Empty Words Writings 73 78:

Empty Words John Cage, 1979-02 Writings through James Joyce's Finnegans Wake Norman O Brown and The Future of Music Empty Words John Cage, 1979 Empty Words John Cage, 1980 Sound States Adalaide Morris, 2018-06-15 By investigating the relationship between acoustical technologies and twentieth century experimental poetics this collection with an accompanying compact disc aims to turn up the volume on printed works and rethink the way we read hear and talk about literary texts composed after telephones phonographs radios loudspeakers microphones and tape recorders became facts of everyday life The collection's twelve essays focus on earplay in texts by James Joyce Ezra Pound H D Samuel Beckett William Burroughs Amiri Baraka Bob Kaufman Robert Duncan and Kamau Brathwaite and in performances by John Cage Caribbean DJ poets and Cecil Taylor From the early twentieth century soundscapes of Futurist and Dadaist sonosphers to Henri Chopin's electroacoustical audio poemes the authors argue these states of sound make bold but wavering statements statements held only partially in check by meaning The contributors are Loretta Collins James A Connor Michael Davidson N Katherine Hayles Nathaniel Mackey Steve McCaffery Alec McHoul Toby Miller Adalaide Morris Fred Moten Marjorie Perloff Jed Rasula and Garrett Stewart Reader's Guide to Music Murray Steib, 2013-12-02 The Reader's Guide to Music is designed to provide a useful single volume guide to the ever increasing number of English language book length studies in music Each entry consists of a bibliography of some 3-20 titles and an essay in which these titles are evaluated by an expert in the field in light of the history of writing and scholarship on the given topic The more than 500 entries include not just writings on major composers in music history but also the genres in which they worked from early chant to rock and roll and topics important to the various disciplines of music scholarship from aesthetics to gay lesbian musicology Reading the Modernist Long Poem Brendan C. Gillott, 2020-12-10 How do readers approach the enigmatic and unnavigable modernist long poem Taking as the form's exemplars the highly influential but critically contentious poetries of John Cage and Charles Olson this book considers indeterminacy the fundamental feature of the long poem by way of its analogues in musicology mycology cybernetics and philosophy It addresses features of these works that figure broadly in the long poem tradition such as listing typography archives mediation and mereology while articulating how both poets broke with the longform poetic traditions of the early 1900s Brendan C Gillott argues for Cage's and Olson's centrality to these traditions in developing critiquing and innovating on the longform poetics of the past their work revolutionized the longform poetry of the 20th and 21st centuries Encyclopedia of American Poetry: The Twentieth Century Eric L. Haralson, 2014-01-21 The Encyclopedia of American Poetry The Twentieth Century contains over 400 entries that treat a broad range of individual poets and poems along with many articles devoted to topics schools or periods of American verse in the century Entries fall into three main categories poet entries which provide biographical and cultural contexts for the author's career entries on individual works which offer closer explication of the most resonant poems in the 20th century canon and topical entries which offer analyses of a given period of literary production school thematically constructed category or other verse tradition that historically has been in dialogue with the poetry of the United States

The Experience of Translation Madeleine Campbell, Ricarda Vidal, 2024-04-19 Campbell Vidal and their contributors expand the notion of translation beyond linguistic modal and medial borders to embrace posthumanist perspectives through a holistic experiential epistemology which envisions translation as engaged situated social practice The first of two volumes this book focuses on questions of materiality and play Drawing together contributions on theory methodology and practice from translators scholars and practitioners working in the creative and performing arts this book explores how contemporary experiential acts of interpretation mediation and negotiation can serve to bridge social and cultural discontinuities across time and space These range from ancestral past to digital present from rural to urban environments across the globe Experiential translation applies a transdisciplinary lens to problematize views of translation and untranslatability traditionally bound by structuralist frames of reference and the reserve of professional linguistic translation The chapters in this book apply this experiential lens to understand a pluriverse of creative translation practices where the translator's subject position in relation to the original is transformed by the role of experimentation creativity and play This book and its companion volume The Translation of Experience Cultural Artefacts in Experiential Translation will be of particular interest to translators and arts practitioners scholars and researchers in the transdisciplinary field of humanities Funding This work was supported by UKRI under AHRC Grant AH V008234 1 awarded to Ricarda Vidal King's College London Principal Investigator and Madeleine Campbell University of Edinburgh Co Investigator

