Near Eastern Contexts Brian R. Doak, 2015-11-05 A close look at Phoenician religion The Hebrew Bible contains a prohibition against divine images Exod 20 2 5a Explanations for this command are legion usually focusing on the unique status of Israel's deity within the context of the broader Near Eastern and Mediterranean worlds Doak explores whether or not Israel was truly alone in its severe stance against idols This book focuses on one particular aspect of this iconographic context in Israel's Iron Age world that of the Phoenicians The question of whether Phoenicians employed aniconic as opposed to iconic representational techniques has significance not only for the many poorly understood aspects of Phoenician religion generally but also for the question of whether aniconism can be considered a broader trend among the Semitic populations of the ancient Near East Features More than fifty images and illustrations Examination of textual and archaeological evidence Application of art historical methods The Contract Between a Specter and a Servant, Vol. 1 (light novel) Michiru Fushino, 2024-03-19 The worst and last day of his life Masamichi Adachi left his hometown in the country to study agriculture at university He prepared diligently for the exam got his own apartment and landed a part time job to pay rent and support himself He's doing everything right so why is it all going horribly wrong He's failed the entrance exam twice lost his job and to top it all off a hit and run leaves him a lonely bloody mess on a dark road Just as he accepts his fate and goes toward the light an unlikely savior approaches drawn by the smell of his blood A contract with this stranger could give him a second chance at life but will he agree to terms that include being eaten alive Spirits of Vengeance Rob J. In the World, But Not of the World Andrew L. Fitz-Gibbon, 2000-01-01 In the World But Not of the World explores the threefold tension among Alasdair MacIntyre's prognosis for Western society the desires of some for a social transformation with a Christian moral vision at the sacred centre and a baptist understanding of Christianity as essentially voluntary non sacralist discipleship Andrew Fitz Gibbon uses five contemporary Christian social thinkers from different traditions as conversation partners Through his examination of these thinkers Fitz Gibbon explores how the church may continue to truthfully narrate the Christian story in the midst of the moral tensions of late capitalist Western society His creative conclusion is that the church at the beginning of the twenty first century can move toward a resolution of the central tension of being in the world but not of the world through a synthesis of the believers church tradition and an affirmation of communitarian liberal democracy
