Parliamentary Agency and Regional Integration in Europe and Beyond Bruno Theodoro Luciano, 2021-08-17 This comparative book analyses the development of regional integration parliaments in three different continents of the world. It assesses and compares the expansion and current stage of institutional development of three regional assemblies: the European Parliament, the Pan African Parliament, and the Mercosur Parliament for Latin America. Looking in particular at parliamentary agency, it aims to answer why and to what extent these regional parliaments have developed differently in terms of their functions and legislative competences. Drawing on new and original empirical data, official documents, and secondary literature, the book focuses on the critical junctures in the trajectory of the three assemblies and argues that parliamentary agency has impacted the institutional development of the parliaments, leading to diverse paths of regional parliamentarisation. This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of global and regional governance, comparative regionalism, European Union studies, legislative studies, and more broadly to international relations, history, law, political economy, and international organisations.

Dynamics of Regional Growth in Europe Andres Rodriguez-Pose, 1998-11-19 In a period of deep economic, social, and political transformation, regional disparities seem to be particularly resistant to change. The emergence of a global economy, the shift in production methods, and the greater mobility of capital, labour, and raw materials have not brought about a radical reshuffling of the prevailing regional disparities. There is a greater concentration of economic activity in core areas, and very few peripheral regions are taking advantage of the process of global restructuring. The Dynamics of Regional Growth in Europe looks for the reasons behind this persistence in the social, political, and institutional arrangements of a large set of European regions by trying to relate two scientific approaches concerned with regional economic performance which share very little in common the literature on socio economic restructuring and structural change and neoclassical and endogenous growth theories OXFORD GEOGRAPHICAL AND ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES AIMS TO PUBLISH THE BEST ORIGINAL RESEARCH STUDIES IN THE RELATED FIELDS OF GEOGRAPHY AND ENVIRONMENTAL STUDIES IT S SCOPE IS INTERNATIONAL PRESENTING A BROAD AND DIVERSE RANGE OF SCHOLARLY APPROACHES FROM ACROSS THE WORLD SERIES

EDITORS GORDON CLARK ANDREW GOUDIE AND CERI PEACH Policy Change under New Democratic Capitalism Hideko Magara,2016-12-19 Democratic capitalism in developed countries has been facing an unprecedented crisis since 2008 Its political manageability is declining sharply Both democracy and capitalism now involve crucial risks that are significantly more serious than those observed in earlier periods The notion of policy regimes has gained new significance in analysing the possibilities for a post neoliberal alternative Policy innovations directed towards an economic breakthrough require both political leadership and a new economic theory The processes of political decision making have become quite distant from the public realm and a limited number of economic and political elites exert influence on public policy This book examines from a policy regime perspective how developed countries attempt to achieve such a breakthrough at critical junctures triggered by economic crises It initially assesses the nature of the present crisis and identifies the actors involved Thereafter it provides an analytical definition of a crisis stressing that most crises contain within them the potential to be turned into an opportunity Finally it presents a new analytical design in which we can incorporate today s more globalized and fluid context The Federalist Papers and Institutional Power In American Political Development D. Wirls,2015-04-08

This book reconnects The Federalist Papers to the study of American politics and political development arguing that the papers contain previously unrecognized theory of institutional power a theory that enlarges and refines the contribution of the papers to political theory but also reconnects the papers to the study of American politics Dragon in a Three-piece Suit

Doug Guthrie,2002-01-15 Old habits China s powerful state administration and the hierarchy of the former command economy will continue to have profound effects on how firms act and how they adjust to change Jacket The Common Agricultural Policy and Organic Farming Kennet Lynggaard,2006 The Common Agricultural Policy and Organic Farming covers how ideational change came about to enhance the understanding of change within the Common Agricultural Policy CAP and to plan and implement change in European agriculture policy The contents cover institutional change within the CAP and focus on the institutional construction policy concerned with organic farming Community-University

Engagement: A Process for Building Democratic Communities Tami L. Moore,2014-04-29 As the emphasis on economic development through community university engagement intensifies educators and policy makers must learn to think differently about the engagement process This is particularly true when a narrowly defined group of leaders sets the engagement agenda and those who are traditionally underrepresented continue to be marginalized in the conversations about their own futures Emphasizing the importance of community as a context for engagement and building strong relationships over time Moore calls on institutional leaders to intentionally facilitate broad participation by all members of a community in discussions about how and in what direction the community will develop This is the second issue of the 40th volume of the Josse Bass series ASHE Higher Education Report Each monograph is the definitive analysis of a tough higher education issue based on thorough research of pertinent literature and institutional experiences Topics are identified by a national survey Noted practitioners and scholars are then commissioned to write the reports with experts providing critical reviews of each manuscript before publication
