Beyond the Borders Deborah L. Madsen, 2003-08-20 This book challenges the boundaries of postcolonial theory Focusing on American literature it examines how America's own imperial history has shaped the literature that has emerged from America from Native American Latino Black and Asian American writers They contrast this with postcolonial literature from countries whose history has been shaped by American colonialism from Canada Central America and the Caribbean to Hawaii Indonesia and Vietnam It explores questions about national identity and multiculturalism why for instance is a Native writer categorised within American literature if writing on one side of the border but as Canadian and postcolonial if writing on the other This is a challenging collection that raises questions not only about the boundaries of postcolonial theory but also about ethnicity and multiculturalism and the impact of immigration and assimilation Tricks with a Glass Rocío G. Davis, Rosalía Baena, 2000 Studies of literary reflections on ethnicity are essential to the ever renewed definition of Canadian literature The essays in this collection explore the diverse ways of negotiating identity and the articulation of space in Canada taking ethnicity as a driving force with ideological and cultural implications that lend public and literary discourse an urgent dynamism While theorizing ethnicity is a valuable critical enterprise these essays centre on the concrete realization of the problematics of ethnicity in creative writing covering a wide range of Canada's mosaic The creative inscription of ethnicity stimulates the evolution and expansion of Canada's literary heritage the complexity of this cultural experience being the focus of the present collection Fourteen essays including a personal account by the Ukrainian Canadian Janice Kulyk Keefer on the merging of private and public history and two interviews with the Chinese Canadian writer Wayson Choy and the critic Linda Hutcheon analyze the manifestations of the pluralism that has always characterized Canadian writers consciousness of themselves their engagement with the notion of the multicultural and its significance in contemporary society and in particular its effect on creativity Tricks with a Glass, 2022-04-19 Studies of literary reflections on ethnicity are essential to the ever renewed definition of Canadian literature The essays in this collection explore the diverse ways of negotiating identity and the articulation of space in Canada taking ethnicity as a driving force with ideological and cultural implications that lend public and literary discourse an urgent dynamism While theorizing ethnicity is a valuable critical enterprise these essays centre on the concrete realization of the problematics of ethnicity in creative writing covering a wide range of Canada's mosaic The creative inscription of ethnicity stimulates the evolution and expansion of Canada's literary heritage the complexity of this cultural experience being the focus of the present collection Fourteen essays including a personal account by the Ukrainian Canadian Janice Kulyk Keefer on the merging of private and public history and two interviews with the Chinese Canadian writer Wayson Choy and the critic Linda Hutcheon analyze the manifestations of the pluralism that has always characterized Canadian writers consciousness of themselves their engagement with the notion of the multicultural and its significance in contemporary society and in particular its effect on creativity The State of

Capitalism Costas Lapavistas, EReNSEP Writing Collective, 2023-08-29 Thinking beyond pandemic capitalism The health emergency that broke out in 2020 is a landmark event in the development of capitalism confirming the underlying change signalled by the Great Crisis of 2007 9 The pandemic has catapulted the state to the centre of economic activity However a historic impasse is steadily becoming apparent at the core of the world economy Productive accumulation is flaccid as both profitability and labour productivity are weak Financialisation has entered a new phase as shadow banking grew relative to other banks but is entirely dependent on the state The power of the state derives from command over fiat money and can certainly deliver enormous boosts to aggregate demand but that is not enough to tackle the weakness of the productive sector The rise in inflation for the first time in forty years indicates the impasse There is a transparent need for intervention on the supply side directly challenging capitalist property rights There is no evidence however that the ruling blocs in core countries would engage in such policies The pandemic crisis also brought to the fore fresh divisions of core and periphery across the world economy Imperialism has assumed new forms spurred by globally active financial capital and internationalised productive capital A renewed contest for hegemony has emerged as US power declined The economic challenge of China will unfold steadily in the years ahead intensifying political tensions and military rivalries This book is the work of a research collective comprising authors from several parts of the world It analyses these vital issues from the perspective of Marxist political economy and puts forth alternative anticapitalist proposals