Incarnations of Material Textuality Katarzyna Bazarnik, Izabela Curyłło-Klag, 2014-10-02 Liberature coined from the Latin liber is simultaneously a movement in contemporary Polish literature and a term referring to literary works that integrate text and material features of the book into an organic whole in accordance with the author's design The present volume collects essays inspired by this theoretical concept first proposed by Polish poet Zenon Fajfer in 1999 but soon picked up and elaborated on by international scholars As noted by the contributing authors preceding Jessica Pressman's idea of bookishness and coinciding with N Katherine Hayles' fundamental writings liberature appeared at the end of the 20th century as if to resume and systematize the intuitions and provocative statements of writers concerned with the future of the book It fits into a wider turn towards the recognition of the embodied nature of information in anthropology literary textual media and AI studies Yet its distinctness consists in the fact that it was suggested by a creative writer and that it proposes to see the authorially shaped materiality of writing in terms of a literary genre The essays collected here present the modernist roots and inspirations of liberature address the semantics of typography and the question of materiality of literary writing and explore how the abstract body of the printed book is transformed into an experience of embodiment The volume is completed with a reprint of Fajfer's seminal essays with a view to making them more available to English speaking readers

Philosophy as Experimentation, Dissidence and Heterogeneity José Miranda Justo, Elisabete M. de

Sousa, Fernando M. F. Silva, 2021-09-24 Contemporary philosophical research interconnects classical domains of philosophy the arts literature and social sciences This collection of essays explores the operational role of experimentation dissidence and heterogeneity in this process It offers fundamentals for the criticism of monolithical tendencies often put forward under the banner of the Speculative Turn or New Realism by means of exploring the contribution and influence of authors such as J G Hamann Kierkegaard Nietzsche and Guy Debord These philosophers historically placed within the margins of the philosophical mainstream were decisive in the emergence of the philosophical thought and practices of Deleuze Wittgenstein and Bataille as shown here The reader will also find re evaluations of the contributions of Vico Spinoza or Kant to posterity next to new readings of authors like Foucault Hadot Benjamin and Adorno with regards to their significant experimental and dissident positions

The Poethical Wager Joan Retallack, 2003 Annotation The interrelated essays in this book explore the coming together of ethics and poetics in literatures that engage with their contemporary moments to become wagers on the future of meaning The central concern of The Poethical Wager is the relation of poetics to agency in a chaotic world

The Cambridge Companion to John Cage David Nicholls, 2002-08-01 John Cage 1912 1992 was without doubt one of the most important and influential figures in twentieth century music Pupil of Schoenberg Henry Cowell Marcel Duchamp and Daisetz Teitaro Suzuki among others he spent much of his career in pursuit of an unusual goal giving up control so that sounds can be sounds as he put it This book celebrates the richness and diversity of Cage s achievements the development of the prepared piano and of the percussion orchestra the adoption of chance and of indeterminacy the employment of electronic resources and of graphic notation and the questioning of the most fundamental tenets of Western art music Besides composing around 300 works he was also a prolific performer writer poet and visual artist Written by a team of experts this Companion discusses Cage s background his work and its performance and reception providing in sum a fully rounded portrait of a fascinating figure

Modern Music and After Paul Griffiths, 2011-02-16 Over the course of three decades Modern Music and After has earned its place as the standard work on the processes of musical renewal that began in 1945 It is essential reading for the enquiring listener and is used widely in university and conservatory courses

The New Music Theater Eric Salzman, Thomas Dézsy, 2008-11-06 The New Music Theater is the first comprehensive attempt in English to cover a still emerging art form in its widest range This book written for the reader who comes from the contemporary worlds of music theater film literature and visual arts provides a wealth of examples and descriptions not only of the works themselves but of the concepts ideas and trends that have gone into the evolution of what may be the most central performance art form of the post modern world

Noise Thinks the Anthropocene Aaron Zwitscher, 2019-02-12 In an increasingly technologized and connected world it seems as if noise must be increasing Noise however is a complicated term with a complicated history Noise can be traced through structures of power theories of knowledge communication and scientific practice as well as through questions of art sound and music Thus rather than assume that it must be increasing this work has focused on better understanding the various ways that noise is defined what that noise can do and how we can use noise as a strategically political tactic Noise Thinks the Anthropocene is a textual experiment in noise poetics that uses the growing body of research into noise as source material It is an experiment in that it results from indeterminate means alternative grammar and experimental thinking The outcome was not predetermined It uses noise to explain elucidate and evoke akin to other poetic forms within the textual milieu in a manner that seeks to be less determinate and more improvisational than conventional writing Noise Thinks the Anthropocene argues that noise poetics is a necessary form for addressing political inequality coexistence with the nonhuman other the ecological crisis and sustainability because it approaches these issues as a system of interconnected fragments and excesses and thus has the potential to reach or envision solutions in novel ways Silencing the Sounded Self Christopher Shultis,2013-11-05

