and globalization Presenting analyses of Ballard's full body of work with its tales of reverse colonization psychological imperialism the savagery of civilization estranged Englishmen abroad and at home and multinational communities built on crime The Empires of J G Ballard offers a fresh perspective on the fiction of J G Ballard The Empires of J G Ballard An Imagined Geography offers a sustained and highly convincing analysis of the imperial and post-imperial histories and networks that shape and energise Ballard's fictional and non-fictional writings To what extent can Ballard be considered an international writer What happens to our understanding of his post-war science fictions when they are opened up to the language and logics of post-colonialism And what creative and critical roles do the spectres of empire play in Ballard's visions of modernity Paddy follows these and other fascinating lines of enquiry in a study that is not only essential reading for Ballard students and scholars but for anyone interested in the intersections of modern and contemporary literature history and politics Jeanette Baxter Anglia Ruskin University Shanghai made my father Arriving in England after WW2 he was a person of the world who'd witnessed extremes of human experience and remained the outsider observing life from his home in Shepperton 1930s Shanghai Paris of the East was a mix of international sophistication and violence unfettered capitalism and acute poverty American cars martinis and Coca Cola a place marked by death and war It had a profound influence on my father and his imagination Dr Paddy's fascinating book explores my father's fiction within an international context and offers a profound reading of a man who always kept his eyes and mind open to the world Fay Ballard New York Magazine, 1987-12-14 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award-winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine's consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea The New York Times Guide to the Best 1,000 Movies Ever Made Peter M. Crash Iain Sinclair, 2019-07-25 David Cronenberg s Crash 1996 brought down a storm of controversy and opprobrium when it was first screened in London And yet it s a cool controlled formal film unsensational more analytic than titillating a brilliant expos of modern pathologies It has almost none of the violence and explicit sexual content of the J G Ballard novel from which it is adapted What is the relationship between Ballard himself and the character James Ballard in Crash In this book which includes an exclusive and revealing interview with Ballard Sinclair explores the uncanny temporal loop which connects film and novel If Cronenberg s adapted Crash he also absorbed it ingested it made it into something new But on the other hand the novel controls the film or uses the film to disguise its truly subversive intent And for Sinclair there are more startling permutations still To what extent for example is Crash a premonition of some of the more remarkable media events of recent times

Children in the Films of Steven Spielberg Adrian Schober, Debbie Olson, 2016-04-13 To say that children matter in Steven Spielberg s films is an understatement Think of the possessed Stevie in Something Evil TV Baby Langston in The Sugarland Express the alien abducted Barry in Close Encounters Elliott and his unearthly alter ego in E T the war damaged Jim in Empire of the Sun the little girl in the red coat in Schindler s List the mecha child in A I the kidnapped boy in Minority Report and the eponymous boy hero of The Adventures of Tintin There are many other instances across his oeuvre Contradicting his reputation as a purveyor of popcorn entertainment Spielberg's vision of children's childhood is complex. Discerning critics have begun to note its darker underpinnings increasingly fraught with tensions, conflicts, and anxieties. But while childhood is Spielberg's principal source of inspiration, the topic has never been the focus of a dedicated collection of essays. The essays in Children in the Films of Steven Spielberg therefore seek to address childhood in the full spectrum of Spielberg's cinema. Fittingly, the scholars represented here draw on a range of theoretical frameworks and disciplines: cinema studies, literary studies, audience reception, critical race theory, psychoanalysis, sociology, and more. This is an important book for not only scholars but teachers and students of Spielberg's work and for any serious fan of the director and his career. New York Magazine, 1988-01-25. Standard English Barry Spurr, Lloyd Cameron, 2000 Lifting the Veil on the Lost Continent of Mu, the Motherland of Men Jack Churchward, 2011-08-01. A re-issue of the 1926 classic by James Churchward. The Lost Continent of Mu: Motherland of Men supplemented with fresh research and new material by the author's great grandson. In the 1920s James Churchward wrote a series of groundbreaking books about the lost continent of Lemuria, which he called the land of Mu. The basic premises are these: The Garden of Eden was not in Asia but on a sunken continent in the Pacific Ocean. The Biblical story of creation came not from the peoples of the Nile but from this now submerged continent of Mu, the Motherland of Men. Mu was an advanced civilization of 64 million inhabitants. He obtained the information by living with monks and translating unknown manuscripts. Over the years, his books have come to be considered occult classics. Now his great grandson Jack Churchward has resurrected this valuable work and added his own research. Included: The Lost Continent, The Land of Man's Advent on Earth, Egyptian Sacred Volume, Book of the Dead, Symbols of Mu, North America's Place Among the Ancient Civilizations, The Geological History of Mu, Ancient Religious Conceptions, Ancient Sacred Mysteries, Rites and Ceremonies. Crosthwaite, 2009-01-29. The first sustained study of the relationship between Anglo-American postmodernist fiction and the Second World War. Crosthwaite demonstrates that postmodernism has not abandoned history but has rather reformulated it in terms of trauma that is traceable time and again to the catastrophes of the 1940s.