Interfamily Tanci Writing in Nineteenth-Century China Yu Zhang, 2017-12-13 Employing an interdisciplinary approach this is the first monograph to frame three once widely read tanci fiction a type of lyrical narrative from nineteenth century China Meng ying yuan 1843 Yu xuan cao 1894 and Jing zhong zhuan 1895 as interrelated texts composed by three generation of members from one extended gentry family in South China Based on the framework of family bonds this book uses the three tanci works authored by a mother her daughter and a nephew to examine the history of how the changing aesthetics of tanci developed over China s turbulent nineteenth century It also demonstrates how the three writers used the genre of tanci to blur the boundaries of orthodox Confucian norms in order to depict the evolving nature of gendered power relations at the dawn of China s modernity

China's High-Tech Repression Against Uyghurs: Novel Theoretical Insights Lacin Idil Oztig, Abdurresit Celil Karluk, 2025-02-14 This book explores the socio spatial impacts of China s high tech repression against Uyghurs both within and beyond its borders The study is built on surveys in depth interviews and focus group discussions with the members of Uyghur diaspora in T rkiye Findings indicate that high tech repression minimizes the social life in East Turkestan This type of governance aims to achieve a complete erasure of privacy and individual agency by strategically leveraging technology While Uyghurs who escaped to T rkiye appear to gain relative freedom our findings indicate that with China s transnational repression mostly applied through Information and Communication Technologies ICTs they live in a social space which functions as a quasi spatial extension of East Turkestan

Ludwig,1996     Dreams in Chinese Fiction Johannes D. Kaminski,2024-06-07 This book considers the contemporary political formula of the Chinese Dream in the light of the treatment of dreams in Chinese literary history since antiquity Sinic literary and philosophical texts document an extensive spectrum of dream possibilities starting with Zhuangzi's eminent butterfly dream an early example of the inversion of the dreamer's reality through to confusing visions of the spiritual realm In classical dramas novels and ghost stories dreams see the earthly realm enter into conflict with higher realms of existence They indulge the dreamer's quest for sensual pleasures but then spiritual beings relentlessly harvest the dreamer's life energy Dreams promise spiritual enlightenment only to abandon the dreamer in a state of utter confusion In the early twentieth century traditional dream knowledge is abandoned in favour of Freudian episodes of sexual repression In this context the collective national dream emerges as an unexpected vehicle of the pained individual's hope for national rejuvenation     The Divided Heart Susan Bowden,1990 Alyssa Harcourt is sought by the son of Sir Philip Radcliffe but it is actually Sir Philip whom Alyssa loves And although Sir Philip's love for Alyssa is strong he cannot quite deny the feelings he has for the sensual and provocative Mary Queen of Scots     The Athenaeum ,1903     The Beautiful Country and the Middle Kingdom John Pomfret,2016-11-29 A remarkable history of the two centuries old relationship between the United States and China from the Revolutionary War to the present day From the clipper ships that ventured to Canton hauling cargos of American ginseng to swap Chinese tea to the US warships facing off against China's growing navy in the South China Sea from the Yankee missionaries who brought Christianity and education to China to the Chinese who built the American West the United States and China have always been dramatically intertwined For more than two centuries American and Chinese statesmen merchants missionaries and adventurers men and women have profoundly influenced the fate of these nations While we tend to think of America's ties with China as starting in 1972 with the visit of President Richard Nixon to China the patterns rapturous enchantment followed by angry disillusionment were set in motion hundreds of years earlier Drawing on personal letters diaries memoirs government documents and contemporary news reports John Pomfret reconstructs the surprising tragic and marvelous ways Americans and Chinese have engaged with one another through the centuries A fascinating and thrilling account The Beautiful Country and the Middle Kingdom is also an indispensable book for understanding the most important and often the most perplexing relationship between any two countries in the world     PROCEEDINGS OF THE SECOND INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE ON GLOBALIZATION: CHALLENGES FOR TRANSLATORS AND INTERPRETERS Youbin Zhao,Wei Lin,Zhiqing Zhang,2017-07-04 This two volume book contains the refereed proceedings of The Second International Conference on Globalization Challenges for Translators and Interpreters organized by the School of Translation Studies Jinan University China on its Zhuhai campus October 27-29 2016 The interrelation between translation and globalization is essential reading for not only scholars and educators but also anyone with an interest in translation and interpreting studies or a concern for the future of our world's languages and