Christopher Shultis observes an intriguing contrast between John Cage s affinity for Thoreau and fellow composer Charles Ives connection with Emerson Although both Thoreau and Emerson have been called transcendentalists they held different views about the relationship between nature and humanity and the artist s role in creativity Shultis explores the artist s sounded or silenced selves the self that takes control of the creative experience versus the one that seeks to coexist with it and shows how understanding this distinction allows a better understanding of Cage Having placed Cage in this experimental tradition of music poetry and literature Shultis offers provocative interpretations of Cage s aesthetic views especially as they concern the issue of non intention and addresses some of his most path breaking music as well as several experimentally innovative written works A Chance Meeting Rachel Cohen,2024-03-19 Weaving a tapestry of creativity and circumstance this lauded chronicle of the many links and serendipitous meetings between giants of American culture from Henry James to Gertrude Stein to Zora Neale Hurston to Marcel Duchamp now includes a new afterword by the author Rachel Cohen s A Chance Meeting is a dazzling group portrait that offers a striking new vision of the making and remaking of the American mind and imagination from the Civil War to the Vietnam War How does the happenstance of daily life become history Cohen shows us describing a series of now boldly now subtly transformative encounters between a wide and surprising range of Americans A young Henry James has his portrait taken by the photographer Mathew Brady Brady who will receive Walt Whitman in his studio and depict General Grant on the battlefield Later W E B Du Bois and his professor William James visit Helen Keller Edward Steichen and Alfred Stieglitz argue about photography and Langston Hughes and Zora Neale Hurston write a play together Throughout Cohen s narrative loops back and leaps forward with supreme agility connecting among others Willa Cather Elizabeth Bishop Marianne Moore Beauford Delaney James Baldwin and Richard Avedon In A Chance Meeting Rachel Cohen offers an abiding account of the continuing challenges and the astonishing achievements of American life A Bibliography of Conceptual Writing yigru zelti,2017-01-27 The first final version of a never ending project a concrete poetry and so on Like the editors of the anthology I ll Drown My Book Conceptual Writing by Women I consider a more inclusive definition At least in my version and I invite other people to continue it if they can want to there are more than a thousand books and hundreds of authors included from different countries nationalities genders as different as it is possible for now of course Authors are sorted alphabetically books by the same author chronologically More about the process and about my views on conceptualism can be found in the opening of the book For free PDF check <http://khora.impex.com> P S The file of v1.0 did not make it through Lulu printers sorry to those of you who ordered it This sadly b/w version contains corrections and additions

Where the Heart Beats Kay Larson, 2013-07-30 A heroic biography of John Cage and his awakening through Zen Buddhism a kind of love story about a brilliant American pioneer of the creative arts who transformed himself and his culture The New York Times Composer John Cage sought the silence of a mind at peace with itself and found it in Zen Buddhism a spiritual path that changed both his music and his view of the universe Remarkably researched exquisitely written Where the Heart Beats weaves together a great many threads of cultural history Maria Popova Brain Pickings to illuminate Cage's struggle to accept himself and his relationship with choreographer Merce Cunningham Freed to be his own man Cage originated exciting experiments that set him at the epicenter of a new avant garde forming in the 1950s Robert Rauschenberg Jasper Johns Andy Warhol Yoko Ono Allan Kaprow Morton Feldman and Leo Castelli were among those influenced by his teaching and preaching Where the Heart Beats shows the blossoming of Zen in the very heart of American culture

Prior to Meaning Steve McCaffery, 2001 Prior to Meaning collects a decade of writing on poetry language and the theory of writing by one of the most innovative and conceptually challenging poets of the last twenty five years In essays that are wide ranging richly detailed and novel in their surprising juxtapositions of disparate material Steve McCaffery works to undo the current bifurcation between theory and practice to show how a poetic text might be the source rather than the product of the theoretical against which it must be read
